DEACON'S CORNER

I have heard from several of you that you really enjoyed the parish picnic last weekend. I am so thankful that God blessed us with great weather, and a beautiful setting in which to enjoy his blessings. If you happened to miss it, or if you happened to enjoy it so much that you're looking to go again, you're in luck. A very similar event is happening this coming weekend, Keep the Sabbath Day Holy. This is the second of three events happening this year. There is a limited Primal Eats menu, a live Christian band, and plenty of fellowship. The hosting parish this weekend is St. Michael's of Keshena. Proceeds from the day will go to help their parish.

If you're looking for a different picnic atmosphere, check out the Sacred Heart parish picnic in Shawano. There will be plenty of food, and fellowship; along with live entertainment, raffles, and a craft and bake sale. Their beer tent will include some original beers brewed by Stubborn Brothers Brewery.

If you're like me, I'll probably try to take in both events. What a great way to help support our neighbors. Whatever you do this weekend, please stay safe and thank God for his many blessings. Please pray for nice weather for these events as well.

God is Good!
