Whom Shall I Send? Who Will Go Before Me as My Messenger?

Twenty-seven hundred years ago, a young man, Isaiah, was praying in the temple of Jerusalem. As he was immersed in deep prayer, he saw the glory of God. Immediately, he became aware of his sinfulness and said, "Woe is me; I am doomed; I am a man of unclean lips, living among a people of unclean lips. Yes, my eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts!" At that moment, an angel flew to him, holding an ember, and touched the mouth of Isaiah and said, "Now that this has touched your lips, your wickedness is removed, your sin purged." Then Isaiah heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send? Who will go before me as my messenger?" Immediately, Isaiah said, "Here I am, Lord, send me." At that moment, Isaiah became a messenger of the Lord and a prophet of the people of Israel. He preached the word of God for many years among his people. In vivid language, this prophet Isaiah presented the good news of the coming of the Messiah, who would suffer and die for the forgiveness of our sins.

Later, in the fullness of time, Jesus, the Messiah and Savior, was born in Bethlehem. He was a messenger of the good news of our Heavenly Father's love for everyone. After his death and resurrection for our salvation, when it was time for Jesus to ascend to heaven, he gathered his disciples around him and said, "Be my witnesses to the ends of the earth. Teach them what I have taught you. Baptize them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. And I will be with you till the end of the age" (Matthew 28: 19-20).

The Church, founded on the rock of Peter, has always been faithful in continuing the ministry of Jesus. The Church has always relied on its members to fulfill the mission given by Jesus. Today, the Lord is asking the same question he once asked young Isaiah, "Whom shall I send? Who will go before me as my messenger"? Yes, the Lord needs messengers to spread his word more than ever. He needs witnesses to go to the ends of the earth. As we celebrate World Mission Sunday today, let us promise the Lord to become his messengers and witnesses, at least in our homes, neighborhoods, and communities.

Bible Verses on Mission

"He said to them, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to all creation" (Mark 16:15).

"And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come" (Matthew 24:14).

"Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved. But how can they call on the one they have not believed in? And how can they believe in the one whom they have not heard? And how can they hear without someone preaching to them?" (Romans 10:13-14).

"For this is what the Lord has commanded us: "I have made you a light for the Gentiles, that you may bring salvation to the ends of the earth" (Acts 13:47).

Funny Stories

Fishing Pessimists: A fisherman returned to the shore with a giant marlin that was bigger and heavier than him. On the way to the cleaning shed, he ran into a second fisherman who had a stringer with a dozen baby minnows. The second fisherman looked at the marlin, turned to the fisherman, and said, "Only caught one, eh?"

From the beginning: My dad and I were talking the other night about love and marriage. He told me that he knew what marriage to my mom would be like as early as their wedding. The minister asked my mom, "Do you take this man to be your wife?" and my mom said, "He does."

Pancake Prayer: A six-year-old said grace at family dinner one evening. "Dear God, thank you for pancakes." When she concluded, her mother asked her why she thanked God for pancakes when they were having chicken-pot pie. She smiled and said, "I thought I would check to see if He was paying attention."

Some quotes:

"I give thanks to God that I am worthy to be hated by the world" (St. Jerome).

"Social justice begins in the tomb" (Standtrue).

"F-E-A-R has two meanings: Forget Everything And Run or Face Everything And Rise. The choice is yours" (Brightvibes)

¿A quién Debo Enviar? ¿Quién Irá Delante de Mí Como Mi Mensajero?

Hace dos setecientos años, un joven, Isaías, estaba orando en el templo de Jerusalén. Mientras estaba inmerso en profunda oración, vio la gloria de Dios. Inmediatamente, se dio cuenta de su pecado y dijo: ¡Ay de mí! Estoy condenado; soy un hombre de labios inmundos, que habito en medio de un pueblo de labios inmundos. ¡Sí, han visto mis ojos al Rey, el Señor de los ejércitos! "En aquel momento, un ángel voló hacia él con una brasa en la mano, tocó la boca de Isaías y le dijo: Ahora que esto ha tocado tus labios, tu maldad ha sido quitada, tu pecado limpiado. Entonces Isaías oyó la voz del Señor que decía: "¿A quién enviaré? ¿Quién irá delante de mí como mi mensajero?"

