Catholic Schools Week 2024 - January 28 – February 3

Catholic Schools: United in Faith and Community

Catholic Schools Week 2024 brings a theme that resonates deeply with the essence of Catholic education: "Catholic Schools: United in Faith and Community." This theme encapsulates the unifying power of faith within the Catholic school community, emphasizing the profound impact of education that extends beyond the intellectual realm. In this column, we explore the importance of Catholic education within the context of unity in faith and community.

Unity in Faith

At the core of every Catholic school is a commitment to fostering a solid foundation of faith in each student. The theme highlights the idea that, within the walls of a Catholic school, students are united by a common faith that transcends differences. This unity in faith serves as a guiding force, shaping the moral compass of students and instilling values rooted in love, compassion, and service.

1. Faith as a Unifying Force: Catholic education provides an environment where faith becomes a unifying force. Students from diverse backgrounds, cultures, and experiences come together under the umbrella of a shared belief in the teachings of the Catholic Church. This shared faith creates a sense of belonging and community that goes beyond superficial differences.

2. Faith Formation: Catholic schools play a pivotal role in the ongoing formation of students' faith. Through religious education, prayer, and sacramental experiences, students deepen their understanding of the Catholic faith. This holistic approach to faith formation nurtures a personal relationship with God and equips students to face the challenges of life with spiritual resilience.

Community Building

The theme also underscores the importance of community within the context of Catholic education. Catholic schools are not just educational institutions; they are vibrant communities where students, educators, parents, and staff come together in a shared mission.

1. Inclusive Communities: Catholic schools strive to create inclusive communities that welcome and embrace diversity. Regardless of background or circumstance, students are welcomed into a community where they are valued for who they are and encouraged to contribute their unique gifts. This inclusivity reflects the teachings of Christ, who welcomed all into His embrace.

2. Cultivating a Sense of Belonging: The sense of community in Catholic schools goes beyond the academic realm. It encompasses a shared sense of belonging and support. Students feel connected to their peers, teachers, and the wider school community, fostering an environment where everyone is invested in each other's success and well-being.

Importance of Catholic Education

1. Holistic Development: Catholic education goes beyond academic excellence; it focuses on the holistic development of individuals. By integrating faith and reason, students are equipped not only with knowledge but also with a moral compass, character, and a sense of purpose. This holistic approach prepares students for a life of meaning and service.

2. Values-Driven Education: The importance of Catholic education lies in its commitment to values-driven learning. Students are not just educated in facts and figures but are guided by a moral framework rooted in Catholic teachings. This values-driven education shapes individuals who are not only intellectually competent but also ethically responsible.

3. Service-Oriented Leaders: Catholic education instills a sense of responsibility for others. Emphasizing the call to serve, students are encouraged to engage in acts of kindness, charity, and social justice. This focus on service-oriented leadership cultivates individuals who are committed to making a positive impact in their communities.

4. Academic Excellence with Purpose: Catholic schools are known for their commitment to academic excellence. However, this pursuit of excellence is grounded in a deeper purpose – to prepare students to use their knowledge and skills in the service of others, contributing to the common good and building a more just and compassionate society.

Conclusion

"Catholic Schools: United in Faith and Community" serves as a powerful reminder of the profound impact that Catholic education has on individuals and communities. The theme encapsulates the essence of Catholic schools as places where faith unites, communities thrive, and individuals are shaped into compassionate, values-driven leaders.

As we celebrate Catholic Schools Week 2024, let us reflect on the transformative power of Catholic education in fostering unity, building communities, and preparing students to lead lives of purpose and service. The theme echoes the enduring mission of Catholic schools to unite hearts in faith and build communities that reflect the love and teachings of Christ. In doing so, Catholic education continues to be a beacon of hope, shaping the future leaders and contributors to a more united, compassionate, and faith-filled world.

