The Vermont Catholic Community Foundation has partnered with FreeWill to offer the Catholic community access to FreeWill software. This is a free, easy, confidential way parishioners to create a will and include their Catholic burial wishes. Seventy percent of people do not complete a will and often our parishioners' wishes for a Catholic burial are not fulfilled because of this. To complete a will, visit: <https://www.freewill.com/vccf>

Thank you for all the birthday greetings, cards, gifts, kindness, and meals. You helped to make my Birthday a memorable one. I am truly blessed and honored to be your pastor. ~ Fr. Dan

"We do not pray to change divine decree, but only to obtain what God has decided will be obtained through prayer.

In other words, as St. Gregory says, "by asking, men deserve to receive what the all-powerful God has decreed from all eternity to give them."

St. Thomas Aquinas

Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Even with his newfound wealth, the forgiven servant says to his fellow servant, "Pay back what you owe." In doing so he refuses "mercy to another like himself". However, "the vengeful will suffer the Lord's vengeance, for he remembers their sins in detail." The "logic" of mercy is very simple: "Forgive your neighbor's injustice; then your own sins will be forgiven." Thus, "none of us" is to "live for oneself"; rather, "we live for the Lord" and by the Lord. The "Lord of both the dead and the living" will endow us with the power to forgive others as he himself does. The desire to forgive others –even when painful wounds remain with us – is already the indication that God's mercy is present in our hearts. United to Jesus, we dare to "expect healing from the Lord."

September 19th: Feast of Saint Januarius

Saint Januarius was martyred in the Emperor Diocletian's persecution of 305. St. Januarius and his companions were thrown to the bears in the amphitheater of Pozzuoli, but the animals failed to attack them. They were then beheaded, and Januarius' blood ultimately brought to Naples. "A dark mass that half fills a hermetically sealed four-inch glass container, and is preserved in a double reliquary in the Naples cathedral it liquefies 18 times during the year...Various experiments have been applied, but the phenomenon eludes natural explanation...."

"There is only thing the soul should regret, and that is offending God. We need to be very careful on this point. We should remember our failings, yes, but with peaceful sorrow, trusting in divine mercy at all times.

In addition, let us guard ourselves from certain reproofs to ourselves and self-condemnation, because those reproofs most often come from the enemy so that he can disturb our peace in God.

If any reproofs or regrets humble us and make us diligent in doing good without removing our trust in God, then we can be sure they come from God. However, if they muddle us and make us fearful, mistrustful, lazy, or slow to do good, then we can be sure they come from the devil, and, because they are such, we should chase them away and take refuge in our trust in God." St. Pius of Pietrelcina, Feast Day Sept. 23

Prayer to blind Satan:

The Unity Prayer

My Adorable Jesus,

May our feet journey together.

May our hands gather in unity.

May our hearts beat in unison.

May our souls be in harmony.

May our thoughts be as one.

May our ears listen to the silence together.

May our glances profoundly penetrate each other.

May our lips pray together to gain mercy from the Eternal Father.

Amen.