Inmediatamente, Isaías dijo: "Aquí estoy, Señor, envíame". En ese momento, Isaías se convirtió en mensajero del Señor y profeta del pueblo de Israel. Predicó la palabra de Dios durante muchos años entre su pueblo. En un lenguaje vívido, este profeta Isaías presentó las buenas nuevas de la venida del Mesías, quien sufriría y moriría por el perdón de nuestros pecados.

Más tarde, en la plenitud de los tiempos, nació en Belén Jesús, el Mesías y Salvador. Fue un mensajero de la buena nueva del amor de nuestro Padre Celestial para con todos. Después de su muerte y resurrección para nuestra salvación, cuando llegó el momento de que Jesús ascendiera al cielo, reunió a sus discípulos a su alrededor y les dijo: "Sed mis testigos hasta los confines de la tierra. Enséñales lo que yo te he enseñado. Bautízalos", en el nombre del Padre y del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo. Y estaré con vosotros hasta el fin del mundo" (Mateo 28: 19-20).

La Iglesia, fundada sobre la roca de Pedro, siempre ha sido fiel en continuar el ministerio de Jesús. La Iglesia siempre ha confiado en sus miembros para cumplir la misión encomendada por Jesús. Hoy, el Señor hace la misma pregunta que una vez le hizo al joven Isaías: "¿A quién enviaré? ¿Quién irá delante de mí como mi mensajero?" Sí, el Señor necesita mensajeros para difundir su palabra más que nunca. Necesita testigos para ir hasta los confines de la tierra. Al celebrar hoy el Domingo Mundial de las Misiones, prometamos al Señor convertirnos en sus mensajeros y testigos, al menos en nuestros hogares, vecindarios y comunidades.

Versículos de La Biblia Sobre La Misión

"Él les dijo: Id por todo el mundo y predicad el evangelio a toda la creación" (Marcos 16:15).

"Y será predicado este evangelio del reino en todo el mundo, para testimonio a todas las naciones, y entonces vendrá el fin" (Mateo 24:14).

"Todo aquel que invoque el nombre del Señor será salvo. Pero ¿cómo invocarán a aquel en quien no han creído? ¿Y cómo podrán creer en aquel a quien no han oído? ¿Y cómo podrán oír sin que alguien les predique? a ellos?" (Romanos 10:13-14).

"Porque esto es lo que el Señor nos ha mandado: "Os he puesto por luz de las naciones, para que llevéis la salvación hasta los confines de la tierra" (Hechos 13:47).

Historias Graciosas

Pescadores pesimistas: Un pescador regresó a la orilla con un marlín gigante que era más grande y pesado que él. De camino al cobertizo de limpieza, se topó con un segundo pescador que tenía un larguero con una docena de pececillos. El segundo pescador miró al marlín, se volvió hacia el pescador y le dijo: "Sólo pescates uno, ¿eh?"

Desde el principio: Mi papá y yo estábamos hablando la otra noche sobre el amor y el matrimonio. Me dijo que sabía cómo sería el matrimonio con mi madre desde su boda. El ministro le preguntó a mi mamá: "¿Aceptarás a este hombre como tu esposa?". y mi mamá dijo: "Sí, el Lo hace".

Oración de panqueques: Una niña de seis años dijo las gracias durante una cena familiar una noche. "Querido Dios, gracias por los panqueques". Cuando concluyó, su madre le preguntó por qué daba gracias a Dios por los panqueques cuando comían pastel de pollo. Ella sonrió y dijo: "Pensé en comprobar si estaba prestando atención".

"Doy gracias a Dios porque soy digno de ser odiado por el mundo" (San Jerónimo).

