Lenten Retreat by Fr. Michael Mary Dosch, O.P.

Join us for our annual Lenten Retreat, commencing on Monday, March 4, at 6 pm, culminating in a Penance Service and Confession at 5 pm on Thursday. This retreat is not just an event; it's a profound opportunity to rejuvenate our spiritual journey with the grace of God as we prepare for the joyous celebration of Easter. We extend a warm invitation to each of you to be a part of this transformative experience.

The theme of the Retreat will be "The Desire of Every Heart," centered around the Eucharist and its transformative power in our lives. This retreat aims to guide us toward a deeper understanding and appreciation of the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, fostering a profound love for Him in our hearts.

Our esteemed Retreat Preacher, Fr. Michael Mary Dosch, O.P., brings a wealth of experience and spiritual insight to guide us on this sacred journey. Currently serving as the Vicar Provincial for the Dominican Province of St. Joseph and a papal Missionary of Mercy, Fr. Michael Mary's journey into the priesthood and his dedication to the Dominican Order are truly inspiring.

Fr. Michael Mary's life journey reflects a deep connection to faith and adventure. Hailing from Margate, New Jersey, he spent his youth near the ocean, fostering a love for surfing and even surviving a remarkable encounter with a shark. His academic pursuits led him to the Catholic University of America in Washington, DC, where he encountered the Dominican friars at the Dominican House of Studies. After a stint as an electrical engineer, he responded to his calling and embraced the Dominican way of life.

A devoted pilgrim to Our Lady of Lourdes, Fr. Michael Mary entrusted his vocational discernment to her during his visit to the Marian Shrine in 1997. His profound devotion has seen him make numerous pilgrimages to Lourdes, France, and serve as a spiritual director for the U.S. National Lourdes Rosary Pilgrimage until the challenges of the pandemic.

Fr. Michael Mary's academic pursuits delve into the depths of dogmatic theology, with a particular focus on Ecclesiology and Mariology, stemming from his profound love for the Church and the Blessed Mother. His scholarly achievements include a Licentiate in Sacred Theology from the Dominican House of Studies, with his dissertation exploring the Primacy of St. Peter in the New Testament and the Early Church.

Throughout his pastoral and leadership roles within the Dominican community, including serving as pastor of a vibrant parish in Ohio and as Novice Master for the Dominican Province of St. Joseph, Fr. Michael Mary has tirelessly worked towards fostering vocations and nurturing spiritual growth. His directorship of the Blessed Margaret of Castello Shrine and Guild, advocating for Saint Margaret's canonization, stands as a testament to his commitment to holiness and devotion.

Currently, as the Socius and Vicar Provincial for the Province of St. Joseph, Fr. Michael Mary continues to inspire and guide countless souls on their spiritual journeys. His presence and insights during our Lenten Retreat promise to be enlightening and transformative, offering us a deeper understanding of our faith and a renewed sense of purpose as we journey toward Easter.

We invite you to join us for this sacred time of reflection, prayer, and renewal. Together, let us embrace the grace of God and embark on this Lenten journey with open hearts and steadfast devotion.

Lenten Penance Service and Confession, Thursday, March 7, 5 pm to 8 pm

We warmly invite you to join us for our Lenten Penance Service and Confession on Thursday, March 7, from 5 pm to 8 pm. This sacred event presents a unique opportunity for spiritual renewal and reconciliation as we journey through the Lenten season.

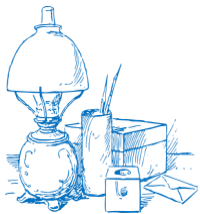

With the participation of fourteen dedicated priests, we offer you the chance to experience the healing power of the sacrament of confession. Each priest stands ready to listen with compassion and offer guidance, allowing you to unburden your heart and receive God's mercy and forgiveness.

Confession is a profound and a transformative experience, allowing us to acknowledge our shortcomings and seek reconciliation with God and one another. As we prepare our hearts for the joyous celebration of Easter, let us embrace this opportunity to renew our relationship with God and experience the freedom that comes from receiving His grace.

No matter how long it has been since your last confession or what struggles you may be facing, know that you are welcome with open arms. Take this step towards spiritual renewal and join us for our Lenten Penance Service and Confession. May this sacred time of reflection and reconciliation bring you closer to God's love and mercy.