Escuelas Católicas: Unidas En La Fe y La Comunidad

La Semana de las Escuelas Católicas 2024 trae un tema que resuena profundamente con la esencia de la educación Católica: "Escuelas Católicas: Unidas En La Fe y La Comunidad". Este tema resume el poder unificador de la fe dentro de la comunidad escolar Católica, enfatizando el profundo impacto de la educación que se extiende más allá del ámbito intelectual. En esta columna, exploremos la importancia de la educación Católica dentro del contexto de la unidad en la fe y la comunidad.

Unidad En La Fe

En el centro de cada escuela Católica está el compromiso de fomentar una base sólida de fe en cada estudiante. El tema destaca la idea de que, dentro de los muros de una escuela Católica, los estudiantes están unidos por una fe común que trasciende las diferencias. Esta unidad en la fe sirve como fuerza guía, moldeando la brújula moral de los estudiantes e inculcando valores arraigados en el amor, la compasión y el servicio.

1. La Fe Como Unificador: La educación Católica proporciona un entorno donde la fe se convierte en una fuerza unificadora. Estudiantes de diversos orígenes, culturas y experiencias se reúnen bajo el paraguas de una creencia compartida en las enseñanzas de la Iglesia Católica. Esta fe compartida crea un sentido de pertenencia y comunidad que va más allá de las diferencias superficiales.

2. Formación de La Fe: Las escuelas Católicas desempeñan un papel fundamental en la formación continua de la fe de los estudiantes. A través de la educación religiosa, la Oración y las experiencias Sacramentales, los estudiantes profundizan su comprensión de la fe Católica. Este enfoque holístico de la formación en la fe fomenta una relación personal con Dios y equipa a los estudiantes para enfrentar los desafíos de la vida con resiliencia espiritual.

Construcción Comunitaria

El tema también subraya la importancia de la comunidad dentro del contexto de la educación Católica. Las escuelas Católicas no son sólo instituciones educativas; son comunidades vibrantes donde estudiantes, educadores, padres y personal se unen en una misión compartida.

1. Comunidades Inclusivas: las escuelas Católicas se esfuerzan por crear comunidades inclusivas que acojan y abracen la diversidad. Independientemente de sus antecedentes o circunstancias, los estudiantes son bienvenidos a una comunidad donde se les valora por lo que son y se les anima a contribuir con sus dones únicos. Esta inclusión refleja las enseñanzas de Cristo, quien dio la bienvenida a todos en Su abrazo.

2. Cultivar un sentido de pertenencia: El sentido de comunidad en las escuelas Católicas va más allá del ámbito académico. Abarca un sentido compartido de pertenencia y apoyo. Los estudiantes se sienten conectados con sus compañeros, maestros y la comunidad escolar en general, fomentando un ambiente donde todos se involucran en el éxito y el bienestar de los demás.

Importancia de La Educación Católica

1. Desarrollo integral: La educación Católica va más allá de la excelencia académica; se centra en el desarrollo integral de las personas. Al integrar la fe y la razón, los estudiantes están equipados no sólo con conocimiento sino también con una brújula moral, carácter y un sentido de propósito. Este enfoque holístico prepara a los estudiantes para una vida llena de significado y servicio.

2. Educación Impulsada por Valores: La importancia de la educación Católica radica en su compromiso con el aprendizaje impulsado por valores. Los estudiantes no sólo son educados en hechos y cifras, sino que también son guiados por un marco moral arraigado en las enseñanzas Católicas. Esta educación basada en valores forma individuos que no sólo son intelectualmente competentes sino también éticamente responsables.

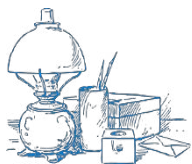

3. Líderes Orientados al Servicio: La educación Católica inculca un sentido de responsabilidad hacia los demás. Al enfatizar el llamado a servir, se anima a los estudiantes a participar en actos de bondad, caridad y justicia social. Este enfoque en el liderazgo orientado al servicio cultiva personas comprometidas a generar un impacto positivo en sus comunidades.

