2023 Bishop’s Appeal: The Bishop’s annual appeal will begin next weekend with an in-pew pledge card request. The diocese has kept our goal the same as last year ($7652.00). You may place your pledge card in the basket during our offertory collection or in the baskets at the doors after Mass. If you cannot give this year please fill out a pledge card just the same but with a 0. This will insure that you do not receive future mailings from the diocese this year for the appeal. Last year our Appeal contributions totaled 114% of our goal. Thank you for your continued support of this appeal!

The beautiful flowers in our barrels have been donated by the Valley Dream Farm. Thank you Joe and Anne Tisbert!

Thank you for supporting the Cambridge Food Shelf !

THANKS FOR SUPPORTING OUR SPONSORS WHO MAKE OUR BULLETIN POSSIBLE!

St. Boniface, Bishop and Martyr Feast Day, June 5

Boniface, Apostle to the Germans, was an English Benedictine monk who devoted his life to the conversion of the Germanic tribes. He is known for his Christian orthodoxy and fidelity to the Pope. His first missionary journey to Germania in 719 was at the request of Pope Gregory II. The Christianity he found there was mixed with error. The clergy were mainly responsible for these conditions since they were in many instances uneducated, lax, and disobedient to their bishops. Some ordinations were even suspicious. When Boniface reported to the Pope in 722, he was instructed to reform the German Church. The pope sent letters of recommendation to religious and civil leaders. Boniface later admitted that his work would have been impossible without a letter of safe-conduct from Charles Martel, the powerful Frankish ruler, and grandfather of Charlemagne. Boniface was finally made a regional bishop authorized to organize the whole German Church. He had problems because of lay interference in bishops’ elections, the worldliness of the clergy, and lack of papal control. During a final mission to the Frisians, Boniface and 53 companions were martyred while he was preparing converts for Confirmation. To restore the Germanic Church to fidelity to Rome and to convert the pagans, Boniface had been guided by two principles: to restore the obedience of the clergy to their bishops in union with the pope of Rome, and the establishment of many houses of prayer which took the form of Benedictine monasteries. A great number of Anglo-Saxon monks and nuns followed him to the continent, where he introduced the Benedictine nuns to the active apostolate of education.
