“Idolatry is committed, not merely by setting up false gods, but also by setting up false devils; by making men afraid of war or alcohol, or economic law, when they should be afraid of spiritual corruption and cowardice.”

—G.K. Chesterton, Illustrated London News, Sept. 11, 1909

While many of our contemporaries are deeply affected by violence, fear of the future or the anguished question about the meaning of life, Christians must be more than ever the ardent and vigorous witnesses to the hope that fills them. May young people not be afraid to let Christ take hold of them and to find in his word the energy that will help them build up their interior life and lead them to join their brethren in building a new world based on mutual love and forgiveness! I strongly urge each of them: wherever you live, in your families, your schools, your places of work and recreation, always be servants of the Gospel of hope!

Dear friends, especially you who have been wounded by life's sorrows, be certain that Christ is close to simple hearts and that he calls each person to true happiness; proclaim by your life that it is great to know that one is loved and appreciated for oneself, and that every person is always a brother or a sister to be welcomed and loved!

St. John Paul II, Message of the Holy Father John Paul II to Brother Roger of Taizé, 30 November 1999

Brothers and sisters:
We are always courageous,
although we know that while we are at home in the body
we are away from the Lord,
for we walk by faith, not by sight.
Yet we are courageous,
and we would rather leave the body and go home to the Lord.
Therefore, we aspire to please him,
whether we are at home or away.
For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ,
so that each may receive recompense,
according to what he did in the body, whether good or evil.

2 Corinthians 5:6-10

PARISH INFORMATION

The Bishop welcomes parishioners back to Mass and parish life as he lifts the general dispensation to attend Mass from the days of obligation on the Feast of Corpus Christi.

For your information, there will be no restrooms available this weekend.

Jami is currently working from home; however, calls are routed to her cell phone. You are able to contact her by calling the parish office at 327-9573.

Jami will be on vacation and the parish office will be closed from June 22- June 24.

Thank you for all your prayers and support. There appears to be a delay in our mail service at times. We encourage those who can to give in person at church.

FRANCISCAN CORNER

“Lord, make me an instrument of your peace.
Where there is hatred, let me sow LOVE”.

There is so much distrust, and hate in our world today. The story of the Wolf of Gubbio has a lesson for us. The wolf destroyed other animals and terrorized the townspeople. Francis went out in peace to meet the wolf. The wolf rushed at Francis, and Francis confronted him armed with the sign of the Cross. Peace came to the village of Gubbio that day. How can we help bring peace to our world? Use the same weapon Francis had—the sign of the Cross. As we make the sign of the cross on ourselves, let us do it mindfully, remembering its power. The Sign of the Cross has power to save. Daily, let us root out those vices from our own hearts as we go out to all the world and tell the good news! (K Moffatt, osf)

EX-CATHOLIC

is the fastest growing religion in the world.

Especially with youth.

IT DOESN'T HAVE TO BE THAT WAY

80% of Catholics who stop practicing their faith do so before their 23rd birthday. Most while in college.

Don't be a statistic..

Avoid the most common errors, fallacies, and delusions.

This is your LIFE. Be prepared.