4. Excelencia Académica con Propósito: Las escuelas Católicas son conocidas por su compromiso con la excelencia académica. Sin embargo, esta búsqueda de la excelencia se basa en un propósito más profundo: preparar a los estudiantes para utilizar sus conocimientos y habilidades al servicio de los demás, contribuyendo al bien común y construyendo una sociedad más justa y compasiva.

Conclusión

"Escuelas Católicas: Unidas en La Fe y La Comunidad" sirve como un poderoso recordatorio del profundo impacto que la educación Católica tiene en las personas y las comunidades. El tema resume la esencia de las escuelas Católicas como lugares donde la fe une, las comunidades prosperan y los individuos se convierten en líderes compasivos e impulsados por valores.

Mientras celebramos la Semana de las Escuelas Católicas 2024, reflexionemos sobre el poder transformador de la educación Católica para fomentar la unidad, construir comunidades y preparar a los estudiantes para llevar una vida con propósito y servicio. El tema hace eco de la misión duradera de las escuelas Católicas de unir corazones en la fe y construir comunidades que reflejen el amor y las enseñanzas de Cristo. Al hacerlo, la educación Católica continúa siendo un faro de esperanza, formando a los futuros líderes y contribuyentes a un mundo más unido, compasivo y lleno de fe.

Semana das Escolas Católicas 2024 - 28 de Janeiro a 3 de Fevereiro

Escolas Católicas: Unidos na Fé e na

A Semana das Escolas Católicas 2024 traz um tema que ressoa profundamente com a essência da educação Católica: "Escolas Católicas: Unidas na Fé e na Comunidade". Este tema capta o poder unificador da fé no seio da comunidade escolar Católica, sublinhando o profundo impacto da educação que ultrapassa o âmbito intelectual. Nesta coluna, exploramos a importância da educação Católica no contexto da unidade na fé e na comunidade.

União na Fé

No centro de cada escola Católica está o compromisso de promover uma base sólida de fé em cada aluno. O tema destaca a ideia de que, dentro dos muros de uma escola Católica, os alunos estão unidos por uma fé comum que transcende as diferenças. Esta união na fé serve como força orientadora, moldando a bússola moral dos alunos e inculcando valores enraizados no amor, na compaixão e no serviço.

1. A fé como força unificadora: a educação Católica proporciona um ambiente onde a fé se torna uma força unificadora. Estudantes de diversas origens, culturas e experiências reúnem-se sob o guarda-chuva de uma crença compartilhada nos ensinamentos da Igreja Católica. Esta fé partilhada cria um sentimento de pertencer e de comunidade que ultrapassa as diferenças superficiais.

2. Formação para a fé: as escolas Católicas desempenham um papel fundamental na formação permanente da fé dos alunos. Através da educação religiosa, oração e experiências sacramentais, os alunos aprofundam a sua compreensão da fé Católica. Esta abordagem holística da formação da fé nutre um relacionamento pessoal com Deus e prepara os alunos para enfrentar os desafios da vida com resiliência espiritual.

Construção Comunitária

O tema sublinha também a importância da comunidade no contexto da educação Católica. As escolas Católicas não são apenas instituições educativas; são comunidades vibrantes onde alunos, educadores, pais e funcionários se reúnem numa missão partilhada.

1. Comunidades inclusivas: as escolas Católicas esforçam-se por criar comunidades inclusivas que acolham e abracem a diversidade. Independentemente da sua origem ou circunstância, os alunos são acolhidos numa comunidade onde são valorizados pelo que são e incentivados a contribuir com os seus dons únicos. Esta inclusão reflete os ensinamentos de Cristo, que acolheu a todos no Seu abraço.

2. Cultivar o sentimento de pertencer: O sentido de comunidade nas escolas Católicas ultrapassa o âmbito académico. Engloba um sentimento partilhado de pertencer e de apoio. Os alunos sentem-se ligados aos seus colegas, professores e à comunidade escolar em geral, promovendo um ambiente onde todos estão investidos no sucesso e bem-estar uns dos outros.

