Ministry CORNER

August 7th

Hi all!

Today is the Parish Picnic at Williamson Ranch at Hillcrest on Lone Tree. It is across the street from Walmart. We will start at 1:00 - barbecue at 3:00.- Mass at 5:30. The parish and ministries are providing food and water. Youth Ministry will have games for the children.

Come and join us for a great parish community event. Don't forget to bring a chair or a blanket and extra drinks if you want them.

I've been asked about CCD registration. It will be held on August 31, 2022 from 2pm-6pm outside the Parish Center. I'll give you more information next week.

This week I want to share with you our own Father Kevin who is in the United States for school, but has so kindly stepped up to help Father Ramiro and our parish as he saw a need during covid.

Father Kevin Ezech Chinwe was born December 13, 1969 at Ama-Egbu village, Ede-Oballa, Nsukka Local Government Area, Enugu State, Nigeria, West Africa. He is the oldest child in a family of seven. His sister, following him, and his father passed away. His mother has four sons and two daughters remaining.

Father's education began in Ede-Oballa. At the age of 13 he entered a Junior Seminary and graduated with a West African School Certificate in 1988. He then entered the senior seminary in 1989. He was ordained a priest in August 1998.

Since Father's ordination he was a teacher and formator in the diocesan junior seminary for three and a half years. He was also, the Assistant Cathedral Administrator for two years and a parish priest (pastor) in 6 parishes. He also had a variety of other administrative positions in the diocese such as Vicar for priests, secretary of the Diocesan Public Relations Committee, chairman of the Priests Welfare Board, chaplain of the Catholic Women's Organization and so much more.

While Father Kevin is in the United States, he is considered a priest in the Catholic Diocese of Nsukka, Nigeria. He is studying at Santa Clara University at the Jesuit University campus in Berkeley. He will complete his current program in 2023 and will then have a one year CPT experience. This will give him a licentiate and a Master's Degree in Sacred Theology. Following that he plans to apply to a doctorate program. He anticipates being in the US for 6-8 years.

He loves to tell stories and tries to share one with the parishioners at the end of each Mass he celebrates.

Father shared with me that he is "very happy at Most Holy Rosary Church. I see genuine Christian love personified and showcased in the lives of most parishioners. Their lives' audio, to a large extent, synchronizes with the video. It is a multi-cultural parish with one heart devoted to the service of God and humanity."

I would suggest you take the time to chat with Father. He has a very interesting, well rounded, and very involved background. We are blessed to have him with us. He is not assigned to us as he is still assigned in Nigeria, but as I said earlier he is very willing to help as he can.

Father Ramiro will be back next week. I hope to be able to catch him so I can finish up this series on the parish staff.

Do check out the bulletin for our needs for Harvest Faire. Our next meeting is Saturday, August 13th at 10:00 outside the Parish Center. I hope lots and lots of you will attend. We are getting close to the big weekend.

Wishing all of your great week.

Blessings,

Jackie

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Lectionary: 117

First Reading - Wis 18:6-9

The night of the passover was known beforehand to our fathers, that, with sure knowledge of the oaths in which they put their faith, they might have courage. Your people awaited the salvation of the just and the destruction of their foes. For when you punished our adversaries, in this you glorified us whom you had summoned. For in secret the holy children of the good were offering sacrifice and putting into effect with one accord the divine institution.

Responsorial Psalm - Ps 33:1, 12, 18-19, 20-22

R. (12b) Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own.

Second Reading - Heb 11:1-2, 8-19

Brothers and sisters: Faith is the realization of what is hoped for and evidence of things not seen. Because of it the ancients were well attested. By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to a place that he was to receive as an inheritance; he went out, not knowing where he was to go.

By faith he sojourned in the promised land as in a foreign country, dwelling in tents with Isaac and Jacob, heirs of the same promise; for he was looking forward to the city with foundations, whose architect and maker is God.

By faith he received power to generate, even though he was past the normal age —and Sarah herself was sterile— for he thought that the one who had made the promise was trustworthy. So it was that there came forth from one man, himself as good as dead, descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and as countless as the sands on the seashore.

