

In the sixth month of Elizabeth's pregnancy, God sent the angel Gabriel to Nazareth, a town in Galilee, to a virgin pledged to be married to a man named Joseph, a descendant of David. The virgin's name was Mary. The angel went to her and said, "Greetings, you who are highly favored! The Lord is with you." Mary was greatly troubled at his words and wondered what kind of greeting this might be. But the angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary; you have found favor with God. You will conceive and give birth to a son, and you are to call him Jesus. He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give him the throne of his father David, and he will reign over Jacob's descendants forever; his kingdom will never end." "How will this be," Mary asked the angel, "since I am a virgin?" The angel answered, "The Holy Spirit will come on you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. So the holy one to be born will be called the Son of God. Even Elizabeth your relative is going to have a child in her old age, and she who was said to be unable to conceive is in her sixth month. For no word from God will ever fail." "I am the Lord's servant," Mary answered. "May your word to me be fulfilled." Then the angel left her. Luke 1:26-38

Dear brothers and sisters,

"Thanks be to God for his indescribable gift!" –

2 Corinthians 9:15

Christmas might be slightly different this year, but that does not mean we have to lose the season's spirit or meaning. Luckily, the reason we celebrate is a timeless story that will help carry us through any obstacles we may face. If we think about it, the very first Christmas took place amid chaos. Mary and Joseph had to leave their home and travel miles, only to be turned away when trying to find shelter. Eventually, they welcomed their son in a manger filled with hay and animals. Amid the gloominess brought about by the pandemic, we hear from prophet Isaiah "upon those who dwelt in the land of gloom; a light has shone" (Isa 9:2). After his December 6 Angelus, Pope Francis reminds us that no pandemic or crisis can extinguish the light of Christmas, the light that is Jesus who reveals to us God's love and who makes infinite goodness shine on the world. As we grapple with our fears and anxieties, the scripture tells us not to be afraid, for unto us has been born a savior who is Christ the Lord.

We should look upon the challenges of this year as an opportunity to embrace the spirit and joy of Christ's birth once again. And while such a celebration may not look as it has for in recent years, there are things we can do meaningfully in the given situation to embrace the spirit of Christmas. Let us take advantage of this time to refocus on the true meaning of the season- Christ's birth. Thus, today we are given much-needed hope to help us deal with the difficulties and challenges. But we are invited to be channels of hope to those who most need it as we strive to overcome the numerous inequalities and injustices in our world and that the pandemic has revealed. Perhaps this pandemic Christmas might be a good time for us to allow the meaning of Christmas indeed to enter our hearts and transform our lives.

May the Divine Child Jesus shine in your hearts and lives, now and always.

I wish you a joy-filled Christmas and Happy New Year.
