DEACON'S CORNER

Mary and I would like to thank all of you who have reached out, sent a card, and/or kept us in prayer as we deal with the loss of her mother. We are thankful for the ninety-one years that she spent on earth, and pray that she is in the loving arms of her savior, Jesus. Praying with her, and for her, in the final hours was very comforting. We are especially thankful for the care givers who have helped us as she declined in health. Taking care of a loved one whose health is failing is difficult, and tiring. We have found solace in our faith that God is ultimately in control, and no matter how much we love someone, He loves them infinitely more.

Blessings,

Deacon Todd