Importância da Educação Católica

1. Desenvolvimento holístico: a educação Católica vai além da excelência académica; concentra-se no desenvolvimento holístico dos indivíduos. Ao integrar fé e razão, os alunos são equipados não apenas com conhecimento, mas também com uma bússola moral, carácter e senso de propósito. Esta abordagem holística prepara os alunos para uma vida significativa e de serviço.

2. Educação orientada por valores: A importância da educação Católica reside no seu compromisso com a aprendizagem orientada por valores. Os alunos não são apenas educados em factos e números, mas são guiados por uma estrutura moral enraizada nos ensinamentos Católicos. Esta educação orientada por valores molda indivíduos que não são apenas intelectualmente competentes, mas também éticamente responsáveis.

3. Líderes orientados para o serviço: a educação Católica incute um sentido de responsabilidade para com os outros. Reinforçando a chamada para servir, os alunos são incentivados a envolverem-se em actos de bondade, caridade e justiça social. Este foco na liderança orientada para o serviço cultiva indivíduos que estão comprometidos em causar um impacto positivo nas suas comunidades.

4. Excelência Académica com Propósito: As escolas Católicas são conhecidas pelo seu compromisso à excelência académica. No entanto, esta busca da excelência está alicerçada num propósito mais profundo – preparar os alunos para usarem os seus conhecimentos e competências para serviço dos outros, contribuindo para o bem comum e construindo uma sociedade mais justa e compassiva.

Conclusão

"Escolas Católicas: Unidas na Fé e na Comunidade" serve como um poderoso lembrete do profundo impacto que a educação Católica tem sobre os indivíduos e as comunidades. O tema encapsula a essência das escolas Católicas como lugares onde a fé une, as comunidades prosperam e os indivíduos são moldados em líderes compassivos e orientados por valores.

Ao celebrarmos a Semana das Escolas Católicas 2024, vamos refletir sobre o poder transformador da educação Católica ao promover a unidade, construir comunidades e preparar os alunos para levar vidas de propósito e serviço. O tema ecoa a missão duradoura das escolas Católicas de unir os corações na fé e construir comunidades que reflitam o amor e os ensinamentos de Cristo. Ao fazê-lo, a educação Católica continua a ser um farol de esperança, moldando os futuros líderes e contribuintes para um mundo mais unido, compassivo, e cheio de fé.

Sunday Readings Explained– 236- Fr. Tony Kadavil

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Deuteronomy 18:15-20; I Corinthians 7:32-35; Mark 1:21-28

Healer of Souls

Introduction

The common theme of today's readings is Divine authority as exercised by the prophets of the Old Testament in their messages, by the apostles (including St. Paul), in their writings and teaching in the New Testament, and by Jesus in his teaching and healing ministry. Today's first reading tells us that a true prophet speaks with authority because it is God Who speaks through him. After the Babylonian exile, the Jewish priests began to interpret the words of Moses given in the first reading, namely, "a prophet like me," as referring to one individual, the expected Messiah. According to Acts 3:22; 7:37 this prophecy is verified in Jesus Christ.

This passage is chosen for today's first reading because it refers to Jesus, the "preacher with authority," mentioned in today's Gospel. In the second reading, St. Paul exercises his God-given authority as the Apostle to the Gentiles to teach people that marriage is a holy state ordained by God and that it is a life-long partnership according to the teaching of the Lord. In today's Gospel, Mark describes one sample Sabbath day of Jesus' public life. Jesus joins in public worship in the synagogue as a practicing Jew, he heals the sick, he drives out evil spirits -- and he prays privately. Since anyone could be invited to explain the Holy Scripture in synagogue worship, Jesus was invited. People immediately noticed that Jesus spoke with authority and healed with Divine power. The Old Testament prophets had taught using God's delegated authority, and the scribes and Pharisees taught quoting Moses, the prophets, and the great rabbis. But Jesus taught using his own authority and knowledge as God to teach, empower, liberate, and heal others.

First Reading: Deuteronomy 18:15-20

Moses was about to die. The Chosen People were terrified because they were about to lose the person who had been successfully leading them through the wilderness toward the Promised Land. They were also going to lose a prophet who had been keeping them informed of Yahweh's will. When he died, how would they find out what God wanted of them?

