Gospel Meditation

Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

by Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS (LPI)

Active and contemplative. At work and at rest. These are dynamics we all face in our lives, and if we're honest, we might not always balance perfectly! In this Sunday's gospel, our daily tensions play out in two sisters. Mary "sat beside the Lord at his feet listening to him speak."

All Are Welcome

No matter your present status in the Catholic Church;
no matter your family or marital status;
no matter where you are in the practice of faith;
no matter your self image;
you are welcome and loved in the parishes of the Rutland-Wallingford Catholic Community.

Martha, on the other hand, is "burdened with much serving." This, as it turns out, is not necessarily "the better part."

All of us reading this engage in some sort of labor. We have different trades or careers. We have responsibilities as family members, some of which may take up most of our time. In the time of scripture, showing hospitality to guests was one of the most important values in society. Our work is important. Jesus himself spent decades as a carpenter. So what's the problem with Martha? Martha is burdened, anxious, and worried. Not only that, she resents her sister's choice. "Tell her to help me," she demands of Jesus.

How easy it is to get very busy doing good things. We need to provide for our families and plan for retirement. We need to make sure children are clothed, fed, and educated. Our committees, ministries, and sports schedules need to stay on track. However, without a balance of work with rest, without contemplation in the midst of our action, we will miss the point. While many parts are required for our life in the world to function, the better part is our relationship with God. This week, make time in your busy schedule to sit at Jesus' feet. Maybe this is 20 minutes with scripture, participating in a daily Mass, or a quiet walk alone in the park. Receive what Christ wants to speak to you.

Live the Liturgy

Inspiration for the Week

by Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS (LPI)

We all have a tremendous amount of responsibility. Every day presents more challenges and lists of things we need to accomplish. Life, however, is more than just to do lists. Life is more about who we are and how present we are to what is happening around us. Our relationship with God is the same. It is not just about doing the right things or showing up in the right places, even though these are certainly important. What is more important is the quality of our presence in God's presence. How attentive are we to his revelations of presence to us? If life's demands, however noble they be, overly consume us, we will miss being surprised by God's presence: in creation, in sacrament, in our brothers and sisters, and in ourselves. Listen carefully to Martha and Mary's story today.

Everyday Stewardship

Recognizing God in Your Ordinary Moments

by Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS (LPI)

As I get older, what really matters to me changes. I remember being in high school and having to wear certain brands and to look a certain way. Now, many days I simply wear what is clean! I used to collect certain things that I no longer seem to care about much now. I wanted certain things for my children, and now I am happy if they are happy, regardless of what happens. I have changed political stances a few times. I even follow different sports teams today from those I did when I was younger. Time, circumstance, wisdom, and even disillusionment all play a part in my ever-changing attitude toward what really matters in life.

All has changed except my faith. My faith is the one constant in my life. It is the most precious of all the gifts God has given to me. Life hasn't been a constant high, and there have been several low valleys along the way. It has been my faith that has seen me through all times, good and bad. If anything has changed, it is that Jesus matters more today than he did yesterday.

What really matters to you? What's the main thing in your life? I have witnessed once-strong disciples place politics, wealth, career, and family ahead of Jesus over time. All those things are enticing, but they are things that change. Even your family grows and changes as the years go by, as does your relationship with them. The one thing that does not change is God. God is the same yesterday, today, and forever. It can bring great peace to your life when what matters to you is the one thing that remains constant. The main thing is to keep the main thing, the main thing. That main thing is Jesus.

And from Our Pastor...

As this is an important topic, I am publishing last week's letter again, in case any parishioners did not see it.

Dear Parishioners and Friends:

Two developments in the last six or so months have convinced me that we as parishes need to rethink our Mass times and availability. Currently, we offer eight Mass time slots, four at Christ the King, and two each at IHM and St. Patrick's. There are three Masses run simultaneously with another Mass (4 PM at IHM with 4 PM at St. Patrick, 7:30 AM at CTK with 8 AM at IHM, and 10 AM each at both CTK and St. Patrick), meaning we always need two priests.

The first development is the Mass count we did in May. Our average numbers for those three weeks were as follows: Christ the King - 693, IHM - 199, and St. Patrick - 120. Thus 1,012 people a week come through our doors at one of our eight Masses. These are some of the highest numbers in the diocese and thank God for that! It truly is a blessing to see so many people on our weekends. It's also a reminder that all we do as a parish centers around the Sunday Eucharist, the point at which the highest number of people come through our doors. At the same time, 8 Masses for 1,000 people seems a lot. Our largest Masses are the 4 PM IHM, 7:30 and 10 AM at CTK, and the 10 AM at St. Patrick. Many of our other Masses are not half full. It gives us pause to think about our schedule and how we best serve our people.

The other development is more personal and has to do with coverage of these Masses. Under our current system we need two priests here every Saturday and Sunday. This is starting to prove difficult. It is getting harder and harder to find coverage when one of us needs to be away, gets the flu, is on vacation, or has an emergency calling us away. This last possibility happened to me recently and I almost needed to cancel some Saturday Masses. I am pretty sure we will need to cancel some Masses on a weekend in August in which we cannot find coverage. While Fr. Tinney is a big help to us, he also fills in at other parishes.

With this letter I am announcing a process for a new Mass schedule to be implemented soon. Our new schedule will reduce our Masses from 8 to 6 every weekend, and none of those six Masses will be simultaneous. The new schedule will allow one priest to cover it in the event of an emergency or coverage cannot be found.

This week I am explaining the rationale for the changes that are coming; in the weeks to come I will give some options. It's important that we all see the demographic shifts and reasons for changing up what we're doing. It's not about preserving "my" Mass; it's more about seeing the future and how we can face it together. Fuller churches make for better celebrations of the Eucharist. That's where we're heading.

Peace,
Fr. Bernie

Come and Spend Time with the Lord!

every Friday from noon to 2:30 PM.*

NEWS FROM The Inland See

July 20–26, 2019

FOR THE DIOCESE OF BURLINGTON

“Love, Naturally!” is the theme of this year’s Natural Family Planning Awareness Week, a national educational campaign of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) to celebrate God’s design for married love and the gift of life and to raise awareness of Natural Family Planning (NFP) methods. “NFP,” as the U.S. bishops have written, is supportive of Catholic beliefs about married love because it “respects the God-given power to love a new human life into being” (see, U.S. Bishops, Married Love and the Gift of Life).

The dates of Natural Family Planning Awareness Week (July 21–27, 2019) annually highlight the anniversary of Humanae vitae (July 25) as well as the feast of Saints Joachim and Anne (July 26), the parents of the Blessed Mother.

Resources and ideas for celebrating and promoting NFP Awareness Week in your area can be found on the USCCB’s NFP Program website: usccb.org/nfp/awareness-week/index.cfm. For more information, contact nfp@usccb.org.

Additional information about natural family planning can be found on the Diocese of Burlington website at vermontcatholic.org/ministries-programs/marriage-family/natural-family-planning. Contact Terri McCormack, marriage and family life coordinator for the Diocese of Burlington, for more information.

If you are between the ages of 13 and 30, you are invited to submit a 300-500-word essay about how the Church can attract, engage and retain young people. Several essays will be selected for publication in the fall issue of Vermont Catholic Magazine and writers will have the opportunity to discuss their ideas with Bishop Coyne.

Please send entries to: editor@vermontcatholic.org with the subject line “Young Disciples Essay” by August 1.
