CATHOLIC CHURCH

God CALLS us to be disciples and FORMS us by our Catholic Faith to:

ENCOUNTER Christ · EMBRACE deeper faith · EMPOWER Christian action

Heavenly Father,
You entrusted your Son Jesus,
the child of Mary, to the care of Joseph, an earthly father.
Bless all fathers as they care for their families. Give them strength and wisdom, tenderness and patience; support them in the work they have to do, protecting those who look to them, as we look to you for love and salvation, through Jesus Christ our rock and defender.

Amen.

Last week we began praying together for a new archbishop for our diocese at Mass. We ask God for a bishop who will “please you by his holiness and will show us your watchful care.”

A common question lately is “How will our bishop get chosen?” The Pope makes the final selection of any bishop, and so Pope Francis is the main one through whom God will be answering our prayers. But our prayers ask the Holy Spirit to inspire others, too!

The process begins with the bishops of a province. The archdiocese of Dubuque heads the Province of Iowa that also includes the dioceses of Davenport, Des Moines, and Sioux City. They discuss priests they think would serve well as a bishop. Those names and a review of the needs of the diocese are submitted to the Pope’s nuncio (ambassador) in Washington D.C. He gathers information and evaluations from those who know the suggested priests from the diocese, and creates a list of recommendations. That is sent to the Congregation for Bishops (about 45 bishops) in Rome. They review all the lists and create a summary of the diocese’s character, and a short list of recommendations for the Pope. He can accept the recommendation, choose another, or ask for more names.

In our case where an archbishop is needed, the Pope usually chooses an experienced bishop to move from another diocese.

Our prayers will touch the deliberations of many individuals! Please join us in this most consequential effort for the future of our faith-lives. If you want to offer the prayer regularly as a family, you will find it on the parish website at www.st.columbkille.net/news.

Continue to pray for Archbishop Jackels, too! Bishop Pates tells us he is well and with family in California, but we also ask God to watch over his health and retirement after serving us well! Lord, send us a Good Shepherd!

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Tom McDermott

Citywide Adult Confirmation Preparation

Are you Catholic but have not been confirmed? Welcome! Preparation for adult confirmation will be offered this summer. Sessions will be held in the St. Raphael Cathedral Center and light refreshments will be provided. There will be a total of four sessions of about an hour offered once a week. The dates are: June 28, July 5, July 12, July 19. To register, or if you have any questions, please contact Deacon Greg Lambert at (563) 582-7646, ext. 211.

High School Musical Performance of Godspell

Based on the Gospel according to St Matthew, Godspell follows with the last days of Jesus, and includes musical versions of several well-known parables. This immensely successful rock opera is a demonstration of joy and a celebration of the family of man. This new version is a masterful retelling of the original sensation, injected with contemporary references and dazzling new arrangements. The performance features high school students from throughout the area, including St. Columbkille parishioner, Erin King, We Beseech Thee Soloist. Tickets are $12 and performances will be at Bell Tower Theater the following dates/times:

Evenings at 7:30 p.m. – June 15, 16, 17, 21, 23, 24

Matinees at 2:00 p.m. – June 18, 25

Visit www.belltowertheater.net for more information.

STAFF CORNER

Happy Father's Day! This seems like the perfect time to talk about my favorite saint: St. Joseph, foster father of Christ! Not a lot is said about St. Joseph in Sacred Scripture, and in fact, St. Joseph doesn't even speak! As odd as that may seem for the man entrusted with caring for Our Blessed Mother and the Son of God, that is part of what drew me to him. There is a mystery around St. Joseph that made me want to learn more. Who is this man whom God the Father chose from among many to care for His Son? Who is this man whose strong arms could hold so gently the Redeemer of the World? Who is this quiet man who speaks volumes of the fatherhood of God and the value of fatherhood in the human family?

I encourage you to take some time this week to get to know your spiritual father: St. Joseph! Here are some great resources to turn to:

- Scripture - The Birth of Christ: Matthew 1:18-25, The Presentation: Luke 2:22-38, The Escape & The Return to Egypt: Matthew 2:13-23, The Finding of Jesus in the Temple: Luke 2:41-52
- Meet Your Spiritual Father: A Brief Introduction to St. Joseph by: Dr. Mark Miravalle
- The Glories of St. Joseph by: The Monks of St. Joseph Abbey
- Consecration to St. Joseph: The Wonders of Our Spiritual Father by: Fr. Donald Calloway, MIC

SACRAMENTS

Baptism

Baptism is the basic Sacrament of the whole Christian life, the gateway to life in the Spirit, and the door which gives access to the other sacraments. With the new birth through water and the Word, we are freed from sin and regenerated as sons and daughters of God. We ask expecting couples to visit our website or contact Serena Freisinger at s.freisinger@dbqarch.org during pregnancy to help prepare for the baptism of their child.

First Reconciliation & First Communion

These sacraments are typically celebrated when a child is 7 or 8 years old, or in second grade. At St. Columbkille, we have a firm belief that since Reconciliation and Communion are part of everyday Catholic living, preparing for these sacraments at home within the family is essential. We are guiding families in a way that not only provides parents with the tools they need to prepare their child, but also walking with them to learn how to use those tools in their daily Catholic family life. If you are looking for more information in regards to these exciting Sacramental firsts, please contact Jessica Rauen at j.rauen@dbqarch.org.

Marriage

The sacred covenant in the Sacrament of Holy Matrimony is a symbol of the union between Christ and his Church, and we would love to celebrate it with you at St. Columbkille. Please contact the parish office at least 6 – 12 months prior to the intended wedding date. For more information, visit our website or contact the parish office at 563-583-9117.