"La justicia social comienza en la tumba" (Standtrue).

Quem enviarei? Quem irá antes de mim como meu mensageiro?

Há vinte e sete centenas de anos, um jovem, Isaías, rezava no templo de Jerusalém. Ao meditar em profunda oração, viu a glória de Deus. Imediatamente, ele lembrou-se dos seus pecados e disse: "Ai de mim; Estou condenado; Sou um homem de lábios impuros, vivendo entre um povo de lábios impuros. Sim, os meus olhos viram o Rei, o Senhor!"

Naquele momento, um anjo voou até ele, segurando uma brasa, e tocou na boca de Isaías e disse: "Agora que isto tocou teus lábios, a tua maldade foi removida, teu pecado perdoado". Então Isaías ouviu a voz do Senhor dizendo: "A quem enviarei? Quem irá antes de mim como meu mensageiro?"

Imediatamente, Isaías disse: "Eis-me aqui, Senhor, envia-me". Naquele momento, Isaías tornou-se mensageiro do Senhor e profeta do povo de Israel. Pregou a Palavra de Deus durante muitos anos entre o seu povo. Em linguagem viva, este profeta Isaías apresentou as boas novas da vinda do Messias, que sofreria e morreria pelo perdão dos nossos pecados.

Mais tarde, na plenitude dos tempos, Jesus, Messias e Salvador, nasceu em Belém. Ele foi um mensageiro das boas novas do amor do nosso Pai Celestial por todos. Depois da sua morte e ressurreição para a nossa salvação, quando chegou a hora de Jesus subir ao céu, reuniu os seus discípulos à sua volta e disse: "Sede minhas testemunhas até aos confins da terra. Ensinai-lhes o que vos ensinei. Batizai-os em nome do Pai, do Filho e do Espírito Santo. E estarei convosco até ao fim dos tempos" (Mateus 28, 19-20).

Anedotas

Pescador pessimista: Um pescador voltou à costa com um espadim gigante que era maior e mais pesado do que ele. No caminho para a limpeza do peixe, ele encontrou com um segundo pescador que tinha um peixe razoável com mais uma dúzia de peixes pequenos. O segundo pescador olhou para o espadim, virou-se para o pescador e disse: "Só apanhou um?"

Desde o início: Meu pai e eu estávamos conversando sobre amor e o casamento. Ele disse-me que sabia como iria ser o casamento com a minha mãe logo no dia do casamento deles. O padre perguntou à minha mãe: "Você aceita este homem para ser sua esposa?" e minha mãe disse: "Ele diz que sim".

A Igreja, fundada sobre a rocha de Pedro, sempre foi fiel na continuação do ministério de Jesus. A Igreja sempre confiou nos seus membros para cumprir a missão dada por Jesus. Hoje, o Senhor está fazendo a mesma pergunta que uma vez fez ao jovem Isaías: "Quem enviarei? Quem irá antes de mim como meu mensageiro?" Sim, o Senhor precisa de mensageiros para espalhar a sua palavra mais do que nunca. Ele precisa de testemunhas para ir até aos confins da terra. Ao celebrarmos hoje o Dia Mundial das Missões, prometamos ao Senhor tornarmo-nos Seus mensageiros e testemunhas, pelo menos nas nossas casas, bairros e comunidades.

Versículos Bíblicos sobre a Missão

"Ele lhes disse: Ide por todo o mundo e pregai o evangelho a todas as criaturas" (Marcos 16:15).

"E este evangelho do reino será pregado no mundo inteiro como testemunho para todas as nações, e então virá o fim" (Mateus 24:14).

"Todo aquele que invocar o nome do Senhor será salvo. Mas como podem invocar aquele em quem não acreditaram? E como podem acreditar naquele que não ouviram? E como podem ouvir sem alguém que lhes pregue?" (Romanos 10:13-14).