God answers the question by promising Moses that He will heed the people's request and "raise up for them a prophet like you from among their kin, and ... put My words into his mouth; he shall tell them all that I command him." That Jesus is the prophet foretold by Moses in today's First Reading is made clear in Acts 3:22; 7:37). Jesus has authority over Heaven and earth (Daniel 7:14, 27; Revelation 12:10). Moses had set up a theocratic society for the Israelites as he had been instructed to do by God. This society had various officers to regulate the civil and religious life of the people, e.g., judges, kings, priests and prophets. Today's reading tells us that a true prophet would speak with authority because it would be God Who spoke through him.

The text was first seen as promising that there would be a line of prophets to interpret previous revelations by God and to add some new ones for each generation. After the return from the Babylonian exile (c. 538 B. C.), the Jewish priests began to interpret this text of Deuteronomy as referring to one individual, namely the Messiah who was to come. The New Testament followed this interpretation and saw these words of dying Moses, "a prophet like me," verified in Christ (Acts 3:22; 7:37). These verses therefore, have been chosen for today's first reading because they refer to Jesus, the "preacher with authority," mentioned in today's Gospel.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 7:32-35

St. Paul and most of the early Christians believed, or strongly hoped, that the end of this world and the second coming of Christ were imminent. For this reason, many Christians in Corinth thought they should not enter into marriage, lest marriage should interfere with their whole-hearted service of God in preparation for the second coming of Jesus. As a good Jew, Paul presumed that a different set of circumstances always demanded a different prophet with a different word. Hence, St. Paul exercised his God-given authority as the Apostle to the Gentiles to teach people that marriage is a holy state ordained by God and that it is a life-long partnership according to the teaching of the Lord

(see Mt. 5:32; 19:3-9). Further, Paul recommended the life of celibacy he himself had chosen to the non-married only if they felt they could live such a life. The advantage of celibacy, as Paul explained, was that celibates would have the freedom to serve God fully with the fewest earthly cares and worries.

Gospel Reading, Mark 1:21-28

Authority of Jesus: Today's Gospel passage begins and ends with comments about Jesus' authority as a teacher (1:21-22 and 1:27-28). He spoke like Moses, telling people directly what God had to say. In between is an exorcism (1:23-26), pointing out a connection between Jesus' teachings and his supernatural authority. The dramatic healing of the demoniac by an authoritative word is a demonstration of God's reign and Power in their midst. And the people recognize it as such. Moreover, this is the first miracle in Jesus' ministry as Mark recounts it. The episode appears immediately following the call of the disciples. Jesus' authority is also the main theme in the collection of stories (2:1—3:6), which support the authority of Jesus when he teaches people about God's compassion in forgiving their sins. In his Gospel, Mark repeatedly returns to the theme that Jesus' teaching with authority brought followers, and Jesus' healing with Divine power liberated people from illness and demonic possession. The Catholic and Apostolic Church derives her teaching authority from her founder Jesus, the Christ.

Teaching with Authority: There was a local synagogue in every Jewish settlement of more than ten families. The synagogue was a place of instruction and Sabbath prayers. The synagogue service consisted of three parts – prayer, the reading of God's word, and the exposition of it made by anyone who wished to do so. In this chapter Mark tells us that in the local synagogue Jesus taught with authority. This means that Jesus explained the Scriptures with complete confidence, and when questioned by people he answered with authority. Jesus spoke relying on no one beyond himself; he cited no supporting human authorities or experts. Mark also records the impact Jesus had on those who heard him. We are told how amazed people were at the authority with which he preached. Jesus also showed his power and authority by curing the sick and granting forgiveness to people for their sins.

