17th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field, which a person finds and hides again, and out of joy goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.” - Mt 13:44

DEACON'S CORNER

As I write this article, some much needed rain is falling outside my window. It got me thinking, how often do I thank God for answering your prayer? To be honest, if it's something that I expect, not that often; and, a rain storm is just something that we expect to happen, until it doesn't. We're all aware of the lack of rain this summer, and many of us have been praying for rain. Will we remember to thank God when it does?

A person can experience a spiritual drought as well. St. Teresa of Kolkata (Mother Teresa) experienced a spiritual darkness for fifty, that's right, fifty years. Yet, she knew that He could pierce that darkness if He wanted to. Other saints, like St. John of the Cross experienced spiritual dryness as well. Yet they never lost sight of the fact that they were beloved children of God.

You may be saying to yourself, "But they are saints." That's the point, we're all called to be saints. And, we're all beloved children of God. If you have been experiencing a spiritual dryness, and would like someone to talk with, I'd be happy to listen to, and pray with you. Maybe we could help each other on the way to sainthood.

Blessings,

Deacon Todd
