A New Look for Our Outreach Building

By the grace of God, we have completed the renovation and maintenance work of our Outreach building. We will have an open house on Saturday, September 30, after the 4 p.m. Mass and on Sunday, October 1, after the 8, 10, and noon Masses. Kindly come and see what we have done to improve the facilities of our Outreach building. We will also give out paper bags with a want list of items after all the weekend Masses in case some people may not have time to come to the open house.

The renovation and maintenance work of the Outreach building was made possible through the generosity of Sheila Smith, who passed away four years ago. She was the leader of the Outreach Volunteers for many years and was very much committed to this ministry. May she Rest in Peace!

With this renovation and maintenance work, the Outreach building has a new roof, new exterior hardboard siding, three new exterior doors, and a new coat of paint on both the outside and the inside of the building.

Inside, you will see new laminated flooring, new LED lighting, new ceiling fans, new white cabinets in the office, remodeled toilet, sink, and mirror, new storage shelves, a new three-door refrigerator, a new two-door freezer, a new phone system, new waiting room chairs, and new signs. The space inside was enlarged to make a larger waiting room and more storage area by taking some space from the work shed.

The entrance was moved from the side facing the school playground to the back, across from the soccer field. It will provide more parking space and keep traffic away from the school.

The Men's Club room in the Outreach building has new flooring, a window in the place of the garage door, new white storage cabinets, a new door, and a new sign. A new storage shed (8'x20') is provided to the Men's Club in place of their storage room, which now belongs to the Outreach Food Pantry.

The work of the Outreach building was completed within a short time under the able leadership of Dennis Boucher and the Building Committee. In the name of the parish community, I congratulate them for their efficient leadership and thank them for their selfless and dedicated services to the parish.

Una Nueva Apariencia para Nuestro Edificio de Extensión (Outreach)

Sheila Smith

Por la gracia de Dios, hemos completado el trabajo de renovación y mantenimiento de nuestro edificio de Alcance (Outreach). Tendremos una jornada de puertas abiertas el Sábado 30 de Septiembre, después de la Misa de las 4 p.m., y el Domingo 1 de Octubre, después de las Misas de 8, 10 y mediodía. Por favor venga y vea lo que hemos hecho para mejorar las instalaciones de nuestro edificio de extensión. También entregaremos bolsas de papel con una lista de artículos deseados después de las Misas del fin de semana en caso de que algunas personas no tengan tiempo de venir a la jornada de puertas abiertas.

El trabajo de renovación y mantenimiento del edificio Outreach fue posible gracias a la generosidad de Sheila Smith, quien falleció hace cuatro años. Ella fue la líder de los Voluntarios de Alcance durante muchos años y estaba muy comprometida con este ministerio. ¡Que descanse en paz!

Con este trabajo de renovación y mantenimiento, el edificio Outreach tiene un techo nuevo, un nuevo revestimiento exterior de tableros duros, tres puertas exteriores nuevas y una nueva capa de pintura tanto en el exterior como en el interior del edificio.

En el interior, verá nuevos pisos laminados, nueva ilu-minación LED, nuevos ventiladores de techo, nuevos gabinetes blancos en la oficina, inodoro, lavabo y espejo remodelados, nuevos estantes de almacenamiento, un nuevo refrigerador de tres puertas, un nuevo congelador de dos puertas, un nuevo sistema telefónico, nuevas sillas para la sala de espera y nuevos letreros. El espacio interior se amplió para crear una sala de espera más grande y más área de almacenamiento, tomando algo de espacio del cobertizo de trabajo.

La entrada se trasladó del lado que daba al patio de la escuela hacia atrás, frente al campo de fútbol. Proporcionará más espacio de estacionamiento y mantendrá el tráfico alejado de la escuela.

Outreach volunteers

La sala del Club de Hombres (Men's Club) en el edificio Outreach tiene pisos nuevos, una ventana en el lugar de la puerta del garaje, gabinetes de almacenamiento blancos nuevos, una puerta nueva y un letrero nuevo. Se proporciona un nuevo cobertizo de almacenamiento (8'x20') al Club de Hombres en lugar de su cuarto de almacenamiento, que ahora pertenece a Outreach Food Pantry.