Exorcising with Divine authority: In the synagogue, there was a man who was troubled by an unclean spirit. Everyone in the ancient Biblical world feared evil spirits and believed in demonic possession. People believed that demons or "unclean spirits" living inside the people caused leprosy, lameness, paralysis, etc. Even in the twenty-first century, we still believe in the existence of unclean spirits. How else can we explain the sudden explosions of anger that occur, the suicidal impulses, the intense jealousies, wild sexual fantasies, or overwhelming feelings of depression? We, as human beings, are keenly aware of these unclean spirits. We often wonder where the "unclean thoughts" come from and why we can't rid ourselves of them. Victory over the unclean spirit, as the devil is usually described, is a clear sign that God's salvation has come: by overcoming the Evil One, Jesus shows that He is the Messiah, the Savior, more powerful than the demons.

The demoniac cried out, "What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? " What does Jesus have to do with these unclean spirits that live in each one of us? The answer we find in the Gospel is equally true today: Jesus came to dispossess the unclean spirits living inside of us and send them away. That is one of the reasons why Jesus came to earth in the first place and one of the reasons why he continues his presence in our lives. Jesus came to drive out those unclean spirits within us, to wash them away, to cleanse our lives of them. Let us put ourselves under his authority and he will liberate us. The evil spirit in today's Gospel recognized Jesus as the Messiah and acknowledged him as such. Jesus commanded the evil spirit harshly, using strong words and tones: "Be quiet! Come out of him!" Instantly, the spirit obeyed. This was one of the reasons why Jesus developed a reputation for speaking with authority. Today, we are challenged to believe that Jesus continues to exercise the power to rout evil in all of its ugly disguises and manifestations, viz., in poverty, sickness, greed, hatred, indifference, over-indulgence, etc., using us and our ministry as His instruments.

Life Messages

1. Let us approach Jesus for liberation: Jesus did not use his authority and Divine power to rule and control people. He came to set people free. Hence, let us approach Jesus with trusting Faith so that he may free us from the evil spirits that keep us from praying and prevent us from loving and sharing our blessings with others, as well as from all the "evil spirits" of fear, compulsions, selfishness, anger, resentment and hostility. "I have come that they may have life, life in abundance" (Jn 10:10). So Jesus should be a source of liberation for us. May Jesus free us from all those spirits which make us deaf, dumb, blind, lame, and paralyzed, physically and spiritually. Through Word and Sacrament, Jesus brings that power to us and says the same words to the demons in our life, "Be gone!" -- not just once but as often as we need to hear them, until finally, we are free from these demons entirely. Christ has power over any demon, so whether those demons be addictions, heartaches, secret sins -- whatever our chains may be -- Christ can set us free and longs to do so.

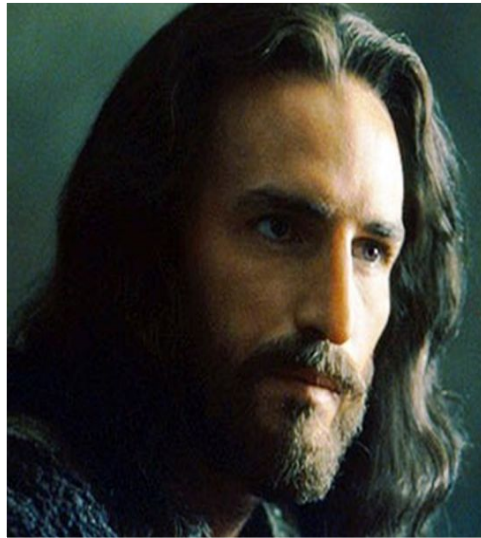

2. We need to use our God-given authority to build up lives.

No doubt we can think back to people who have made a lasting impression on our lives – either for good or bad. Perhaps it was a grandparent, an uncle, or a parent, who loved us and cared for us. Perhaps it was a Sunday school teacher who encouraged us in our Faith and exerted a positive impact on our lives. Perhaps we remember the kindness as well as the firm discipline that a schoolteacher gave us. On the other hand, there may be people in our past whom we remember with pain and discomfort. Are children learning something from us as parents that will stand them in good stead for the future? We want our children to grow into strong, wise, confident, capable, mature adults. But we want more than that. We want them to grow in their Faith, to accept Jesus as their Lord and personal Savior. We want children to see in us the love of Jesus and how our Christian Faith affects our lives.