"Porque foi isto que o Senhor nos ordenou: «Fiz-vos a luz para os gentios, para que leveis a salvação até aos confins da terra»" (Act 13, 47).

Oração da Pancakes: Uma criança de seis anos disse a benção durante o jantar de família. "Querido Deus, obrigado pelas pancakes." Quando concluiu, a mãe perguntou-lhe a razão porque agradecia a Deus pelos pancakes quando estavam a comer frango. Ele sorriu e disse: "Quiz saber se Ele estava a prestar atenção".

Algumas citações:

Invitation to the Heavenly Banquet

Introduction

Food is used in all three readings today as an image of God's favor and presence with His people. In the first reading Isaiah describes the Messianic banquet on the Lord's mountain. The prophet sees the mountain of the Holy City transformed into a grand banquet hall full of life and good things. He paints the picture of "a feast of rich food and choice wines." The 23rd Psalm describes how, like a totally committed shepherd, God spares nothing in order to provide nourishment for His flock. In the second reading Paul says that he lives like a guest invited to the Kingdom of God, enjoying vast spiritual benefits as a man of faith. So will God provide for us, he assures us, and we can do all things in God who strengthens us. In the Gospel, Jesus describes the eschatological banquet of Heaven in the parable. He characterizes the reign of God as a wedding feast, a banquet of "calves and fatted cattle."

When the banquet is rejected by the chosen guests, it is offered to all and sundry. Thus, all the readings suggest that God loves His people and provides for their eternal salvation. Today's Scripture gives us the strong warning that if we do not accept God's love, if we reject His gift, we can have no place with Him. We have to get prepared for the freely-offered Heavenly banquet by wearing the freely-given wedding garment of grace as we cooperate with God's grace in doing good and avoiding evil. We have to respond to God's love by lovingly sharing our blessings with others. The parable warns us that membership in a church does not guarantee our eternal salvation.

First Reading, Isaiah 25:6-10

The prophet Isaiah (742-700 B.C.) describes, under the image of a great banquet, the blessings and happiness that the Messianic kingdom will bring. Isaiah is referring to Heaven, the second and final stage of the Messianic kingdom. He gives a graphic description of the great banquet that the Lord will prepare for his people, expressing a grand prophetic vision of the universality of Salvation. The imagery Isaiah uses is that of a great banquet on the Lord's mountain, Mt. Zion: a feast for all people, doing away with death, wiping away tears from every face, and removing their reproach from the earth. Isaiah announces "good news and bad news." The banquet is certainly going to take place, but Yahweh is planning to invite not only His "Chosen People" but "all peoples." "Let us rejoice and be glad that He has saved us." It took a courageous prophet to speak of a God Whose loving care extended beyond the Jews, who prided themselves on their status as the only Chosen People. In some ways, Isaiah's ideal state parallels Jesus' parable about the King's wedding banquet (Mt 22:1-14). Let us remember that Heaven with its great banquet is ours for the receiving. God the Father intends it for us, God the Son has earned it for us, and God the Holy Spirit is ready at every moment of our lives to assist us to obtain it.

Second Reading, Philippians 4:12-14, 19-20

On several occasions, Paul has received generous financial support from the Christians at Philippi. So his words are a "thank you" note to them from prison. In today's lesson, Paul emphatically proclaims, "In Him who is the source of my strength, I have strength for everything." When the Apostle thanks his friends for their kindness toward him, he does so in these words: "My God in turn will supply your needs fully, in a way worthy of His magnificent riches in Christ Jesus." Paul claims that his strength comes from Jesus and his future hope revolves around Jesus. Referring to the vast spiritual benefits he enjoys as a man of faith, Paul tells his friends in Philippi about the contrasts in his life: He knows the experience "of living in abundance and of being in need." Because of his faith, it makes no difference to Paul whether he lives "in humble circumstances or in abundance." His whole existence has been transformed by his being joined to Jesus in His death and Resurrection. "I have learned," he writes, "the secret of being well-fed and of going hungry." Paul reminds us of our need for a complete and unquestioning trust in God, and for the firm conviction that He is regulating the affairs of our lives.