Third Sunday of Lent, Exodus 20:1-17; I Corinthians 1:22-25; John 2:13-25

Temples of the Holy Spirit

Introduction

The central theme of today's readings is the challenge to keep our Covenant agreement with Jesus Christ, just as the Israelites tried to keep the agreements of the Old Testament Covenant with Yahweh by promising to obey the Ten Commandments. We become people of the New Covenant by loving others as Jesus did, by keeping our parish Church holy and fully dedicated to Divine worship, and by keeping our hearts cleansed, just, holy, and pure because they are temples of the Holy Spirit. Today's first reading teaches us that the Ten Commandments are the basis of our religious and spiritual life, just as they formed a rule of life for the Israelites because of their Covenant with Yahweh at Mount Sinai. The Responsorial Psalm (Ps 19) depicts the Mosaic Law's life-enhancing attributes: it refreshes the soul and rejoices the heart; it is pure and true, more precious than gold.

In the second reading, Paul reminds us that we must live and preach the Divine "folly" of the crucified Christ and the spirit of the cross, especially during the Lenten season. The message of the cross is God's wisdom and power and, "foolish" as it may seem, that message is greater than the Law, greater than the Temple, greater than worldly wisdom or human strength. Today's Gospel gives the dramatic account of Jesus' cleansing the Temple of its merchants and moneychangers, followed by a prediction of his death and Resurrection.

First reading, Exodus 20:1-17

On the first Sunday of Lent, we reflected on the Covenant that God made with the world through Noah after destroying all living things on the land with the flood. Last Sunday our meditation was on the Covenant promises God made to Abraham and his descendants. On this third Sunday of Lent we consider the third Covenant God made with His chosen people through Moses at Mount Sinai. In that Covenant, God, Who had liberated His people from slavery in Egypt, promised to make the Jews His own people, to lead them to the Promised Land, and to protect them from their enemies. The people, in return, agreed to obey the Ten Commandments and other laws given by Yahweh through Moses. The Ten Commandments form a list of directives or instructions for living out our Covenant relationship. In other words, it is the Constitution of the people of God because the Ten Commandments were part of a Covenant which God entered into with a specific group of people: the Israelites. The Covenant offered these people a society genuinely free, secure, mutually respectful and trustworthy, superior to neighboring societies, and more humane than anything the earth had yet seen.

The Ten Commandments are based on two basic principles, namely, the principle of reverence and the principle of respect. The first four commandments demand from us reverence for God, reverence for His Holy Name, reverence for His Holy Day (Sabbath), and reverence for our father and mother. The remaining commandments ask us to respect life, to respect the bodies of other persons, to respect their marriage bonds, to respect their property, to respect the good name of people everywhere, and our own words about them in a court of law, and to respect our neighbor's wife and his property. Jesus summarized all the commandments into two: love of God and love of neighbor and later clarified the latter further: "Love others as I have loved you."

Second Reading, 1 Corinthians 1:22-25

Since today's Gospel portrays Jesus as causing a scandal by his prophetic cleansing of the Temple, Paul says that Jesus' cross is a scandal, or "stumbling block," to the Jews and "foolishness" to Gentiles. A crucified Christ did not fit into the Jewish concept of a triumphant political Messiah. In the same manner, the idea of a suffering God Who was crucified but rose again did not appeal to the intelligentsia of Corinth who considered it an affront to their dualistic tendency to write off the body as valueless! Hence, the Apostle simply reminds the Corinthian community of something they already know: "The 'foolishness' of God is wiser than human wisdom, and the 'weakness' of God is stronger than human strength." Though Jesus expected His disciples to adhere to the Ten Commandments, it quickly became evident to them that such adherence was simply "entry-level" Faith. After His death and Resurrection, they discovered it was essential to follow Jesus himself rather than a series of laws. The only way to live a fulfilled life was to imitate Jesus' dying and rising, whether it scandalized others or not. Hence, this second reading reminds us that we must appreciate and live out in various ways the Divine "foolishness" of the crucified Christ and obey His commandment of love as expression of our Divine worship.

Gospel Reading, John 2:13-25

1. Time of the incident: While the turning of water into wine was the first sign of Jesus' ministry, according to John, the first public act of his ministry is to cleanse the Temple. (In John, the Temple scene makes a claim for Jesus' authority at the beginning of his ministry, while in the Synoptics, it occurs near the end.) The authority Jesus used was ultimately based on his identity as the Son of the Only God Who dwells in that Temple. As such, Jesus had the authority to disrupt the Temple's unholy activities. Passover was a major Jewish festival. Pilgrims from all over Palestine and beyond would come to Jerusalem to celebrate the feast and to pay their annual Temple tax. Matthew, Mark, and Luke (Mt 21:12-17; Mk 11:15-19; Lk 19:45-48), report only one participation in the Passover feast in Jesus' public life, and that was just before his arrest, emphasizing the time when Jesus cleansed the Temple. The synoptic Gospels place the "cleansing of the Temple" immediately after Jesus' triumphant arrival in Jerusalem on the back of the colt of an ass. For Matthew, Mark, and Luke the powerful scene in the Temple demonstrates Jesus at the height of his power and popularity. His conflict with the religious establishment in Jerusalem, the religious capital, provided fuel for the fires of indignation and alarm set among the Sadducees and Pharisees. John, however, puts the incident at the beginning of Jesus' ministry because John is not interested in telling us when Jesus cleansed the Temple, but rather in showing this cleansing as an act prophesied of the Messiah. John considers the raising of Lazarus, and not the Temple-cleansing, as the precipitating event for Jesus' arrest, trial and crucifixion (John 11-12).

