DEACON'S CORNER

As I was looking at the readings for this weekend, I was reminded of the lyrics from a song written by Paul McCartney "Let 'Em In." It goes like this, "Someone's knocking at the door, somebody ringing the bell. Do me a favor open the door, and let 'em in." I guess it comes from the Psalm response, "Let the Lord enter, he is the king of glory." (Psalm 24)

This is the final week of Advent and we are closing in on Christmas Day. There will be plenty of things that you will want to accomplish before the big day. Decorations need to be put up, food prepared, and presents wrapped. A knock at the door this time of year can be very stressful. Do me a favor, open the door and let 'em in.

Jesus is waiting for you to let him into your heart. Let the King of Glory enter, and let him fill your heart with Joy.
