Cycles of Faith – 6th Sunday of Easter

“Remain in my love,” and, “I call you friends,” are powerful words that are found in John’s Gospel. Most of us probably have them committed to memory or have at least heard them proclaimed dozens of times. They are words that can easily become trite and quickly glossed over without fully pondering and digesting their profound beauty. When we take the time to immerse ourselves in them, they can radically change our lives and our relationships. They can open up new doors of adventure and hold countless possibilities for meaning. The essence of love and friendship are things that can easily be taken for granted. They have always been there and are a significant part of our lives. Many would say that they could not live without love and friendship, and they put a great deal of care into preserving, deepening and sustaining them. Love and friendship share a mutual relationship with each other that deserves more reflection.

Where does love come from? We can consider relationships that have not succeeded and conclude that they were somehow due to our “failures in love.” In doing so, we assume that human beings are the ones responsible for love, its success and also its failure. While our weakness, emotional composition and sinfulness can easily impact our ability to love, its origin is not human. God is love. God is love’s author and origin. When we love, it is God who loves in and through us. It is because of this divine closeness that Jesus is able to call us friends! It is not because of anything we have done but simply because of who we are. Realizing and contemplating this awesome reality becomes a game changer across the board. It gives us reason to clear the table of anything that can adversely affect the way we love so that we can open the door for its author to shine forth.

Coming upon this truth is what leads folks like St. Francis of Assisi to leave that which is comfortable and worldly and live a radical life. They relate with the love of God that radiates in and through all living things and appreciate their sacredness. It was having an intimate experience of God’s love and friendship that propelled St. Francis and others to embrace simplicity, act nonviolently, pursue humility, love enemies, care for the earth and open up avenues for true justice. Understanding this profound truth will also help us find peaceful solutions to world’s problems, restore relationships with our sisters and brothers, bring the grace of loving stewardship to creation and heal many wounds. Once we begin to see how wonderfully holy all of life really is, we discover joy. We lose our need for fear, develop a fierce fortitude, act prudently and seek justice. There is great power in love because it comes from God. It will never fail. It also enjoys the company of two other friends who are eager to become our friends as well: faith and hope. These are just as important to have and to share.

New Diocesan Protocols for the Churches

These are the new protocols the Diocese is now allowing. Those in red are the ones we are limiting at this time and are at the discretion of the Pastor.

- Contact Tracing (people signing in when arriving for Mass) NO LONGER NEEDS TO TAKE PLACE. We will continue to count the number of folks attending so we can be sure we do not go over our capacity. (33 at Our Lady of Mount Carmel and 77 at St. Jude.)
- Allowing up to 5 singers, physically distanced and wearing masks (when not singing), only when the space where the musicians will be permits the necessary physical distancing (MINIMUM 6 feet between and all around each singer).
- Allowing for instrumentalists, physically distanced and wearing masks, except for wind and brass instruments (still prohibited).
- Allowing for missalettes/hymnals in the pews again. Materials may be handed out before/after Mass by ushers. At OLMC-- Missalettes will be handed out to parishioners and then returned to the back of the church at the end of Mass. At St. Jude – Missalettes are available in the lobby at this time. Please take home with you at the end of Mass.
- Opening of chapels, cry-rooms, etc. with capacity limits posted at door.
- Resumption of normal duties for altar servers (masked, physically distanced where possible, etc). At this time we are limiting the use of Altar Servers.
- No more “communion” after Mass – in parking lot or at door. Communion needs to be connected to Mass, except in the ordinary cases of pastoral visits to the sick, homebound, etc. as indicated in ritual books. Pastors may request permission to continue this practice if they feel it’s necessary, but it’s on a case-by-case basis. Note: in this phase, OUTDOOR MASSES are still permitted at the discretion of the pastor.
