P.P. = Planned Parenthood 123 E. Indiana, St. Gianna Group meets to pray the rosary in front of P.P.

Today the Lord also shows us his glorious wounds and his heart, an inexhaustible source of light and truth, of love and forgiveness.

The Heart of Christ! His "Sacred Heart" has given men everything: redemption, salvation, sanctification. St Faustina Kowalska saw coming from this Heart that was overflowing with generous love, two rays of light which illuminated the world. "The two rays", according to what Jesus himself told her, "represent the blood and the water" (Diary, p. 132). The blood recalls the sacrifice of Golgotha and the mystery of the Eucharist; the water, according to the rich symbolism of the Evangelist John, makes us think of Baptism and the Gift of the Holy Spirit (cf. Jn 3: 5; 4: 14).

Through the mystery of this wounded heart, the restorative tide of God's merciful love continues to spread over the men and women of our time. Here alone can those who long for true and lasting happiness find its secret.

"Jesus, I trust in you". This prayer, dear to so many of the devout, clearly expresses the attitude with which we too would like to abandon ourselves trustfully in your hands, O Lord, our only Savior.

You are burning with the desire to be loved and those in tune with the sentiments of your heart learn how to build the new civilization of love. A simple act of abandonment is enough to overcome the barriers of darkness and sorrow, of doubt and desperation. The rays of your divine mercy restore hope, in a special way, to those who feel overwhelmed by the burden of sin.

Mary, Mother of Mercy, help us always to have this trust in your Son, our Redeemer. Help us too, St Faustina, whom we remember today with special affection. Fixing our weak gaze on the divine Savior's face, we would like to repeat with you: "Jesus, I trust in you". Now and for ever. Amen.

Support for Those Grieving the Loss of a Loved One
GriefShare is a 13-week support group program that offers advice and encouragement on different grief-related subjects through videos presented by trained counselors and people who have grieved the loss of loved ones. Each participant receives a workbook with short scripture-based daily meditations that they are encouraged to use to help deepen their relationship with God and to receive His healing help. The weekly sessions feature 35–40-minute videos followed by a time of sharing. GriefShare group leaders are trained as facilitators, but they are not professional counselors. They are simply people who accompany others who walk the journey of grief as they themselves have. For More Information call: Arlette Popiel (509) 979-2255 GriefShare (a 13-week scripture-based support group for those grieving the loss of a loved one) will be held at Immaculate Heart Retreat Center 6910 South Ben Burr Road Tuesdays from 1-3 pm May 10th through August 2nd. For info or registration call Arlette 509-979-2255

FRANCISCAN CORNER

“Lord, ...where there is doubt, let me sow faith.” Did Francis of Assisi ever have doubts about his faith? Yes, he did. He wandered the hillsides of Assisi trying to figure out if he was right not to continue his journey to the Crusades. In the caves of Assisi, he questioned whether he really did hear the voice of God from that cross. But doubt is an opportunity for deeper faith. Wrestling with God is an authentic relationship with God. From his doubt, Francis grew in deep faith and so he could pray, “Where there is doubt, let me sow faith.” In times of doubt and in times of faith, let our prayer be the same as was Thomas, the same as was Francis. “My Lord and my God!”