El trabajo del edificio Outreach de extensión se completó en poco tiempo bajo el hábil liderazgo de Dennis Boucher y el Comité de Construcción. En nombre de la comunidad parroquial, los felicito por su liderazgo eficiente y les agradezco por sus servicios desinteresados y dedicados a la Parroquia.

Um novo visual para o nosso edifício de Outreach

Com a graça de Deus, concluímos o trabalho de renovação e manutenção do nosso edifício de Outreach. Teremos uma "Open house" no Sábado, 30 de Setembro, depois da Missa das 16h e no Domingo, 1º de Outubro, após as Missas das 8, 10 e meio-dia. Agradecemos que venham e vejam o que fizemos para melhorar as instalações do nosso edifício Outreach. Também distribuiremos sacos de papel com uma lista de itens que precisamos, após todas as missas do fim de semana, caso algumas pessoas não tenham tempo de vir à "Open house".

O trabalho de renovação e manutenção do edifício Outreach foi possível graças à generosidade de Sheila Smith, que faleceu há quatro anos. Ela foi a líder dos Voluntários de Outreach por muitos anos e era muito dedicada com este ministério. Que ela descanse em paz!

Com este trabalho de renovação e manutenção, o edifício Outreach tem um novo telhado, novas paredes exteriores, três novas portas exteriores e uma nova pintura tanto no exterior como no interior do edifício.

No interior, você verá um novo piso, nova iluminação LED, novas ventoinhas, novos armários brancos no escritório, sanita, lavatório e espelho remodelados, novas prateleiras de armazenamento, um novo frigorífico de três portas, um novo congelador de duas portas, um novo sistema de telefone, novas cadeiras de sala de espera e novos letreiros. O espaço interno foi ampliado para fazer uma sala de espera maior e mais área de armazenamento, tirando algum espaço do barracão de trabalho.

A entrada foi mudada do lado do recreio da escola para a parte de traz, em frente ao campo de futebol. Proporcionará assim mais espaços para estacionamento e manterá o trânsito longe da escola.

A sala do Men's Club no edifício Outreach tem novo piso, uma janela no lugar da porta da garagem, novos armários de armazenamento brancos, uma nova porta e uma nova placa. Um novo barracão de armazenamento (8'x20') será fornecido ao Clube dos Homens no lugar da sua sala de armazenamento, que agora pertence à Despensa de Alimentos.

