The Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Growing as Disciples of Jesus, Making Disciples For Jesus

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

2 Kings 4:42-44, Ephesians 4:1-6, John 6:1-15

Summary of the Readings: Today's readings invite us to become humble instruments in God's hands by sharing our blessings with our needy brothers and sisters. They are about hunger and food and about how we can satisfy the deeper hunger of our life. They remind us that if we and our country are blessed with an abundant food supply, we have to share it with the hungry people and poor countries. Once physical hungers are satisfied, then we are challenged to satisfy the deeper hungers, for love, mercy, forgiveness, companionship, peace and fulfillment.

The first reading tells us how the prophet Elisha, by invoking God's power, fed one hundred men with twenty barley loaves. Elisha relies not on what he has but on what God can do with what Elisha received as a gift. This miracle foreshadows the Gospel account of Jesus' miraculous feeding of the crowd who followed him to hear his words.

In the second reading, St. Paul reminds the Ephesians that Jesus united the Jews and the Gentiles by bringing them together as Christians in one Faith and one Baptism, allowing them to become one by eating his body. Hence, they have to live together, helping each other by sharing their blessings. Paul urges us to become communities of sharing Christians.

Jesus' miraculous feeding of five thousand people by using five barley loaves and two fish, as described in today's Gospel, was associated with the Holy Eucharist early in the Church's tradition. The people immediately interpreted the miracle, giving Jesus two Messianic titles: "The prophet" and "the one who is to come." This miracle teaches us that God works marvels through ordinary people. Elisha's servant and Jesus' disciples distributed the bread provided by God through generous people who were willing to share their food with the hungry. Thus, God meets the needs of people through the good will and services provided by members of His community.

WELCOME LUNCHEON FOR FR. ANTHONY

NOTICE-

Do you have the "right stuff" to be a permanent deacon? You won't know unless you start on the journey of discernment — a process of prayer and self discovery. Attendance is required at an information night for all potential candidates who wish to advance to the next step and ultimately apply for admission to the program. Two information nights are: August 28, 7 pm, Annunciation Church, Frankfort; Sept. 20, 7 pm, Christ the King Parish, Topeka. MARRIAGE MINUTE— Are you running low? Sometimes it feels like there's just not enough. For most of us, time, money, and energy are precious commodities that we spend carefully. When we hear someone suggest that we should invest in our marriage by attending marriage enrichment, we can feel like the apostles in this weekend's readings. We simply don't have "enough" to make it happen! The apostles gave what they did have to feeding the crowd, and Jesus multiplied their efforts. The same happens when we invest our capital into being more in love with our spouse. • Less energy is spent on fighting and hurt feelings. • We make better decisions because we are connected as a couple. • We are better parents, and our love overflows onto the children. To find the best opportunity for you go to: www.archkck.org/JMPEvents.

Here is some of the feedback from past attendees: • "Fulfilling, hopeful, effective, grounded, professional, grace-filled, skillful, sincere." • "Outstanding workshop, leader's expertise and diversity; really helpful and well integrated to our needs." • "I let a lot out, let Jesus in more, have good tools now."

Reflecting On Sunday's Readings

In difficult times do you see the donut, or the hole? Is the glass half-empty, or half-full? More importantly when you see the glass as half-empty and there is a need for a full glass, do you see God as fully capable of supplying the missing portion? The chorus of a children's song goes, "There are infinite possibilities in little beginnings, if God is in it, if God is in it." This week's Gospel is about the infinite possibilities God can do with little beginnings. Jesus' ministry, and several Old Testament accounts of God's dealing with Israel, demonstrate God's power to create and multiply food to meet people's needs. For instance, the Israelites were saved from starvation during the Exodus, by the provision of manna from heaven. The prophet Elisha in this week's first reading saw God multiply a small portion of bread and corn sufficiently enough to feed a hundred hungry men. Elijah's life, along with that of a widow and her son, was spared when the widow of Zarepath unselfishly gave the last of her meager supply of oil and flour to make Elijah's meal (1 Kings 17). And in the New Testament we see Jesus create wine from water, and twice multiply a few loaves of bread and fish sufficiently enough to feed thousands. In most of these incidences there was more food left over than when they began. Can God create something out of nothing, and multiply a little bit into the needed amount? The answer is without question, "Yes!" However, the questions that should occupy us are, "Why did he insure that we would have a written record of his miraculous power, and saving grace in these incidences?"

and "What is the lesson he wants us to learn, and the knowledge he wants us to possess about him?" One lesson may well be that we should not discount the impact of the infinite possibilities our little contribution can make in the Kingdom of God, when it is willingly given over to God. The widow of Zarepath only had a cup of oil and a bit of flour, Elisha's servant only had a twentieth of what was needed, and the disciples had only a few loaves of bread and a few fish. Their resources, in proportion to what they needed, could only be described as falling far short even of being half-full. Yet even these small portions given over to an all-powerful God, could be multiplied to meet needs in tremendous ways in God's kingdom. Imagine how different sacred Scripture would be if the widow of Zarepath, Elisha, and the young boy had not voluntarily made their little beginnings available to God's infinite power. Imagine how impoverished would be both their faith and ours if they had not come to understand this "infinite possibilities" concept of God. "From all sides people have streamed to the man whose name is on every tongue. Their physical hunger is expressive of their spiritual. Jesus sees both, and performs the symbolic act of blessing bread and fish and distributing them. Thousands eat their fill, and quantities of food are left over. The meaning of the miracle is clear. It does not consist of the feeding of the crowd. From the practical standpoint, the disciples are quite right to suggest that the people go into the surrounding villages and buy food. No, the feeding of the thousands is a revelation of divine abundance. This is the gesture of the active, giving source of divine love;

Pie Making August 12 at 9:00 am we will begin making pies for the church bazaar. Bring your rolling pins and pie making skills to the church hall for some fun and fellowship. If you can spare a 11 x 17 pan (large jelly roll pan) until the bazaar, bring that as well. So come join in the fun!

St. Columbkille's Annual Picnic We have a couple of changes to the annual picnic this year. The ladies of St. Columbkille's will prepare fruit pies in the church hall on Sunday August 12th. We are only asking for 10 cream pies, 2 pumpkin pies and 3 angel food cakes to be donated, the sign-up sheet will be in the back of church soon. In order to offset the cost of food we are asking a family to donate $35 if you do not make a cream or pumpkin pie or an angel food cake for the dinner dessert and $30 if you do. Families who are unable to provide any baked goods are asked to donate $50, the same as last year. Full information will be in the packet to be handed out. This is our major fund raiser and we would like to have 100% participation if at all possible.
