Weekly Adoration

Wednesday & Friday

5:00—6:00 p.m.

"Having spoken of the holiness of God, and the participation of creatures in that holiness, we now come to the consideration of man's proper response to God's holiness: adoration. Just as the concept of holiness is many-faceted, so also the concept of adoration. Adoration, in the first place, is creation's highest act of worship. It is giving to God what belongs to him alone, he who alone is holy. It is the supreme form of reverence, glory and honor. But adoration is also creation's attempt to reach out, with the help of God's invitation and grace, to become holy in the presence of God. So we must now consider these two aspects of adoration: as an act of reverencing God, and as a means of sanctification for creatures."

Opus Sanctorum Angelorum

"Certainly amongst all devotions, after that of receiving the sacraments, that of adoring Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament holds first place, is most pleasing to God, and most useful to ourselves. Do not then, O devout soul, refuse to begin this devotion; and forsaking the conversation of men, dwell each day, from this time forward, for at least half or quarter of an hour, in some church, in the presence of Jesus Christ under the sacramental species. Taste and see how sweet is the Lord."

- St. Alphonsus Liguori

Bless the LORD, O my soul;
and all my being, bless his holy name.
Bless the LORD, O my soul,
and forget not all his benefits.
He pardons all your iniquities,
heals all your ills.
He redeems your life from destruction,
crowns you with kindness and compassion.
Merciful and gracious is the LORD,
slow to anger and abounding in kindness.
Not according to our sins does he deal with us,
nor does he requite us according to our crimes.
As far as the east is from the west,
so far has he put our transgressions from us.
As a father has compassion on his children,
so the LORD has compassion on those who fear him.

Ps 103:1-2, 3-4, 8, 10, 12-13

FRANCISCAN CORNER

One of the cardinals who met Francis was so edified by his words and example that he went to the Pope and said, "I have found a most perfect man who wishes to live according to the form of the holy gospel. I believe that the Lord wills, through him, to reform the faith of the holy church throughout the world."(Francis of Assisi, early Documents: ch 12, par 48) Perhaps the Lord is calling us, the people of God of eastern Washington, to help reform the faith of the church in our part of the world. Don't miss this opportunity to share your insights, hopes and dreams for the future of our church. (https://dioceseofspokane.org/synod)
