THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

"All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." - Mt 28:18b-19

DEACON'S CORNER

Do you remember your First Communion? That special excitement you had to be able to receive Jesus just like you've seen others doing? I really enjoy seeing young people coming forward with their parents, the look of excitement, then disappointment when they are unable to receive. They seem to know that something special is happening, and they want to be a part of it.

This weekend we will have two young disciples of Jesus make their First Communion. As I spoke with them and their families after Mass a few weeks ago, I could see the anticipation in their eyes. They are eager, excited, and can't wait for the day to arrive.

We should also approach Communion with the same excitement and anticipation. Everyday...every time! Just as St. Teresa of Kolkata encourages priests to celebrate every Mass as if it is their first Mass, their last Mass, and their only Mass, we should approach receiving Jesus in Communion the same way. He is that special!

Blessings,

Deacon Todd