2. The Temple Jesus cleansed: The Temple in Jerusalem was the symbol of Jewish religion and the only center for Israel's common worship and sacrifices. Weekly Sabbath prayers and the teaching of the Law were conducted in local synagogues. King Solomon built the first Temple on Mount Moriah in 966 BC to replace the tabernacle that had been Israel's portable place of worship; 1 Kgs 5, gives a detailed description of that Temple's solemn blessing. That Temple area covered some 35 acres. After 379 years, the Babylonians under Nebuchadnezzar destroyed that Temple in 587 BC and took all the healthy Jews as slaves. On their return from exile, after some 70 years of Babylonian exile, the Jews rebuilt the Temple in 515 BC under the leadership of Zerubbabel (who was of the House of David). Next, that rebuilt Temple was damaged, plundered, and desecrated by Greek conqueror Antiochus IV Epiphanes in 167 BC, and stripped of everything of value.

That Temple was cleansed and restored by Judas Maccabaeus in 164 B.C. But it was plundered and damaged again, first by Roman generals Pompey in 63 BC and then by Crassus in 54 BC. King Herod the Great began to renovate it in 20 BC. Since Herod's Temple was constructed over the foundation of the temple built under Zerubbabel in 515 BC (though greatly expanded), it is known by Jews today as the Second Temple. Jesus did his controversial cleansing of this Temple, in the outer courtyard. This courtyard was called the Court of the Gentiles, because Gentiles were allowed to enter in it for prayer to the Most High, if they wished to do so.

3. The abuses which infuriated Jesus: a) The merchants selling animals and the money changers had converted the Court of the Gentiles into a noisy market making it impossible for the Gentiles to worship Yahweh. i) The merchants sold the animals and birds for sacrifice at unjust and exorbitant prices (18 to 20 times the regular price outside the Temple). ii) The animal-inspectors, bribed by the merchants, disqualified even the healthy animals brought by poor shepherds and farmers for sacrifice. This was an unjust extortion at the expense of poor and humble pilgrims, who were practically blackmailed into buying animals and birds from the Temple booths. Jesus considered this a glaring social injustice aggravated by the fact that it was perpetrated in the name of religion. b) The Temple authorities, by sharing the profit made by the merchants and moneychangers, converted it into a "hideout of thieves" (Mark 11:17; Luke 19:45). Roman coins, bearing the images of pagan gods and the emperor for whom godhead was claimed, were forbidden as offering in the Temple. The moneychangers, who exchanged the Temple coin (Galilean shekel) with Roman coins, demanded 1/6 of the value of the coin as their commission, even from the poor people who had to pay one and a half days of their daily wage as their annual Temple tax. What especially enraged Jesus was not that a fee was being charged, but that the amount being charged to the poor was exorbitant and, hence, unjust. What was happening was a great social injustice done in the name of religion. In fact, the moneychangers were street-level representatives of a corrupt Temple banking system which had become an instrument of injustice, fleecing the poor to benefit the powerful. By chasing the moneychangers and merchants from the Temple, Jesus was questioning the validity of the entire sacrificial system itself -- of Israel's ability to atone for its sins, be forgiven and stand in right relationship with God. "Jesus' symbolic attack on the Temple would (in His culture) have had a meaning not unlike that of the terrorists who flew planes into the World Trade Centre—symbolically attacking a building that was widely seen as the "nerve center" of an entire network of political, economic and religious power. In addition to its key religious functions, the Temple had also taken on political and economic roles in Judaea. Apparently, its Treasury was used by many wealthy Jewish people as the 'central bank of Jerusalem,' where they stored their wealth, considering it safe from theft or pillaging." (Dr. Murray Watson).