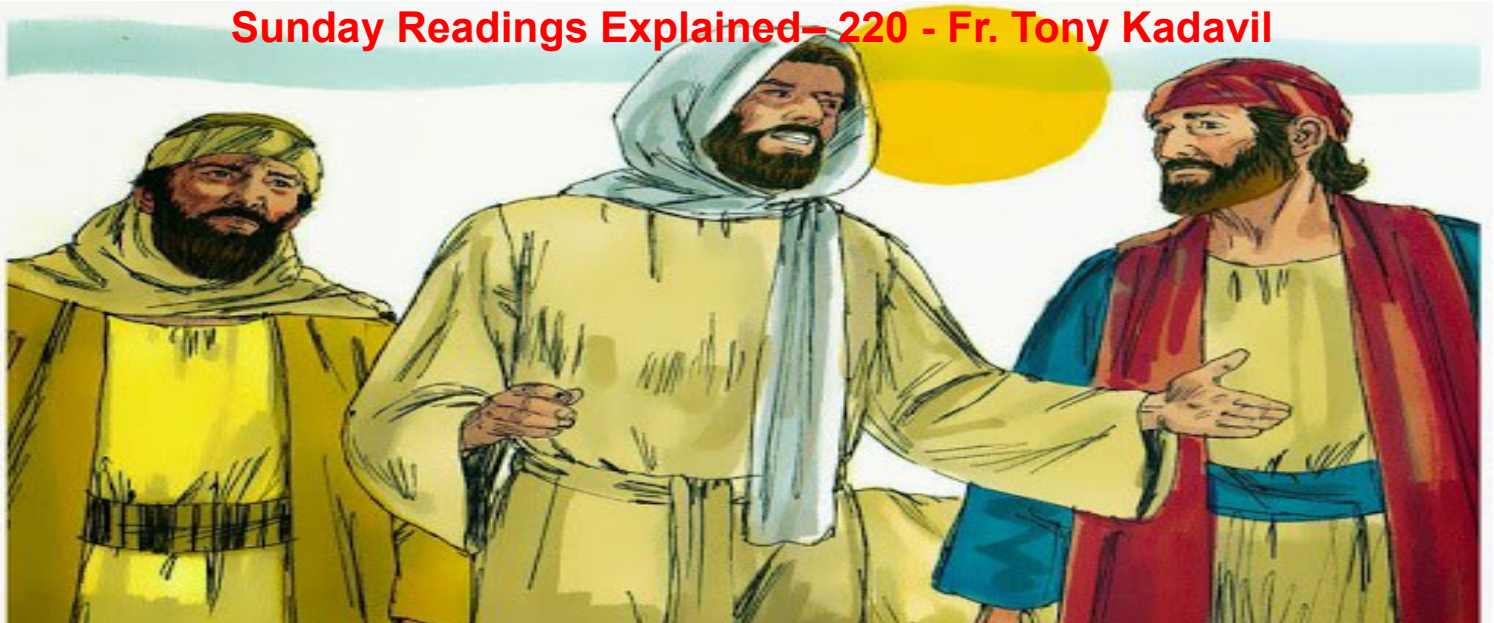

O trabalho do edifício Outreach foi concluído em pouco tempo sob a excelente liderança de Dennis Boucher e do Comitê de Construção. Em nome da comunidade paroquial, felicito-os pela vossa eficiente liderança e agradeço-lhes os serviços prestados que dedicaram à paróquia.

Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Ezekiel 18:25-28; Philippians 2:1-11; Mathew 21:28-32

Christian Life Means Saying 'Yes' to God Always

Introduction

Today's Scripture passages warn us that it is our final decision for or against God that is most important because we are rewarded or punished according to it. In the first reading, Ezekiel's message from the Lord God to Israel answers the objections of those who think it is not fair that God should give such weight to one's final decision because a person who, after a very long virtuous life, finally chooses sin will be punished, while another, who finally chooses virtue after a life of loose morals, will be rewarded. Today's Responsorial Psalm (Ps 25), appeals to God in His compassion and mercy, begging Him to wipe away our sins and extend mercy to us. The second reading, taken from Paul's Letter to the Philippians, also affirms the truth that the final choice for God, made by perfect obedience to Him, will be rewarded. Paul emphasizes the fact that, because of Christ's obedience to God's will, emptying himself, taking human form and humbling himself by accepting death on a cross, God the Father exalted Christ, bestowed on him the Name above every other name, and made Jesus the recipient of universal adoration. In the parable in today's Gospel, a man with two sons tells both to go out to work in the vineyard. The first son says he won't go, but later regrets it and works. The second son says he will go but does not. In each case, it is the final decision that is more important. Repentant tax-collectors and prostitutes, represented by the first son who initially refused to go, will make their way into the Kingdom of God before the chief priests and the elders, represented by the second son in the parable.