Gospel Reading, Mathew 22:1-14

Context: The parable of the royal banquet is a parable about the Kingdom of God and about the people who will eventually belong to it. It is also the first of three parables that challenge the legitimacy of the Jewish leadership. The parables all contrast the true Israel with the attitudes and lives of the Pharisees, demonstrating the claims of the Pharisees as false. In addition, the Parable of the Royal Banquet and the Wedding Garment is Jesus' interpretation of the History of Salvation. It is also one of the three parables of judgment or "rejection parables" Jesus told in the Temple of Jerusalem during the last week of his public life, addressing the "chief priests and elders of the people", i.e., the religious and civic leaders. This parable was delivered by Jesus on his last visit to the Temple on the Tuesday of Holy Week and was part of his last confrontation with his enemies before his arrest. The actual parable is the disturbing story of a King Who celebrated the wedding feast of His Son. When the VIP guests who had been invited refused to come, He brought street people in to take their places. Here, Jesus combines the parable of the marriage feast with another rabbinic parable, the parable of the wedding garment.

Objective: Along with the parable of the landlord and the wicked tenants, this, too, is an allegory unfolding the whole of salvation history. The parable was intended to be a fitting reply to the accusation that Jesus was unfit to teach because He was mingling with the publicans and sinners. It also answers the question of Jesus' authority to teach in the Temple of Jerusalem. Jesus hints in the parable that he is befriending the sinners and preaching the Good News of God's salvation to them because the scribes and Pharisees have rejected him and his message, while the sinners have accepted him wholeheartedly. That is why he compares God to a King who gives orders to invite the ordinary folk from the waysides as guests for his son's royal banquet. Jesus also declares that the source of his authority is God his Father Who has sent His Son to preach the Good News of Salvation. In Luke's Gospel, Jesus tells this parable in reply to the statement made by one of his listeners: "Blessed are those who are invited to take part in the Messianic Banquet in Heaven." This parable is based on the Jewish marriage customs of Jesus' day and contains both a local and a universal lesson.

Jewish wedding customs and political overtones: Since accurate timepieces were unavailable and preparation for a banquet was time-consuming, invitations to such events were sent and accepted well in advance. Once the banquet was ready, the host would send notice -- rather like our custom of making medical appointments in advance and receiving a reminder call a day ahead. Attendance at the royal prince's wedding by prominent citizens was a necessary expression of the honor they owed the king and an expression of their loyalty to the legitimate successor to his throne. Even at ordinary weddings, it was insulting to the host if someone refused to participate in the wedding feast after agreeing to do so at the first invitation. Hence, "refusal of a king's invitation by the VIPs, without any valid reason suggested rebellion and insurrection" (The Interpreter's Bible). That is why the king sent soldiers to suppress the rebellion. Thus, the parable of the wedding feast has major political overtones. Another approach to the parable is that it is a prophetic allusion to the destruction of the Temple in 70 A.D., which is interpreted to be a sign of God's judgment against the unbelieving Jews. In royal banquets, special wedding dress would be provided by the host and given, outside the banquet hall to those who could not afford proper dress.

Code words and their direct meaning in the parable:

The King in the parable is God and the King's Son is Jesus. The marriage is symbolic of the Incarnation of Jesus Christ, the union of Christ's Divine and human natures in one Person (St. Gregory). During the 2000 years between Abraham and Christ, God sent Moses and the Prophets to call His Covenant people to the great wedding feast of the Gospel. The invited guests were the Jewish people. At first, Christ invites the people of the Old Covenant, the Jews, to join this great marriage feast which is now ready -- but they fail to respond. The messengers the King sent to invite the people are the Hebrew prophets. The second and third sets of messengers are the Christian missionaries. The burned city (v. 7) is Jerusalem. A few VIP invitees offer flimsy and insulting excuses, implying that tending to their business is much more important than the wedding of the crown prince. The other invited guests challenge the king's honor directly by seizing his slaves who bring the invitation, beating, and killing them. Clearly this action demands reprisal, and the King obliges. Matthew 22:7 tells how the King sent His armies against those who refused the invitation, and burned their city. Later, Christians tended to see the destruction of Jerusalem in 70 A.D. as a similar judgment of God upon the people who had rejected the invitation by Christ to the eschatological banquet.