Jesus got whip-cracking mad: Jesus' reaction to this commercialized Faith was fierce. Since no weapons were allowed inside the Temple, Jesus had to construct his own: a whip of cords. He then wrought havoc on those who were committing abuses. He pushed people and animals out of the way, overturning the money-changers' tables, and so spilling their coins. With over a hundred thousand pilgrims in the city to make their sacrifices at the Temple, it seems likely that there would have been hundreds, perhaps thousands, of sheep and cattle. Considering the crowd and the damage, it is one of the unsung miracles of Jesus' ministry that he was not set upon and killed by a mob of outraged businessmen and Temple police! Because of his righteous zeal, Jesus inspired people with respect for his actions. His words bit into the consciences of those who were taking advantage of the system. John adds an additional note that Jesus' disciples remembered Psalm 69:9 ("Zeal for Your house consumes me"), as a justification for Jesus' rage. Filled with zeal for the house of God, that special place where humans and God meet, Jesus challenged religious practice that was simply external. Jesus, answering the call of a higher Authority, obeyed, regardless of the consequences.

Temple in Jerusalem replaced by Jesus, the Temple:

The Johannine account, in which Jesus quotes Zec 14:21, "Stop making my Father's house a marketplace," seems at first glance to support the interpretation of the event as a cleansing. However, the greater emphasis here is not so much on the cleansing of the Temple, as on the replacement of the Temple. The Temple in Jerusalem was the place where God made His Name or Glory to dwell. With Jesus' coming on the scene, the Temple was no longer important in Jewish life as John tells the story. The Temple had ceased to have a function. Jesus' promise of a new Temple suggested that God's glory would be manifested, not in a building, but in a Person. By the end of the first Christian century, whenever Christians heard the word Temple, they no longer thought of the destroyed stone and mortar edifice which Solomon had originally constructed and Herod had rebuilt, but of the risen Jesus: the Temple which had been destroyed and raised up again in three days. Jesus had replaced and superseded everything the Temple had formerly symbolized. By his prophetic actions in the Temple, Jesus made it clear that the God Who gave the Law on Sinai could not be bought by sacrifice or bribe. Jesus is the Temple in Whom His followers come into contact with God. Our Faith is Person-centered, and we are dealing with a relationship. The cleansing of the Temple by Jesus conveys to us the message that our parish Church should be the source of strength for our spiritual life and the proper venue for its public expression.

The Sadducees' challenge: Jesus threw the mechanics of Temple worship into chaos, disrupting the Temple system during one of the most significant feasts of the year, so that neither sacrifices nor tithes could be offered that day. No wonder the Jews who were gathered at the Temple asked for a sign to warrant his actions! The Sadducees responsible for the Temple's ongoing life demanded some sort of an explanation (but, surprisingly, no reparation), for the holy mess Jesus had made. That is why they demanded "signs" which might legitimize Jesus' disruptive actions. Jesus' response only promised more destruction, with an infinitely greater cost. The Sadducees took this talk of Temple-destroying literally and were properly horrified. John's account once again jumps forward in time, giving as the reference behind Jesus' reply, his future death and Resurrection. Both interpretations are shocking. Suggesting that God would allow the Temple, the most holy site in Judaism, to be reduced to rubble was nothing less than blasphemy.

The Desire of Every Heart

"Out of the darkness of my life, so much frustrated, I put before you the one great thing to love on earth: the Blessed Sacrament.... There you will find romance, glory, honour, fidelity, and the true way of all your loves upon earth... which every man's heart desires." – J.R.R. Tolkien

Monday, March 4: "Lord to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life" (John 6:68)

We are made to expect God! "God is Love" (1 John 4:16) and we were made for Love. But what is Love? Come and see how knowing what Love is makes all the difference, especially, by encountering God in the Sacrament of Charity (Sacramentum Caritatis).

Tuesday, March 5: "Arise and eat, else the journey will be too great for you" (1 Kings 19:7)

Miracles happen and they happen every day. Hear first-hand accounts of miracles that happened at Lourdes. Enter into the profundity of God's Divine Mercy in the Sacrifice He has left us.

Wednesday, March 6: "My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord!" (Luke 1:46)

Pope Saint John Paul II wrote his last encyclical on the Eucharist, claiming, "The Eucharist, like the Canticle of Mary, is first and foremost praise and thanksgiving" (EE 58). Come and discover the meaning of the word eucharistia and how that can change your life.

A Season for Reflection

Nowadays, in Morazán, El Salvador, it is very difficult to know when the rainy or dry seasons will be. The unpredictable weather puts the livelihood of Sandra's family in jeopardy. Despite the challenges, Sandra and her husband, Santos, remain dedicated to ensuring their children grow healthy and succeed in school. Learn how their strong family dynamic enabled Sandra to participate in a Catholic Relief Services' project on raising chickens and how her determination has helped her family and community. Visit csrceibowl.org to read this week's Story of Hope.

