The Most Holy Trinity

Growing as Disciples of Jesus, Making Disciples for Jesus

O. Most Holy Trinity

The mystery of the Most Holy Trinity is the central mystery of Christian faith and life. That statement is worth unpacking. All other mysteries of our faith flow from the revelation of this mystery.

It is revealed in this way: Many religions call God as Father because he is creator; we call him as Father first because of an intensely more profound reason; He is Father in relation to the Son. Jesus gives us this knowledge in the fullness of time. As we celebrated last week, the Spirit (first mentioned at the dawn of creation) is fully revealed on Pentecost, coming upon Apostles gathered with Mary in prayer. The Most Blessed Trinity is the most fundamental and essential teaching in the hierarchy of truths of faith. The whole history of the way and means by which the one true God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, reveals himself to men and reconciles and unites with himself those who turn away from sin. Christians are baptized in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit: not in their names, for there is only one God, the almighty Father, his only Son and the Holy Spirit. The Trinity is a mystery of faith in the strict sense, one of the mysteries that are hidden in God, which can never be known unless they are revealed by God. To be sure, God has left traces of his Trinitarian being in his work of creation and in his Revelation throughout the Old Testament. But his inmost Being as Holy Trinity is a mystery that is inaccessible to reason along or even to Israel's faith before the Incarnation of God's Son and the sending of the Holy Spirit.

These lines from CCC 232-260 are a few of the gems worth reading time and again. Because all salvation history and our path to heaven bear the image of the complete self-giving love of the Trinity, all teachings of the Church, from Marriage and the Eucharist, to fasting and almsgiving, flow from this faith. Please continue to strive to be the image of and likeness of God.

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY

"God our Father, We give thanks and praise for fathers young and old. We pray for young fathers newly embracing their vocation; May they find courage and perseverance to balance work, family, and faith in joy and sacrifice. We pray for our own Fathers around the world whose children are lost and suffering; May they know that the God of compassion walks with them in their sorrow. We pray for men who are not fathers but still mentor and guide us with fatherly love and advice. We remember fathers, grandfathers, great grandfathers who are no longer with us but who live forever in our memory and nourish us with their love. Amen"

MARRIAGE MINUTE The Gift of Fatherhood In our current culture, the gift of Fatherhood is certainly underappreciated and taken for granted. This weekend’s readings help us reflect on the creative action of God the Father, and his relationship with His Son, Jesus. We are reminded of the masculine virtues and dignity of Fatherhood! Good fathers:

- Give life to those around them.
- Love to provide abundantly for their families.
- Spend their strength on those they love.
- Stand firm and steady in adversity. Husbands, as you reflect on your fatherhood (physical and/or spiritual) today, thank your wife for giving you this great gift! Wives, take some time today to affirm your husband’s masculine, fatherly gifts!

BEGINNING EXPERIENCE ~ A Weekend Away for a Lifetime of Change. Serving the Widowed, Separated and Divorced; who are suffering the loss of a love relationship and may feel left out by their church, uneasy around married friends, unsure of themselves and uncertain about their futures. Helps grieving persons focus on their experience, deal with the natural grief process and offers an opportunity to turn the pain of loss into an experience of positive growth emerging from the darkness of grief into the light of a new beginning. The next Beginning Experience Weekend is June 28-30, at Precious Blood, Liberty MO. # Reflecting On Sunday's Readings

What a deal! It is better than a buy-one-get-one-free sale. With Christ, when you believe in him, you receive not only him but also the other two persons of the Trinity. What a deal! And the cost is solely born by Jesus, all we need to do is simply believe and receive him, and the Father and the Holy Spirit join him in indwelling our lives. In the early days of Christianity there was a lot of confusion regarding the definition of the Trinity, however the reality of the Trinity never was in doubt. The term "Trinity" is not specifically used in Scripture so it was necessary for the early church fathers to develop a statement summarizing this reality. During the first couple of centuries of Christianity, as good people endeavored to explain the Trinity, various opposing definitions were put forth. These definitions spanned the gamut of competing and sometimes contradictory beliefs. Finally, at the Council of Nicea (325 AD) the Church affirmed and clarified the doctrine of the Trinity in what we now refer to as the Nicene Creed, which we profess during Mass. The issue was never a question of either the reality or legitimacy of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit but of how they related and the part each played in salvation. We can see this in an early quote by Clement, Bishop of Rome around 100AD: "Do we not have one God and one Christ and one Spirit of grace, a Spirit that was poured out upon us?" (From Catholicism, by Richard P. McBrien) The early Church experienced the reality of the Trinity's involvement in their lives. We too should not simply have a head knowledge of this doctrinal truth but a daily reliance on the Trinity's presence in our lives. Sacred Scripture tells us of this indwelling: • "...I have been crucified with Christ and it is no longer I who live, but it is Christ who lives in me." (Gal. 2:19-20) • "Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, which you have from God, and that you are not your own?" (1 Corinthians 6:19) • "For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, 'I will live in them and walk among them, and I will be their God. ...'" (2 Corinthians 6:16) The Trinity is a reality that we carry within us as members of his body. The Trinity is with us where ever we go and in whatever we do, and the Trinity is an audience to all of our conversations. The Father, Son and Holy Spirit live in us to quicken or make alive our conscience, to guide and motivate us to make the right decisions and to do the right things, and to give us the power to break the chains of enslaving habits and natural inclinations that are contrary to God. What a deal!!! We get so much by believing in Jesus Christ and becoming his disciples. St. Ambrose explains it this way, "My Father and I will come and make our home with him. Let your door stand open to receive him, unlock your soul to him, offer him a welcome in your mind, and then you will see the riches of simplicity, the treasures of peace, the joy of grace. Throw wide the gate of your heart, stand before the sun of the everlasting light that shines on every man. This true light shines on all, but if anyone closes his window he will deprive himself of eternal light. If you shut the door of your mind, you shut out Christ. Though he can enter, he does not want to force his way in rudely, or compel us to admit him against our will. ..."

"Christ comes to this door and knocks; he knocks at these gates. Open to him; he wants to enter..." (The Liturgy of the Hours, III, page 469.) Let's open our hearts to Christ and affirm on this Most Holy Trinity Sunday that we will not simply allow the Trinity to be a doctrine we profess, but to become an indwelling relationship we cherish.
