CONFESSION

During This Stressful Time we have had to adopt new guidelines for the Sacrament of Reconciliation. For the time being we can only do confessions by appointment. If you want to make an appointment, please call the Parish Office and the secretary will ask you a few questions and get your first name and your telephone number. The secretary will then contact Fr. Paul and he will call you direct either to set up an appointment or just talk to you on the phone. We don't like this situation any better than you do—but we have to be safe AND we want YOU to be safe as well. “... shelter us under the mantle of your protection, keep us in the embrace of your arms, help us always to know the love of your arms, help us always to know the love of your Son, Jesus. Amen.”

The 4:15 pm Saturday Mass will continue to be livestreamed.

“Fear not, for I am with you.”
— Isaiah 41:10

Sunday

Opening Hymn: Send Us Your Spirit

R. Come Lord Jesus, send us your Spirit, renew the face of the earth.
Come Lord Jesus, send us your Spirit, renew the face of the earth.

1. Come to us, Spirit of God, breathe in us now, we sing together. Spirit of hope and of light, fill our lives, come to us, Spirit of God. R.

2. Fill us with the fire of your love, burn in us now, bring us together. Come to us, dwell in us, change our lives, O Lord, come to us, Spirit of God. R.

3. Send us the wings of new birth, fill all the earth with the love you have taught us. Let all creation now be shaken with love, come to us, Spirit of God. R.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory. Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father. You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day. In accordance with the Scriptures He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and His kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life who proceed from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Communion Song: Bread of Life

R. Bread of life, hope of the world, Jesus Christ, our brother: feed us now, give us life, lead us to one another.

1. As we proclaim your death, as we recall your life, we remember your promise, to return again. R.

2. The bread we break and share was scattered once as grain: just as now it is gathered, make your people one. R.

3. We eat this living bread, we drink this saving cup: sign of hope in our broken world, source of lasting love. R.

"Come to Me"

Dear Parish Family: Sometimes, the best that we can do is to hold on to one simple rock-solid truth and let that one message carry us, secure us, and lead us. Today's word that does that for me is: "Come to Me." Jesus is always telling us, no matter what is going on or going down: "Come to Me."

In these days of fear and frustration: "Come to me."
In these days of worry and unrest, "Come to me."
To find peace and equity for all: "Come to me."
To discover our belonging: "Come to me."
To know our strength and purpose: "Come to me."
To carry our burdens with us: "Come to me."

We have no greater hope or truth than that Jesus walks with us. Lean on Him. Trust Him. Confide in Him and follow Him.

No matter our distance, let us be one in our source of strength: "Come to me."

May we in these days become one Body in Christ, loving and serving one another, praying for and listening to the needs of our lives.

Fr. Paul Attak-Nsiah

Song of Sending Forth: City of God

1. Awake from your slumber! Arise from your sleep! A new day is dawning for all those who weep. The people in darkness have seen a great light. The Lord of our longing has conquered the night.

R. Let us build the city of God. May our tears be turned into dancing! For the Lord, our light and our love, has turned the night into day!

2. We are sons of the morning; we are daughters of day the One who has loved us has brightened our way. The Lord of all kindness has called us to be a light for his people to set their hearts free. R.

Congratulations! to St. Columbkille parishioner Bryce Bauer, upon receiving the Sr. Mary Louise Scienszinski Scholarship. This scholarship was set up to assist a young parishioner in their pursuit of a Catholic high school education. Bryce enters Wahlert Catholic High School in the Fall. May God be with you on your journey!

Did YOU Know ... that you can have the St. Columbkille Bulletin sent directly to your e-mail address weekly? And it's FREE!!! Of course you can always find the Bulletin on our website — that won't change — but now it can be sent directly to YOU,. All you have to do is go to parishesonline.com locate your parish with the search tool, and sign-up to automatically get an email when a new publication becomes available. This is one of those "try it — you might like it" moments!
