KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS #12703

BABY BOTTLE (BIRDHOUSE) CAMPAIGN

During the Coronavirus quarantine, Barry Nelson has been making birdhouses to sell in support of the Knights of Columbus Council #12703 Baby Bottle Campaign. The proceeds of this campaign support the purchase of ultrasound machines at Pro-Life Centers in the Pittsburgh Diocese which give expectant moms contemplating abortion the opportunity to choose life instead. The Campaign also contributes to the local Catholic Charities Parenting Pregnancy program to help new moms.

The birdhouses are made from the wood of church pews from Our Lady of Consolation Church in Nemacolin as they were trimmed to fit for use in St. Ann Church.

- Anyone may purchase one of these birdhouses for a donation of $30 (more if you wish, your donation is tax deductible).
- Cash or checks accepted. Checks should be made payable to the Knights of Columbus #12703.
- Please call Barry at 724-852-2529 to schedule a time to pick out your own birdhouse. Currently 15 houses are available, some are designed to hang and some to mount on a post.

the beginnings of right religion.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns

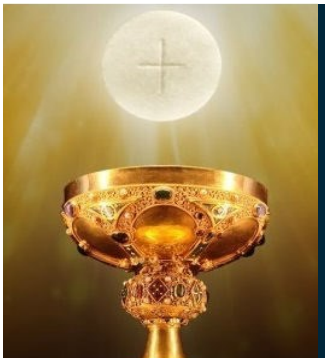
Resuming Mass during the Pandemic at all St. Matthias Worship Sites

The St Matthias Parish Masses are now open to the public according to the Mass Schedule on page 3 of this bulletin. Using all the precautions that have been laid out by the diocese and the state people must:

- wear masks,
- use hand sanitizer on entering and exiting the church,
- keep social distancing (which will force us to only about 1/3 capacity of our churches, by closing every other pew),
- during the whole liturgy people will be asked to stay in their pews with little interaction with others, until communion is distributed after the final blessing,
- then people are to leave the church immediately, not congregating or socializing after Mass.
- Between each Mass we are asked to wipe down the pews and other areas of the church that are normal areas of touch. No Eucharistic ministers or readers will be used at this time. We are trying to do all we can for the safety of our parishioners and yet maintain a faithful respect for the Eucharist and the people.

During this time there is no obligation for you to come to Mass! If you are sick or your health is compromised in any way you should stay home please, for your health and that of the community of faith. We are committed to keeping within the guidelines laid out by the diocese and hope that those who can will join us for Mass. If a church were to fill up, we will not let more enter the church than is safe according to the guidelines. Please bear with us during these unusual circumstances.



THE ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you.
Amen.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

"Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death?" What do you understand these words to mean? Many see these words as an indication of what may come in eternal life. In actuality, they have more to do with our lives here and now. We are called to die to ourselves and offer our lives as gifts given generously to others. It is not about us. We are asked to serve God and not continue in our service of sin. Life is about learning to do what we really do not want to do because it brings us deeper into the mystery of God, ourselves, and others. Learning how to accept and live with the "small deaths" and sacrifices we encounter teaches us how to live with and approach our final death. We can do so with a heart that has been touched by and is open to mercy or one that is self- focused and closed.
