DEACON'S CORNER

We hear a familiar story in the Gospel this week about the rich man and Lazarus. The story is about how the rich man failed to help Lazarus during his lifetime, and how he is unable to find any relief. His fate was sealed upon his death. When asking that his living relatives be warned, Jesus tells the rich man that his relatives have all the tools necessary already, they only need to listen and act.

Over the past few years, as the world was rocked with the pandemic, I think that poverty became hard to notice. With the economy moving at a heightened pace, and with the abundance of government stimulus, food pantries and agencies that service the poor and afflicted saw a decrease in those seeking services. As things have changed over the past few weeks, and months, I can tell you that I've noticed that poverty is on the rise.

One of the things that delighted me upon being assigned to serve St. Martin of Tours Parish, was the desire of our parishioners to stand at the front line fighting against poverty; with their time, talent, and treasure. Thank you. As the world has changed around us over the past two and a half years, I challenge you with some questions: Who is the "Lazarus" at my gate? What can I do for them THIS WEEK?

May the Lord, Jesus, help you find the answers.

Blessings,

Deacon Todd