Universal call and rejection of the Jews: The "good and bad" (v. 10), in the parable constitute the mixed memberships of the Church: the sinners and the righteous. The people in the highways and the byways stand for the sinners and the Gentiles, who never expected an invitation into the Kingdom. God's invitation includes an offer of the correct dress for the feast, namely, the robe of Christ's righteousness of which Paul speaks in Philippians 3:7-11. Since this parable was directed to the chief priests and elders, Jesus contrasts their rigid observance of the law with the open-hearted generosity expressed by the king: "Invite everyone you find." This is obviously more than a story about a king and a banquet. It is the story of Salvation History in which God sent prophets and Christian evangelists with Good News. The first-invited are now rejected, but strangers are accepted. In other words, the Gentiles have replaced the Jews who refused to respond to Yahweh's call. This was the way that first-century Christians looked at the Jewish rejection of Jesus.

Extended meaning or universal lesson of the parable: Christians are invited to the endless joy of the Heavenly banquet. If, in our preoccupation with temporary pleasures and duties, we refuse this invitation, our greatest pain after our death will be the realization of the precious things we have forfeited. The invitation to the ordinary people from the byways tells us that God's invitation to each one of us is purely an act of grace and not something that we deserve by our good works. The parable also warns us that God will judge those who refuse His invitation.

Parable of the Wedding Garment: This parable is a modification of two rabbinic stories well-known to Jesus' audience. In those days, participants in a banquet were expected to dress in clothes that were superior to those worn on ordinary days. Guests who could afford it would wear white, but it was sufficient for ordinary people to wear garments as close to white as possible. It was customary for the rich hosts to provide their guests with suitable apparel. For royal weddings, special outfits were given to any guests who could not afford to buy their own. Hence, to appear in ordinary, soiled working clothes would show contempt for the occasion, a refusal to join in the King's rejoicing.

The parable means that when one freely accepts Christ as the Lord and Savior, one must dedicate his life to Jesus. In other words, the Christian must be clothed in the spirit and teaching of Jesus. Grace is a gift and a grave responsibility. Hence, a Christian must be clothed in a new purity and a new holiness. In other words, while the Church opens wide its arms to the sinner, it expects him to respond with some effort to repent. It is not enough for one simply to continue unabated in one's sinful ways. Although Jesus accepted the tax collectors and prostitutes, he demanded that they abandon their evil ways. The permanent and universal lesson taught by the parable has nothing to do with the clothes in which we go to Church. But it has everything to do with the spirit in which we enter God's House. It is true that church-going must never be a fashion parade or an occasion of scandal for others, but the garments of the mind and of the heart we wear when we go to worship God are more important.

They are the garments of penitence, faith, and reverence. The parable ends on a slightly pessimistic note: "For many are called, but few are chosen." It is a sad fact that, although everyone is called to experience the love of God, relatively few will really try to follow His teachings.

Life messages

1. We need to be grateful to Christ for the invitation to the Heavenly banquet: Ever since we received Baptism, we have been invited to the Heavenly banquet and provided with the wedding garment of sanctifying grace. These great privileges and blessings are freely given to us by a loving God. But the same obstacles which prevented the Pharisees from entering the Kingdom —pride, love of this world, its wealth and its pleasures — can impede us too. Hence, we must be prepared to do violence to our ordinary inclinations and offer ourselves in love and service to Jesus and to his people. That is how we will make our wedding garment clean and bright every day. Receiving these gifts of God also demands that, instead of remaining marginal members of our parish community, we bear visible witness to our beliefs. Let us have the consoling conviction that, while as Church members we are expected to contribute actively to its life and witnessing, the forgiveness of God and of the community is always available whenever we betray its ideals in our weak moments. Therefore, let us pray that we may keep our wedding garments pure and spotless and that we may become disciples who really practice the teachings of Jesus, rather than remaining mere Sunday Catholics. Let us pray for a deeper faith and love and a better spirit of responsibility to our community.

