DEACON'S CORNER

I hope that everyone enjoyed the beautiful weather with which we were blessed with during this past Memorial Day weekend. It was also a beautiful thing to see all of the visitors who joined us for Mass on Sunday. Please remember that if you are traveling this summer, you should make sure to find a local church, and join them for Sunday Mass as well.

The Greek definition of Catholic (katholikos) is “universal,” and is one thing that I enjoy about my faith. No matter where I travel, in the world, I'll still be able to worship in a church on Sunday. We will have the same readings, and the same sacrifice on the altar, no matter where I worship. I can stay connected!

People often say, “ God is everywhere, so when I'm on vacation, I'll just worship him from my hotel room, campsite, or boat...” “ You can pick your own place to fill in. But that is only partially true. Yes, God created everything and, exists everywhere, but he only comes to commune with us, on the altar. Every altar, in every Catholic church, at Mass every Sunday. (Actually every day) To truly stay in touch, we need to seek Him at Mass.

So, this summer, as you travel, stay connected with Jesus. Visit him on Sunday. I know that I will.
