St. Patrick For Sunday, August 30, 2020

Budget Envelopes	$2,193.00
Offertory	$52.00
Needed Weekly to Meet Expenses	$3,376.00

Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

1st Reading: EZ 33:7-9
Thus says the LORD:
You, son of man, I have appointed watchman for the house of Israel;
when you hear me say anything, you shall warn them for me.
If I tell the wicked, "O wicked one, you shall surely die, "
and you do not speak out to dissuade the wicked from his way,
the wicked shall die for his guilt,
but I will hold you responsible for his death.
But if you warn the wicked,
trying to turn him from his way,
and he refuses to turn from his way,
he shall die for his guilt,
but you shall save yourself.

Responsorial Psalm: PS 95:1-2, 6-7, 8-9
R. If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

Come, let us sing joyfully to the LORD;
let us acclaim the rock of our salvation.
Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving;
let us joyfully sing psalms to him.
R. If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

Come, let us bow down in worship;
let us kneel before the LORD who made us.
For he is our God,
and we are the people he shepherds, the flock he guides.
R. If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

Oh, that today you would hear his voice:
"Harden not your hearts as at Meribah,
as in the day of Massah in the desert,
Where your fathers tempted me;
they tested me though they had seen my works."
R. If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

2nd Reading: ROM 13:8-10
Brothers and sisters:
Owe nothing to anyone, except to love one another;
for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law.
The commandments, "You shall not commit adultery;
you shall not kill; you shall not steal; you shall not covet, "
and whatever other commandment there may be,
are summed up in this saying, namely,
"You shall love your neighbor as yourself."
Love does no evil to the neighbor;
hence, love is the fulfillment of the law.

Alleluia: 2 COR 5:19
R. Alleluia, alleluia.
God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ
and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation.
R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Remember in prayer: Lillian Hemmen, Bernita Lowder, Emmett Schumann, Eileen Barreca, Starla Himebaugh, Jacquie McTaggart, Carolyn Erickson

Gospel: MT 18:15-20
Jesus said to his disciples:
"If your brother sins against you,
go and tell him his fault between you and him alone.
If he listens to you, you have won over your brother.
If he does not listen,
take one or two others along with you,
so that 'every fact may be established
on the testimony of two or three witnesses.'
If he refuses to listen to them, tell the church.
If he refuses to listen even to the church,
then treat him as you would a Gentile or a tax collector.
Amen, I say to you,
whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven,
and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.
Again, amen, I say to you,
if two of you agree on earth
about anything for which they are to pray,
it shall be granted to them by my heavenly Father.
For where two or three are gathered together in my name,
there am I in the midst of them."

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

School News

When saying Thank You is not enough -

I continue to be overwhelmed by the generosity of the St. John School community. A couple of weeks ago the Derecho storm hit the Cedar Rapids area. The following weekend a team of high school students (SJS alumni), led by Mrs. Gorman and Mr. & Mrs. House, arrived at my house to service all of my tree damage. In a matter of a couple of hours they completed the work that would have taken my wife and I weeks to finish. They piled up the branches and brush alongside the road for pick-up by the city of Cedar Rapids (only to find out days later that the city would not be servicing our area). Last weekend, Mr. Brian White called to tell me that he had enlisted a group of parents to pick up all of the brush that had been piled up the weekend before. Although I had already made arrangements for the brush to be hauled away, my wife and I were humbled by the offer.

These acts of kindness and generosity are just another example of how selfless and giving the SJS community has been during my tenure here. I am regularly humbled and always honored to be a part of it. Thank you does not adequately describe how thankful the staff and I are of your support! Mr. Gieryng

One Call

The one call messaging service I use to make unscheduled announcements is called Remind . Please take a minute to sign up, and use the @jgiery class code to receive the messages on your phone. If you are unable to do so, please let me know and I can add you to the group from my account.

Thank you Tysons

On Thursday, Tyson Pet Products, here in Independence, donated 10 portable air-conditioning units. We would especially like to recognize Julie Klammer who facilitated the gift. Julie visited St. John School, on behalf of Tyson's, to determine how they could make the students' educational experience more enjoyable. Every year, usually during the first and last two weeks of school, the heat and humidity reach barely tolerable levels in the classrooms. Thanks to Tyson's, heat and humidity will no longer be a learning obstacle at St. John School.

From the Desk of Fr. Beckman:

Labor Day is this Monday, September 7th. Labor Day in the United States is a holiday celebrated on the first Monday in September. It is a celebration of the American labor movement and is dedicated to the social and economic achievements of workers. It constitutes an annual national tribute to the contributions' workers have made to the strength, prosperity, and well-being of our country. Labor Day was promoted by the Central Labor Union and the Knights of Labor, who organized the first parade in New York City. After the Haymarket Massacre, which occurred in Chicago on May 4, 1886, U.S. President Grover Cleveland feared that commemorating Labor Day on May 1 could become an opportunity to commemorate that atrocious affair. Thus, in 1887, it was established as an official holiday in September to support the Labor Day that the Knights favored. Let us also pray for those who are not able to work due to physical, emotional, or psychological handicaps, and for the unemployed. May we support them through our prayers, care, and concern. Fr. David

In the following prayer for workers, we request the strength we need to work hard and to dedicate our work to God.

O God, the creator of all things, you framed the law of labor for the human race. Graciously grant, by the example and patronage of St. Joseph, that we may do the work you provide us and earn the reward you promise. Sustain us with your grace to live up to our duties in charity and justice. Glorious St. Joseph, model of all who are devoted to labor, obtain for me the grace to work conscientiously, putting the call of duty above my selfish inclinations; to work with gratitude and joy, considering it an honor to employ and develop, by means of labor, the gifts received from God, disregarding difficulties and weariness; to work, above all, with purity of intention and with detachment from self, all of which are vital to the work of God. Grant me the wisdom of having always before my eyes, death, and the account to which I must render of time lost, of talents wasted, of good omitted, and of vain-glory in success; forgive me of these faults. Al,l for Jesus and all, after your example, patriarch Joseph, patron of workers.
Amen.

Gloria in excelsis

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.
Amen..

Thank you for your continued support during this pandemic. We truly do have the best church family!

There will be a practice for First Communion on Saturday, September 12 at 10:00 am in St. John's Church!

Blessing for the Fallen of 9-11

God of mercy,
in your word of Scripture, you instruct us to "Do to others as you would have them do to you."

Give us today the courage to assist those around us who may need our assistance.
Give us patience when we become impatient.

Remind us to pray for all those who perished on
United Airlines 93, American Airlines 11,
United Airlines 175, American Airlines 77,
and those in the Twin Towers and Pentagon.

Give us a heart
thankful for those who gave their lives
as first responders, as did the men and women who ran into danger to be of aid.

We ask all this in the name of the One who first responded to our need for a savior,
Jesus the Christ. Amen