2. Are our "banquet halls" full and vibrant? What do we do to make sure that the "banquet halls" of our churches are filled with people on Sunday mornings? Are we concerned enough to do something about it if they are not full or lively? The first part of the parable has some strong connections with our worship services. Does not God invite us there? Aren't we also called to be the Lord's messengers who are instructed to go and tell the invitees (the whole world) that everything is ready? Or do we absent ourselves because we have other "pressing" business that we think is more important? Do we remain mired in oppressive attitudes and discriminatory relationships even if our bodies are in Church? Do we ever prefer revenge to forgiveness? Do we see victimization of others and blame the victim? We must all work with God to rid ourselves of such attitudes.

ADOPTION IS A LOVING OPTION

Another alternative to an unplanned pregnancy is an adoption. Several of our regular Stand for Life participants have known the JOY of being able to adopt a child from a mother who has chosen LIFE. Their stories are full of LOVE and many wonderful experiences.

The Diocese of St. Augustine offers adoption services through Catholic Charities - Caring Choices. These services are all FREE to parents and adoptive parents. They have a present waiting list of adoptive parents - 25 at this time. Caring Choices offers services to about 100 women a year, with 10% to 20% choosing adoption, the 80% choosing to keep their babies. They offer counseling to both the expecting parents and the adoptive parents. There is also material assistance with food, living expenses and baby supplies. State funds from the "Choose Life" license plates ($20 each plate) are available for adoptive services in Flagler County and many other counties in Florida. Please consider obtaining a "Choose Life" license plate to support this service. (Information is available at the Respect Life bulletin board at the North entrance to SEAS). These plates are also a reminder to all those who see your automobile while parked in a shopping area or behind you in traffic. It just might be the impetus for someone who is wrestling with the decision to consider an abortion or choose LIFE.

If you know someone who is experiencing an unexpected pregnancy, please encourage them to contact one of our local pregnancy centers.

Alpha Women's Center in Palm Coast - 386-586-0210
St. Gerard's Campus in St. Augustine - 904-829-5516 x107
Caring Choices in Gainesville - 352-224-6425

Thank you to all who took a baby bottle on October 1 to fill with change for Alpha Women's Center. Please return to SEAS bassinette by week-end of October 28/29 or bring it to the Respect Life table at the Fall Festival. Thank you in advance for your usual generosity.

Hope to see you at the Fall Festival. We have lots of literature on all the aspects of Human Life and Dignity (Respect Life) and hand-outs for young and old alike.

Attention Talented Ladies

There is a group of ladies in our Parish who meet on Tuesday mornings at 10am in the Russo Room. We get together and make a variety of crafts and sell them at the many events that our Church has throughout the year. We have a lot of fun while making our crafts and it is very satisfying to know that others appreciate what we make. Forget the department stores that manufacture and mass produce, each item is handmade with precision and care. For any questions please call Dorothy at 386-283-4298.

Quotes of Saints

Recognize in the bread what hung on the cross, and in the cup what flowed from his side.

St. Augustine

In our pilgrimage, [Christ] does not deprive us of his bodily presence, but unites us with himself in this sacrament through the truth of his Body and Blood.

St. Thomas

In this world there is nothing of the Most High himself that we can possess and contemplate with our eyes, except his Body and Blood.

St. Francis

The Eucharist is the sacrament of love: it signifies love, it produces love. The Eucharist is the consummation of the whole spiritual life.

St. Thomas Aquinas
