Prayer for Life

Father and maker of all,
you adorn all creation
with splendor and beauty,
and fashion human lives
in your image and likeness.
Awaken in every heart reverence for the work of your hands, and renew among your people a readiness to nurture and sustain your precious gift of life.
Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

For that matter, there is nothing I do not write down as loss compared with the high privilege of knowing Christ Jesus, my Lord; for love of him I have lost everything, treat everything else as refuse, if I may have Christ to my credit. In him I would render my account, not claiming any justification that is my own work, given me by the law, but the justification that comes from believing in Jesus Christ, God's gift on condition of our faith. Him I would learn to know, and the virtue of his resurrection, and what it means to share his sufferings, molded into the pattern of his death, in the hope of achieving resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already won the prize, already reached fulfilment. I only press on, in hope of winning the mastery, as Christ Jesus has won the mastery over me.

Philippians 3:8-12

FRANCISCAN CORNER

We start April as we always do—with April Fools' Day. Did you know that Francis of Assisi acted like a fool 800 years ago? They used to call him "pazzo", Italian for crazy. He did odd things like preaching to the birds because people wouldn't listen to him, or scolding the birds if they weren't paying attention. Francis knew the Christian way was not the "way we always did it". He knew that at times, we allow the world to tell us who we ought to be. He knew the way of Christ is countercultural. So, let's not let the world tell us who we ought to be. Let's accept "the loss of all things that we may gain Christ and be found in him." Let's be fools for Christ not just on April 1, but every day. Sr. Joanne Clavel
