

SACRED HEART CHURCH

13TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus said to the synagogue official, "Do not be afraid; just have faith." When they arrived at the house of the synagogue official, he caught sight of a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly.

So he went in and said to them, "Why this commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but asleep." - Mk 5:36bc, 38-39

SCRIPTURE READING REFLECTION

Jesus saves! The word save has many nuances of meaning. Do you think about how Jesus saves you personally? In today's Gospel in its original Greek, the verb save occurs thrice, but is not in our translation, translated the same each time. When Jairus, the leader of the Synagogue pushes aside the official religious opposition (his peers) to approach Jesus, he asks that his dying daughter "get well" (literally: be saved). The lady with the 12 yrs. of hemorrhaging condition (mentality of the time: blood was the source of life; therefore her life was wasting away) challenged the Jewish law and traditions that she was thereby forbidden to worship in the temple, or to be in close contact with other people, much less touch another because she was considered unclean, also pushed aside potential consequences in favor of contact with Jesus in order to "be cured". Jesus' response: "Your faith has saved you" (this time translated clearly "saved" rather than "get well" or "be cured" -also implied in the same word.) In St. Mark's Gospel immediately after giving a number of parables trying to describe the kingdom of God, Jesus performs a series of 4 miracles: He saves His Apostles from perishing in a storm at sea; He drives a demon out of a tortured foreigner: and as we see in today's Gospel He heals a woman whose life if ebbing away and raises up a dead girl. In each case Jesus teaches: have faith rather than fear, for He has power over even death. Note: both protagonists today did not allow what others might think to get in the way. In our day with accelerating cultural demands for conformity, might there not be a lesson here for us, if we really believe that it is Jesus who saves (whatever nuance we want to give to that word)?
