“Salt and Light”

To our Faith Community: Here we are already in the second month of 2020! We often wonder: “Where does it all go so quickly?” I very much enjoy celebrating with this faith community. You often speak of your desire for inspiring liturgies with meaningful music and homilies. In a very real way, you are saying that you want “Salt and Light” within our gatherings. I agree with that need and desire. After we have routinely done something for years, we need to find the surprise or the up-tick something to elevate our mind and heart that this will still motivate, even transform our week.

What comes to my mind is that, for me, the community that gathers with joy and hope is the great differential. Each of you who come to our liturgies adds something more to the celebratory equation. It can’t all be on the presider or liturgist, cantors, or screen volunteers. What I suggest here is that we matter to one another. And how connected we are as a living faith community makes a very big difference.

We’ve invited people over the last several weeks to consider joining in the CEW renewals that will be offered at the end of the month. A lot of us say: “I don’t need that,” or “That’s not for me,” or “I did that years ago.” I would gently challenge that disposition of heart. As a community of faith, we grow and strengthen one another when we share our lives in some manner. I can be a better priest when I know you and I know you care about me. I can be much better because I experience that we’re invested in one another.

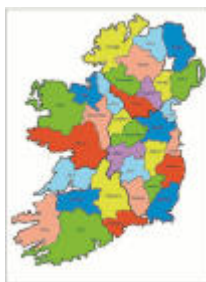

Many of us stay very isolated and then feel alone. Many of us have deep faith but either struggle to or don’t want to speak of it anywhere. Some of us fear being exposed. Jesus says to us today: “Let us be light and salt.” A light hidden serves no purpose. Salt that does not flavor loses its value. YOU are needed; your faith is important for someone else. We must give our faith away; we must help lighten others’ burdens; we must be the heart of Christ living in this community.

Please consider taking that step out of the boat, across the water, to meet Christ the Lord in some new way and really choose to build this community. Because it takes good trust, it will lead to some new awareness, some new insight, possibly an enlivened faith, and transforms us.

Fr. Paul Attak-Nsiah
