Stewardship Quotes

Today's Psalm reminds us that we have been crowned with glory and honor and given rule over the works of God's hands. But we must be good stewards, for the Lord will surely hold us accountable for the use of those gifts!

The Most Holy Trinity
John 16:12-15

I am amazed at how my four siblings teach their many kids in age-appropriate ways. For example, now that my nephew Brandon is 24 years of age, they give him insights and freedoms that would have been positively confounding or even dangerous when he was a toddler. Imagine if they had taught him at age four how to drive a car, use a credit card online, or handle power tools. But eventually, they did, and he is a high functioning young man, I'm proud to say. They are good teachers.

This week we learn that Jesus teaches us in a similar way. He says to his Apostles, "I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now" (John 16:12). How disappointing for them. But imagine at that moment, before his resurrection and ascension, if the Lord had started telling them about synods and sacraments, popes and parishes, martyrs and monasteries, rosaries and relics, catechisms and crucifixes? They would have been absolutely overwhelmed, confused, and discouraged. He tells them what they need to know, when it is time for them to know it.

So he does for us. Jesus has unceasingly taught the Church as she matures through the centuries, just as he teaches you and me through our lives in ways we can understand. Our task should be to learn what he is teaching us now, knowing that (although revelation per se is complete in him and his Apostles), he never ceases to teach us as we spiritually mature. Be confident: he knows what you are ready to learn now.

— Father John Muir

From the Desk of Fr. Beckman:

Last week we delved into the Most Blessed Trinity as we reflected on the gift of the Holy Spirit to the Church. As we continued this reflection on how God has revealed himself through three distinct persons united as one, let's consider today each of their roles. We speak of our loving God as a trinitarian God, three persons united as one in an intimate bond of love and grace. Also, in relationship to one another and to humanity. And because it's relational we speak about them as persons: Father, Son, and (Holy) Spirit. God the Father who is the creator of the universe, God the Son who is the redeemer of the human race, and God the Holy Spirit is the sanctifier, the one who makes us holy. God the Father is the alpha and the omega, the beginning and the end, of the whole process. The beginning at creation and the end into which the "glory of God" is the fullness of everything good, true, and beautiful. God the Son is in it because he is the Savior and redeemer of the human race. He made the ultimate sacrifice of complete obedience to the Father submitting himself to the Father's will by becoming human, suffering for our sake as he took upon himself the sin of the world, and dying to make the sacrifice for that sin. Ultimately redeeming us and winning us back to good standing with the Father assuring us of salvation and eternal life for those who believe in him and unite ourselves to him. And, God the Holy Spirit is the fulfillment of our hope. The divine love that is poured into us by the Father and the Son. The three things that unite us to God are faith, hope, and love which are like the roots, the shoots, and the fruits of a plant. Faith is our response to God. The roots which are saturated with God's grace. We place all our hope in the redeeming act of Jesus' sacrifice. And the fruit we bear is through the loving actions and kind deeds inspired by the Holy Spirit. This relationship with God gives us the grace, peace, joy and ultimate glory that is promised to those who love God.

Fr. David

Happy Father's Day to my earthly father Evroul, who is now residing in the Ossian Care Center, and to all other father's whose children will undoubtedly give them special blessings not only throughout this day, but always.

Father's Day Blessing

How blessed are you in God's eyes
Because you are a father!

For in caring for your children
You have fed the hungry,
Comforted the sick,
Consoled the sorrowing,
And healed the brokenhearted.

You love your children unconditionally,
By forgiving them when they fail,
Lifting them up when they fall,
Guiding them through the dark times,
And walking besides them in good times.

Loving God, bless these men...
May they be strengthened as Christian fathers!
Let the example of faith and love
Shine forth to their children.
Grant that we,
Their sons and daughters,
May honor them always
With a spirit of profound respect.

Blessed too, are all our fathers
Who have gone to their eternal rest.
May the seeds of faith and love
Which they have planted in us
Continue to blossom and grow
On this Father's Day and always.

We ask this prayer of blessing through Christ, Our Lord. AMEN!
