The Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Growing as Disciples of Jesus, Making Disciples For Jesus

St. Cecilia, Virgin and Martyr November 22

We know very little about Cecilia, although stories and legends abound. She lived in the second century during the time of the great persecutions. Stories tell us that as a young girl she wanted to give her life to God. Her parents forced her to marry a nobleman named Valerian. In time, she converted him and his brother Tiburtius to the faith. All three of them died as martyrs. A legend says that Cecilia was struck three times on the neck with a sword and lived for three days. She asked the pope to make her home a church. Her remains were taken to Rome, where a basilica was built in her honor.

Cecilia is often pictured with a musical instrument—a small organ, a harp, or a viola. An account of her wedding says that while the musicians played, Cecilia sang to the Lord in her heart. In the later Middle Ages, she was pictured playing the organ and singing aloud. Cecilia's pictures remind us that the Church has always recognized the value of music and song. Some thoughts and feelings are best expressed in music. Jesus and his disciples sang on the night before he died. (Matthew 26:30).

St. Cecilia is the Patron of music, musicians, and poets.

St. Cecilia, pray that our singing at liturgy may be true prayer!

HAPPY THANKSGIVING!

Father in Heaven, Creator of all and source of all goodness and love, please look kindly upon us and receive our heartfelt gratitude in this time of giving thanks.

Thank you for all the graces and blessings. You have bestowed upon us, spiritual and temporal: our faith and religious heritage. Our food and shelter, our health, the loves we have for one another, our family and friends.

Dear Father, in Your infinite generosity, please grant us continued graces and blessing throughout the coming year.

This we ask in the Name of Jesus, Your Son and our Brother. Amen.

CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

Please be generous in this week's collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. In the United States, one in seven people lives in poverty. With this collection you support programs that address the causes of poverty and provide a sustainable future for those who are struggling across the country. In addition, 25% of funds collected remains in our diocese to fund local anti-poverty projects. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this collection and work on the margins.

“God’s Little Green Acre” Seminarian

Support You are invited to join Catholics across the Archdiocese in giving thanks for our seminarians, and show your support as they strive to answer God’s call to the priesthood. Farmers can donate the proceeds from one acre of their crops, and those who don’t farm but want to “grow” vocations can make a donation in any amount. Donations will be divided among our seminarians this Christmas to help them pay for textbooks and living expenses. They greatly appreciate these gifts since they have no income. For questions call Melanie at 913-647-0303 or email vocation@archkck.org. Mail donations to: Vocation office, 12615 Parallel Pkwy, Kansas City, KS 66109.

FRANKFORT FOOD PANTRY–

Please help us support our local food pantry. There is a basket in the back of church to drop off non-perishable food items.

NOTE OF THANKS– to all parishioners who have graciously donated to the Food Pantry for the last several years. It is always greatly appreciated by those in need in the community.

DO YOU WANT TO DEEPEN YOUR PRAYER LIFE?

Join us for Centering Prayer during the month of November we will meet at Annunciation every Thursday at 4:00 pm (Except on Thanksgiving) If you have questions please call Moogie Roeder 292-4152 or Mary Aikens 292-6126.

MARRIAGE MINUTE- You don’t know the day or the hour Every night in the news, we hear of another tragic accident, act of violence or medical emergency that ends in the loss of life. Behind many of those stories is a surviving spouse whose life will never be the same. This weekend’s readings invite us to not only contemplate the unexpected end of the world, but also of our life. How can you live a marriage with no regrets? • Reconcile hurts thoroughly and promptly. • Learn to express love the way your spouse best receives it. • Create daily rituals of connection, like a blessing and kiss before leaving the house. • Write love letters to your spouse in gratitude for his/her wonderful qualities. For more, go to www.JoyfulMarriageProject.com

LEAVEN SUBSCRIPTIONS are now due in the amount of $21.00. Please pay for your own subscription as this helps defray the cost to the parish. Cost to the Parish is $3,402.00. Thank you to those parishioners who have already paid for their subscriptions. Envelope donations thus far are $1,115.00.

ANNUNCIATION CHURCH PICNIC ASSESSMENT We are still accepting Your $50.00 Church Picnic Assessments. The Church Picnic Assessment helps pay for the annual Cathedral fee to the Archdiocese which this year is $6,052.46 and is 5% of our Ordinary Collections & Other contributions during the fiscal year.

Thank You to all parishioners who have graciously given their Picnic Assessment. Assessments received thus far are $4,824.00. Thank You for your continued support of our Parish!

BAILEYVILLE KNIGHTS SOUP DAY– The Baileyville Knights will be hosting their 8th Annual Soup Day on Sunday, Dec. 2nd from 4:30 to 7:30 pm at the Church Basement. Come and enjoy delicious chili, chicken noodle, and vegetable soups and desserts. Free Will Donation!

NOTICE ANNUNCIATION JR/SR HIGH CCD– The Frankfort Ambulance Service would like to invite any individual, business or group to join in our 9th annual Frankfort Home Town Festival. In you are interested in donating a decorated Christmas tree, wreath, or any holiday decoration of any size or theme we would ask you to contact City Hall no later than Nov. 30th. On Dec. 1st there will be an Open House from 9:00 to 3:00 pm for bidding and refreshments. Questions contact Melody Tommer at City Hall 292-4240. All proceeds from this event will be donated to adopt several families for the Christmas holiday and for the local food pantry.