A good question for parents, teachers and all of us is: "In what way am I helping the children I know grow in wonder at Jesus and his love for them?" When God's Word and God's ways are taught and spoken about with authority – with conviction – our children (and others) will see in them, with amazement, God's love for them in His Son Jesus.

3. We need teachers who know how to use their authority properly: Teachers are powerful because they change lives. They have within their grasp the power over young lives to hurt them terribly or heal them wonderfully. Most of us are deeply and forever indebted to some caring teacher in our past. Some people never get over the damage done to them by some cruel or uncaring teacher. So today, when we hear that Jesus entered the synagogue at Capernaum and began to teach, we need to take note: Jesus was a teacher. They never called him "Reverend," or "Father," or "Priest." They called him "Rabbi," which means "teacher." Let us all become good teachers and use our authority to mould young lives in the right way.

Anecdote: Jesus, the exorcist with authority: In the 1970s the movie The Exorcist was breaking box office records. It concerned a young person who was possessed by an evil spirit, not unlike the one in today's Gospel. The movie was based on an actual case of a 14-year-old boy who lived in Mt. Rainier, Maryland, in 1949. Newsweek described the case this way. "Pictures, chairs and the boy's bed would suddenly move about. At night, the boy could rarely sleep. After he was admitted to Georgetown University Hospital...the boy began to mouth fierce curses in ancient languages and at one point, while strapped helplessly in his bed, long red scathes appeared on his body." The boy eventually survived an exorcism and started living in the

Washington, DC area. An old priest involved in the boy's exorcism has taken a vow not to discuss it. He does say, however, that the experience dramatically changed his life for the better. The deeper meaning behind Jesus' exorcisms is that the kingdom of Satan which had enslaved people since Adam's sin, was now giving way to the kingdom of God. (Fr. Mark Link S. J.) Fr. Fr. DIOCESE OF
St. Augustine
BISHOP'S ANNUAL
STEWARDSHIP APPEAL

Our Bishop's Annual Stewardship Appeal (BASA) is now underway. You may have already received a mailing from Bishop Pohlmeier, asking for your support and participation. Please prayerfully consider a pledge to the Appeal using the response card mailed to you or by completing a commitment envelope at Mass the weekend of February 10-11. Our annual theme, "We are the hands of Jesus" reminds us that our faith community is made up of a network of parishes. Bishop Pohlmeier invites each of us to join in support of the beautiful mission of our Church, as we are all called to be good stewards of what we have been gifted with. Please prayerfully respond to this year's Annual Appeal with a gift of any amount. The generosity expressed through this critical effort has been so inspiring, especially in a year that has seen so much need.

Monthly Discernment Evening, Feb. 5

This invitation is for young men, ages 16+, seeking to learn more about priestly vocations. Father Clay Ludwig will celebrate Mass at 6 p.m. at the Marywood Chapel, 235 Marywood Dr., St. Johns, followed by a meal and small group discussion at San Juan de Rio Parish Family Center. There is no cost to attend. To register, email vocations@dosaf.com.

SEAS School News

Dear Parishioners,

Today we begin the national celebration of Catholic Schools Week, which focuses on faith and community. At St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Catholic School everything we do is centered around our mission of faith formation, academic excellence, respect for others, and a commitment to service. We begin each day united in prayer and with the reminder that all of our words and actions toward each other must be of kindness and respect. Helping the students build a strong foundation of faith and prayer enables them to be able to face challenges from a Christian perspective. The SEAS graduate is a person of faith, integrity, compassion, love, and service. Our students work diligently in their academic areas and have found joy in using the science lab, creating a vegetable and flower garden, participating in weekly Mass, and using technology appropriately to enhance learning.

We are grateful for the support we receive from the parishioners and parish organizations, who recognize that our students are the future of our Church. They are also the present, and all that we do as a faith community helps them grow spiritually, academically, socially, and emotionally. I am grateful to Fr. Jose for his unwavering support of our school, to my outstanding staff for their dedication to the students' growth and development, and to the parents for entrusting your children to our care.