Pontifical Good Friday Collection

Pope Francis has asked our parish to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land. Your support helps the church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools and offer religious education. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines. The pandemic hit particularly hard the Christians in the Holy Land. Most of them depend on pilgrimages to work. In these times of crisis, the Pontifical Good Friday Collection is also necessary to meet the basic needs of the People of God still living in this Land where the Church was born. When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you become an instrument of peace and join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land. PLEASE BE GENEROUS! For more information about Christians in the Holy Land, visit www.myfranciscan.org/good-friday

The blind man was willing to let Jesus minister to him and willingly did all Jesus asked of him. The Pharisees were more resistant to His message, spending their time and energy to disprove the miracle. Which am I more like, the man born blind or the Pharisees?

In our Holy of Holies, we have ten candles always burning around the tabernacle, just as in the temple in Jerusalem there were ten lights always burning around the Ark of the Covenant. They indicate the presence of our precious Lord in the Blessed Sacrament.

The candles used are seven day candles and may be purchased either in memoriam or for the intentions of a loved one for a $10 donation through the Seton Shop. This space lists the names of those for whom candles have been purchased.

Yes, there are some very rewarding days as a pro-life advocate. There are some awesome things going on in the Diocese of St. Augustine.

There is a place outside of Jacksonville for school-age children suffering from a family divorce or separation. At Seamark Ranch they live in a family setting with 5 other children and continue their schooling, assist with the daily chores on the farm, gardening, harvesting, caring for and riding the horses. At the same time the parents are learning better parenting skills in a counseling setting. For more information visit: www.seamarkranch.com.

There is also a new program: St. Joseph Neighborhood Center in St. Augustine where single moms are prepared with job seeking/maintaining skills and then placed in an internship to learn the skills necessary to be an adequate provider for their children. The program is presently looking for intern sites in the Palm Coast/ St. Augustine area. If your business would be willing to train a very motivated mom to learn the skills necessary to succeed in your business, please contact Kristin Paul at 904-824-1752 ext. 503 or kpaul@sjncfl.org at St. Joseph Neighborhood Center to learn how you can become involved. The young moms are ready to become self-supporting with your assistance in their job skills training with a yearlong internship. What a wonderful way to uplift human dignity.

There is also a foster parent network called: National Youth Advocate Program (NYAP) located in St. Augustine that will give parents an opportunity to change the life of a young person. Contact Kelly at 904-443-9240 for full details. There is additional information on the Respect Life bulletin board at the North entrance of SEAS.

Want to become more informed and involved? Here are some upcoming events.

Saturday, March 23, 2024 from 9 - 4 at St. Joseph's Parish Cody Center, 4114 Loretta Rd. Jacksonville, 32223 --- Red Bird Workshop (healing after the loss of a child from miscarriage through adulthood). Registration is $35. See SEAS Respect Life bulletin board at North entrance for flyer. This is a very vibrant ministry within the Diocese of St. Augustine Human Life and Dignity Ministry offering many opportunities to grow in love and hope.

Saturday, April 13 at St. Michael's Church in Fernandina Beach. Many of the facets of the Diocese of St. Augustine Human Life and Dignity ministry will be presented, included but not limited to Prison Ministry, Florida Alternative to the Death Penalty, Florida Voice for the Unborn, human trafficking, end of life decision making and bioethics. Several presenters will be from SEAS. Full information on SEAS Respect Life bulletin board at North entrance.

Saturday, March 9, 2024 9:30 am - SEAS Respect Life Committee meeting in Cody Room. All are welcome. Update on Florida legislature actions and plans for SEAS Health Fair on April 20.

Quotes of Saints

"Jesus has made Himself the Bread of Life to give us life. Night and day, He is there. If you really want to grow in love, come back to the Eucharist, come back to that Adoration

-St. Teresa of Calcutta

"My dear souls, let us recognize, I pray you, Christ's infinite charity towards us in the institution of this Sacrament of the Eucharist. In order that our love be a spiritual love, He wills a new heart, a new love, a new spirit for us. It is not with a carnal heart but with a spiritual one, that Christ has loved us with a gratuitous love, a supreme and most ardent love, by way of pure grace and charity. Ah! One needs to love Him back with one's whole, whole, whole, living, living, living and true, true, true heart!!"

-St. Lawrence of Brindisi

"A thousand years of enjoying human glory is not worth even an hour spent sweetly communing with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament."

-St. Padre Pio

"Christ held Himself in His hands when He gave His Body to His disciples saying: 'This is My Body.' No one partakes of this Flesh before he has adored it."

- St. Augustine