2019 CONVOCATION CONFERENCE “Enflame our Hearts: Be Disciples, Make Disciples”.

This conference will be held Oct. 3-5, 2019 at the Overland Park Convention Center. The Archbishop is requesting delegates (volunteers) from each parish in the Archdiocese to attend. Annunciation, St. Monica/St. Elizabeth, & St. Columbkille will need to send 9 delegates in addition to Fr. Anthony to this Convocation Workshop. If you are interested in attending, please contact Fr. Anthony or Marilyn in the Parish Office as we need to submit names to the Archdiocese by Nov. 5, 2018. Please prayerfully consider representing your parish!

Reflecting On Sunday's Readings

History is undaunting. It just continues on to its natural conclusion with or without our agreement. We have the privilege to contribute to and influence it, but not to alter its grand design. Because history can rightly be called his-story. The natural conclusion of history becomes in reality a supernatural outcome. His-story is one in which God determined to create and claim through love, a people of his own (1 Peter 2:9). Though Adam and Eve chose to disobey God and thus affected history, God in his love would not allow them to alter his-story's purpose. This week's Scripture readings portray three aspects of his-story; the promise, the prescription, and the preview. The promise: Imagine, some 100-200 years before Jesus was born, Daniel predicted the promise of eternal resurrection and eternal punishment. This week's first reading says, "those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake; some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt." During Jesus' time walking on earth, and from before Daniel's time to the present, people have wondered and debated about the end of life, resurrection and damnation. Many base their view of eternity on their own limited understanding. We who follow Christ base our views on the divine revelation of sacred Scripture, which holds unlimited promises. This passage in Daniel is a promise worth clinging to, for those who believe. The prescription: Many contemplate the end times with distress and fear. The real possibility of a life spent in "shame and everlasting contempt" looms evermore as a real possibility when they reflect on their life lived outside the will of God. Though the terror is real it is not of itself sufficient to either bring about change or remove the fearful debt they owe. Only God's powerful prescription can do that. Jesus, as Christ, became and becomes our high priest entering into God's presence offering his own life, death, and resurrection as the Sacrifice which can remove every stain of sin, making perfect and freeing from guilt and judgment those who believe. The preview: Jesus gives us a glimpse of his glorious and triumphant return. It does not matter that at times in history it appears that the forces of evil will overwhelm his people, the drama is not yet over until he returns and wraps up his-story. This week's Gospel passage gives us just a hint of the final outcome. Jesus and his people will be in the "win" column, while his opponents will experience the ultimate "loss." His will be a glorious victory and a triumphant return. The joy and jubilation his people feel will far surpass that which people experience when tearing down the goal post, or cutting down the net over the biggest upset of the season. Ours will be the upset of eternity—the inevitable and sure conclusion to his-story. "God reconciling the world to himself is also God reconciling himself to the world. In working out the plan of redemption, the Bible does not say that man became God, but that God became man. Further, he reconciled himself to the world by 'not counting their trespasses against them.' He forgave us not by ignoring our trespasses but by assuming our trespasses. 'For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.' God became what by right he was not, so that we might become what by right we are not. This is what Christians through the ages have called 'the happy exchange.' This exchange, this reversal, is at the very epicenter of the story of our redemption,"* Persuaded!: So, persuaded that these things are true we can with the Psalmist rejoice and say, "I keep the LORD always before me; because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved. Therefore my heart is glad, and my soul rejoices; my body also dwells secure. For thou dost not give me up to Sheol, or let thy godly one see the Pit. Thou dost show me the path of life; in thy presence there is fullness of joy, in thy right hand are pleasures for evermore." This is the blessed assurance of which we sing.

Celtic Christmas

It's hard to believe November is already here. The month that ushers in holiday cheer. Sorry Mr. Tom Turkey we have to interfere, But right after your special date, It's time for yummy cookies and candies displayed on pretty plates.

December 8th is the day, just 21 days away!

It's time for Celtic Christmas once again. Calling all you awesome St Columbkille cooks: Dust off your terrific holiday recipes and books To find just the right treats to sell by the pound, Much desired and coveted by crowds from all around. Let's all enjoy a day together having fun!

Before all the holiday hustle and bustle have begun!

Ladies today please pick up Celtic Christmas information in an envelope for you in the back of church.

Celtic Christmas Information: All ladies of the parish are asked to bring one batch of Christmas candy, a batch of Christmas cookies, and donate $8.00 toward the cost of groceries. Ladies with last names starting with M-Z are asked to donate one large pie as well. Please bring your cookies and candies to the hall by 8:00 a.m., Saturday, December 8th. If you are able to work, please sign the worklist sign-up sheet in the back of church. We are asking that the grocery donations be given to one of the committee members: Dala Suther, Carol McCormick, Jean Knoblauch, or Lois Roggenkamp by December 1st. Thanks in advance for your support in helping make the Celtic Christmas successful!

Are you interested in sewing a holiday table runner or mat?

A group of altar society members would like to get together and tackle this project in the hall and are wondering how many others might like to join us? Each participant will need to purchase their own material and bring along a sewing machine (if possible) and sewing tools needed to complete the project. We thought it might be fun to enjoy a day sewing together. If you are interested, please contact Lois Roggenkamp, pandldairy@gmail.com or (785-927-0282). Once interest is determined, we can better set a date that will work for all.

Senior Citizens of Blaine and Westmoreland meet the fourth Tuesday of each month at noon for a potluck followed by a meeting and cards. All are welcome.

Bulletin Contact Send information to be published in the bulletin to: stcolumbkille@bluevalley.net by Thursday at 4pm. Thank you Terri McClain