First Reading, Ezekiel 18:25-28

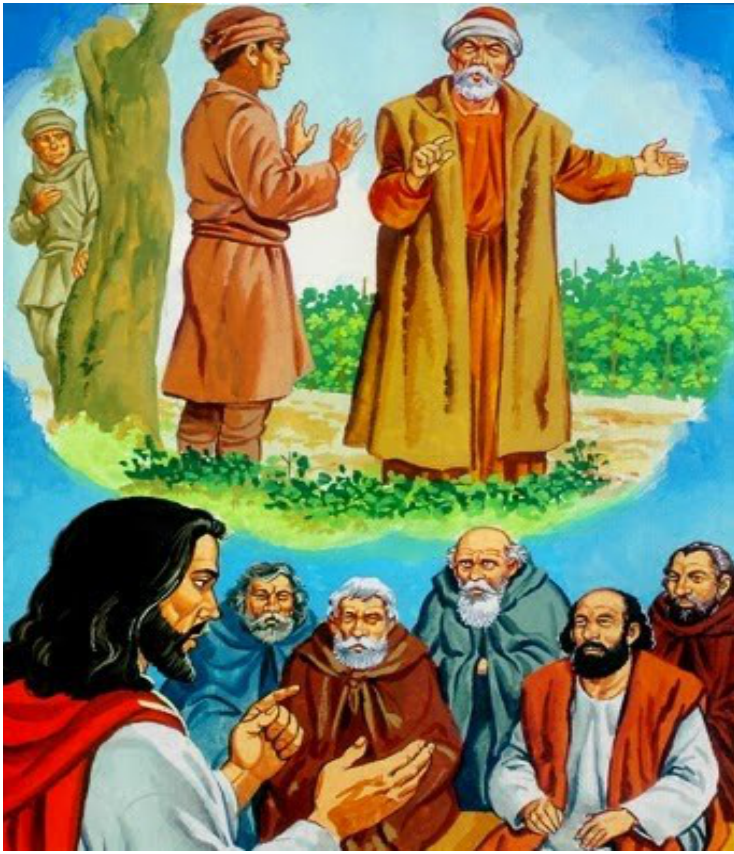

In chapter 18, the Lord God, through His prophet, Ezekiel, challenges two old beliefs common among His people: that children inherit the guilt of their ancestors and are punished for it, and that God is more strict than merciful. Here, the Lord God declares His option for personal responsibility, which means each person is to be rewarded or punished according to his or her individual actions, not for someone else's. In today's passage, Ezekiel answers the objection raised by the Jewish slaves in Babylon, "Our ancestors sinned, but we are punished, and so God is not fair!" God's message is that His mercy overrules strict justice, and He doesn't hold our past against us. Hence, if God is "not fair," it is to our advantage, because He doesn't hold the past against us and always gives us another chance. In the same chapter of Ezekiel, God returns this "not fair" accusation, asking the House of Israel if their ways are "fair" when they turn from God's love to serve false gods and their own false sense of what life is.

We often think that it is not fair for God to reward or punish one based only on one's final option for God or against God, without considering one's lifetime indulgence in vices or lifetime practice of virtues. The prophecy's response is that God always gives people a chance to change and to accept the consequences of that change. The Lord further explains that that it is possible for a wicked person to renounce his sins, begin respecting God's law, and live an upright life. Such a person will not die but live, and God will not remember any of his crimes against him. Likewise, it is possible for a good person to turn away from uprightness and to forfeit the favor of God and neighbor. Such a person's past good deeds will be "forgotten from then on," and he shall die for his sins, unless, of course, he repents and turns back to God. The Good News is that God is always ready to forgive; we need only show willingness to accept God's forgiveness through our forgiveness of each other.

Can one who "denies one's faith" ever come back into the Church?

Yes. This issue confronted Pope Cornelius in the 3rd Century, and he called a Synod of Bishops to proclaim that a truly repentant apostate who changes his mind can be readmitted to the Church community after receiving the Sacrament of Reconciliation and doing penance.

should show great concern and great caution about Jesus' presence in the Temple. That is why Jesus addressed this parable to those (v. 23) who approached him while he taught in the Temple and asked for his credentials: "By what authority are you doing these things, and who gave you this authority?" The parable of the two sons serves Jesus as a master strategy for defending his honor and presenting a counterchallenge to his adversaries. The purpose of this parable was to give a wake-up call to the chief priests and elders. The parable hints that their position as leaders of the Chosen People and their observance of Mosaic Law give them no guarantee that they will possess the Kingdom of God. Rather, because of their pride and their refusal to obey God's call to repentance, they will exclude themselves from that Kingdom, while the tax-collectors and sinners, whom they despise, repenting of their sins and obeying Him, will be welcomed by Him into the Kingdom.

Parable and its meaning: Barclay calls this parable "The Better of Two Bad Sons." Jesus presents us with a vineyard owner who has two sons. Both sons are asked by their father to go and work in his vineyard. The first son, when asked, says, "No." He later changes his mind and goes. The second says "Yes, sir," but does not go. Jesus then asks his listeners which of the two did the father's will. They answer, "The first", and their correct answer strengthens Jesus' case against them. The message of the story is crystal clear. There are two very common classes of people in this world. First, there are those like the parable's first-asked son, whose practice is far better than their profession. Second, there are the people like the second-asked son, whose profession is much better than their practice. While the first class should be preferred to the second, neither is anything like perfect, because the really good man is the man in whom profession and practice meet and match. The ideal son in this parable would be one who accepted the father's orders with grace and respect and who unquestioningly and fully carried them out as Jesus obeyed his Father's orders. The only sign of belonging to the kingdom is faithfulness to the will of God.