God bless you,
Mrs. Barbara Kavanagh, Principal

Ten Candles Burning in the Holy of Holies

January 27– February 2

IN MEMORY OF:

Roseann & Jim Bradley; Joseph R.G. Gelinas;
Janet Jennings; Thomas & Marian Quinlan;
Brian McNamara

FOR INTENTIONS OF:

Kelly Girtin; Mary Ester Pacis; Kimberly Forsyth;
Cathy & Patrick Forsyth; Danny & Stephanie Heffernan

In our Holy of Holies, we have ten candles always burning around the tabernacle, just as in the temple in Jerusalem there were ten lights always burning around the Ark of the Covenant. They indicate the presence of our precious Lord in the Blessed Sacrament.

The candles used are seven day candles and may be purchased either in memoriam or for the intentions of a loved one for a $10 donation through the Seton Shop. This space lists the names of those for whom candles have been purchased.

Please Pray for Our Military

Although we pray for all of our military, space does not permit everyone's name to be printed. Please advise when a person below is no longer deployed so we can remove their name from our list. Please contact the parish office if you wish to have the name of someone listed for 4 weeks. As a courtesy please notify the office when the name can be removed or if you wish to have the name continued. Be sure to get the person's permission first! God bless them all & continue to pray for them!

The SEAS Ladies Guild had the opportunity on January 18, 2024 to gain new insight into the current legal battles facing voters this November. Trudy, from Family for Life in Jacksonville, commonly referred to as "313", presented an update on what is going on with the pro-abortion initiative which could find itself on the November 2024 ballot. The pro-abortionists have been able to acquire the required number of signatures, over 890,000, to get the pro-abortion amendment on the ballot. The wording of the initiative is being challenged on February 7, 2024 at the Florida Supreme Court.

Arguments will be presented at this time (on the same day we will be in Tallahassee for Catholic Days at the Capitol). As you recall from all the information shared during Decline to Sign, this initiative would allow abortion up until birth, abortion could be allowed by 2 "health care providers" and parental permission would not be necessary, only parental notification. There will also be a rally for pro-life supporters outside the Supreme Court from 9 - 10 am on February 7.

The Diocese of St. Augustine, Human Life and Dignity Ministry has asked us to pray for the "Legal Protection of Unborn Children" through February 7, 2024.

A PRAYER CONFIRMING LIFE

God, You are the Lord and Creator of Life.
You have blessed men and women
With the privilege of bringing new life into the world.

You have imparted in our hearts
the desire to nurture and protect life at all stages.
I accept these gifts as a sacred trust.
Through the power of the Holy Spirit
Help me to affirm the value of Life.
Grant me the wisdom and courage to speak out and defend human Life.
Give me compassion so that I may lovingly counsel
Those who of your image and likeness.
Amen

Thank you for taking a few minutes each day to pray with so many others in our diocese for LIFE.

If you believe that you or someone you know has a vocation to the priesthood or religious life, please contact Fr. Jared DeLeo at frjared@sacfl.org

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

Quotes of Saints

The Eucharist is a constant reminder to "be intent on the things above rather than on things of earth", "for here we have no lasting dwelling place." "We have our citizenship in Heaven." The Holy Eucharist is "the mystery, the plan He was pleased... to carry out in the fullness of time: to bring all things in the heavens and the earth into one under Christ's headship."

"The Lord will reign forever and give His people the gift of peace." "I will reign through the omnipotent love of My Sacred Heart." THE HOLY EUCHARIST IS A FORESHADOWING OF HIS REIGN ON EARTH: "This is God's dwelling among man. He shall dwell with them."

"Rejoice at the Presence of the Lord, for He comes to rule the earth." "He has put all things under Christ's feet." "If we hold out to the end, we shall also reign with Him."

Blessed Mother Teresa of Calcutta

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Moses told the people, "The Lord will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your own kinsmen." God still provides among His people the gifts and talents necessary to continue the work of His Church. What gifts are yours to share?