This parable underlines the necessity of our responding with a continual "yes" to the saving act of God. Further, this parable teaches us that promises can never take the place of performance, and fine words are never a substitute for fine deeds. In other words, the parable clearly teaches that the Christian Way is followed in performance, not in promise alone, and that the mark of a Christian is obedience, graciously, promptly, and courteously given. That is, we are not supposed to say "yes" to God on Sundays and "no" to God on weekdays. God does not want polite but hypocritical words, for that isn't obedience at all. "Merciful and quick to forgive," God tolerates willful, even blasphemous disobedience, provided repentance follows. God remains faithful, always ready to receive repentant sinners. He never abandons us even when we abandon Him. The parable teaches us that there are indeed two conditions for entering the Kingdom of God. One of these is giving up sinful ways. The second condition is believing the words of Jesus, and then acting accordingly. In both cases, or conditions, the emphasis is on the response of the listener to the word of God.

Second Reading, Philippians 2:1-11

Here, citing Jesus as the supreme model of obedience to the Father's will, St. Paul also affirms the truth that those who make the final choice for God will be rewarded. Using lines from a hymn of early Christian belief which existed long before Paul penned his letter to the Philippians, the Apostle reminds his community of their obligation to look to others' interests rather than their own (Phil 2:1-11). As the hymn states, they need only take Jesus as their model for such behavior, because Jesus obeyed his Father completely, emptying himself, taking human form and humbling himself by accepting death on a cross. Paul emphasizes the fact that it is because of Christ's loving obedience to the Father's will that God the Father exalted Christ, bestowed on him the Name above every other name, and made Jesus the recipient of universal adoration. The message is that if we are united with Christ in his faithful obedience to God, we will also share his glory. Paul adds that such faithfulness and obedience to God demand that "we do nothing out of selfishness or vainglory." Instead, we should "humbly regard others as more important" than ourselves, "each looking out not for his own interests, but also for those of others." The hymn exemplifies the "mind" of Christ that we must "put on" when we face each other, which means that we will find unending joy and consolation only when we die to ourselves.

Gospel Reading, Mathew 21:28-32

Context: Jesus has now entered Jerusalem, the scene of all the Passion events he has predicted. When he reaches the Temple – the most religiously sensitive area for all of Judaism – Jesus becomes furious and drives out the merchants and moneychangers (Matthew 21:12). It is not surprising, then, that the "chief priests and elders"

Twofold application of the parable: (1) This parable, found only in Matthew, outlines two responses to God's call. The first son says, "I will not," but changes his mind and does what is needed. The second son says, "I go, sir," but does not go. Verses 31-32 make it clear that the tax collectors and prostitutes are seen in the first son, and the second son signifies the chief priests and elders. When John the Baptist called people to repent, tax collectors and prostitutes repented and were baptized. It was easy for them to repent, because their sins were obvious, even to themselves. The religious leaders, however, were not able, or ready, to admit their need for repentance, and therefore they rejected John and his call. So also, they rejected Jesus. We are reminded of Jesus' words earlier in this Gospel,

"Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the Kingdom of Heaven, but only the one who does the will of my Father in Heaven" (7:21). The life-saving difference between the two sons was the fact that one had the good sense to remember the love of his father, to turn from evil and decide to do what was right.

(2) Today, the first son, the faithful son, has still another face -- a repentant alcoholic, a small band of worshipers in a storefront, a Church that reaches out to the needy in its community, a Pastor who calls parishioners to true repentance, a Church member who decides to tithe, a young person who decides to remain abstinent until marriage -- all people who, however reluctantly or painfully, obey Christ. The second son is now the person in the pew who refuses Christ entry into his or her heart and life -- a Christian who refuses to obey Christ in the sensitive areas of sex, money, and power; a Preacher whose sermon is designed to please people rather than to please God; a Church that ignores issues of justice and mercy; a Sunday School that neglects to teach children the great Biblical stories -- in short, all people who appear to be faithful but, down deep, are not.

Life Messages

1. We need to lead a responsible Christian life, saying "yes" to God. Each one of us is responsible to God for every one of our actions, and the just God will punish or reward each of us according to our actions. As we do not know at what moment death will take us, our only guarantee of dying in God's friendship is to live in that friendship always, saying "Yes" to God in our deeds. We should become men and women who profess our Faith in word and deed, remembering that, "Not all those who say to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the Kingdom of Heaven, but those who do the will of my Father Who is in Heaven" (Matthew 7:21). God is ever with us to strengthen us, to pardon us, and to lift us up again when, through human weakness, we stumble on the road. God is calling us right now, inviting us to work in His vineyard, inviting us to say "Yes" to Him with our words and actions.

Let us accept God's invitation by purifying our hearts in the Sacrament of Reconciliation; by resolving to act upon our promises each morning before we get out of bed; and by declaring interiorly that people will be able to identify us as followers of Christ, not by empty words or pious gestures but simply by our Christian actions. In this way, we shall live a life filled with the joy that doing the will of the Father brings.

Roseann & Jim Bradley; Ruth Morrissey;
Joseph Masters; Laura Abrahams; Gerard Kuchman;
Margaret Torell; Lauren Victoria Burrell;
Solie & Gabe Gabriel

FOR INTENTIONS OF:

Kelly Girtin; Strickland & Downs Families

In our Holy of Holies, we have ten candles always burning around the tabernacle, just as in the temple in Jerusalem there were ten lights always burning around the Ark of the Covenant. They indicate the presence of our precious Lord in the Blessed Sacrament.

The candles used are seven day candles and may be purchased either in memoriam or for the intentions of a loved one for a $10 donation through the Seton Shop. This space lists the names of those for whom candles have been purchased.

Please Pray for Our Military

Although we pray for all of our military, space does not permit everyone's name to be printed. Please advise when a person below is no longer deployed so we can remove their name from our list. Please contact the parish office if you wish to have the name of someone listed for 4 weeks. As a courtesy please notify the office when the name can be removed or if you wish to have the name continued. Be sure to get the person's permission first! God bless them all & continue to pray for them!

Respect Life Month

Yes, this is the beginning of Respect Life Month. You are invited to join us today as we celebrate National Life Chain Sunday at 2 pm in front of SEAS. Don't forget your hats, chair, water and rosary beads. We have plenty of signs. All families are WELCOME.

Today is also the beginning of the Baby Bottle Drive for Alpha Women's Center. If you are able, please fill the bottle with change and return to SEAS the week-end of October 28/29 or to the Respect Life table at the SEAS Fall Festival.

There is a new "wish list" posted at the bassinette and on the Respect Life bulletin board for needed items for the Alpha Women's Center Boutique. These items are used in several ways. The parents can LEARN parenting skills and then EARN Alpha "bucks" to "purchase" needed baby items. This is HOPE to many parents who are financially challenged. Seeing how the Boutique works, enables them to Choose LIFE. There is also Emergency Material Aid available to Moms with limited resources, to obtain a supply of baby items from the Boutique - once every 6 months - to discourage "agency dependency". When there is bounty at the Boutique, items are also shared with foster families in Flagler County. All the items you donate will be shared with the parents who CHOOSE LIFE.

There will be a Vigil Mass and Adoration at Santa Maria del Mar on Tuesday, October 3 to pray for Michael Zack, his family and the families of his victims. He will be executed October 3 at 6pm. Adoration is at 8 am with Mass following at 9 am. Friday, October 6 will be our usual Stand for Life from 4 - 5 pm in front of SEAS. All are welcome.

Friday, October 6 begins the Diocesan Rosary Congress with a 6 pm Mass at the National Shrine of Our Lady of La Leche. Each day of this week will have a specific intention to pray for. Friday -- that Our Lady of La Leche will protect our sovereign nation and the values of our Catholic teaching especially about marriage and family.

Saturday intention -- for the protection of our Holy Mother Church and the evangelization of true faith through the blessing of holy priests. Mass at 9 am at Corpus Christi Church on US 1 in south St. Augustine, followed by 24 hour Adoration and hourly rosary.

Any questions or concerns

St. Francis de Sales: "When you have received Him, stir up your heart to do Him homage; speak to Him about your spiritual life, gazing upon Him in your soul where He is present for your happiness; welcome Him as warmly as possible, and behave outwardly in such a way that your actions may give proof to all of His Presence."