All these died in faith. They did not receive what had been promised but saw it and greeted it from afar and acknowledged themselves to be strangers and aliens on earth, for those who speak thus show that they are seeking a homeland.

If they had been thinking of the land from which they had come, they would have had opportunity to return. But now they desire a better homeland, a heavenly one. Therefore, God is not ashamed to be called their God, for he has prepared a city for them.

By faith Abraham, when put to the test, offered up Isaac, and he who had received the promises was ready to offer his only son, of whom it was said, "Through Isaac descendants shall bear your name."

He reasoned that God was able to raise even from the dead, and he received Isaac back as a symbol.

Alleluia - Mt 24:42a, 44

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Stay awake and be ready! For you do not know on what day your Lord will come.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel - Lk 12:32-48

Jesus said to his disciples:

"Do not be afraid any longer, little flock, for your Father is pleased to give you the kingdom. Sell your belongings and give alms. Provide money bags for yourselves that do not wear out, an inexhaustible treasure in heaven that no thief can reach nor moth destroy.

For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be. "Gird your loins and light your lamps and be like servants who await their master's return from a wedding, ready to open immediately when he comes and knocks.

Blessed are those servants whom the master finds vigilant on his arrival. Amen, I say to you, he will gird himself, have them recline at table, and proceed to wait on them.

And should he come in the second or third watch and find them prepared in this way, blessed are those servants.

Be sure of this: if the master of the house had known the hour when the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into.

You also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come." Then Peter said, "Lord, is this parable meant for us or for everyone?" And the Lord replied, "Who, then, is the faithful and prudent steward whom the master will put in charge of his servants to distribute the food allowance at the proper time?

Blessed is that servant whom his master on arrival finds doing so. Truly, I say to you, the master will put the servant in charge of all his property.

But if that servant says to himself, 'My master is delayed in coming,' and begins to beat the menservants and the maidservants, to eat and drink and get drunk, then that servant's master will come on an unexpected day and at an unknown hour and will punish the servant severely and assign him a place with the unfaithful. That servant who knew his master's will but did not make preparations nor act in accord with his will shall be beaten severely; and the servant who was ignorant of his master's will but acted in a way deserving of a severe beating shall be beaten only lightly. Much will be required of the person entrusted with much, and still more will be demanded of the person entrusted with more."

XIX Domingo Ordinario

Leccionario: 117

Primera Lectura- Sab 18, 6-9

La noche de la liberación pascual fue anunciada con anterioridad a nuestros padres, para que se confortaran al reconocer la firmeza de las promesas en que habían creído.

Tu pueblo esperaba a la vez la salvación de los justos y el exterminio de sus enemigos. En efecto, con aquello mismo con que castigaste a nuestros adversarios nos cubriste de gloria a tus elegidos.

Por eso, los piadosos hijos de un pueblo justo celebraron la Pascua en sus casas, y de común acuerdo se impusieron esta ley sagrada, de que todos los santos participaran por igual de los bienes y de los peligros. Y ya desde entonces cantaron los himnos de nuestros padres.

Salmo Responsorial 32, 1 y 12. 18-19. 20 y 22

R. (12b) Dichoso el pueblo escogido por Dios.

Segunda Lectura - Heb 11, 1-2. 8-19

Hermanos: La fe es la forma de poseer, ya desde ahora, lo que se espera y de conocer las realidades que no se ven. Por ella fueron alabados nuestros mayores.

Por su fe, Abraham, obediente al llamado de Dios, y sin saber a dónde iba, partió hacia la tierra que habría de recibir como herencia. Por la fe, vivió como extranjero en la tierra prometida, en tiendas de campaña, como Isaac y Jacob, coherederos de la misma promesa después de él. Porque ellos esperaban la ciudad de sólidos cimientos, cuyo arquitecto y constructor es Dios.

Por su fe, Sara, aun siendo estéril y a pesar de su avanzada edad, pudo concebir un hijo, porque creyó que Dios habría de ser fiel a la promesa; y así, de un solo hombre, ya anciano, nació una descendencia numerosa como las estrellas del cielo e incontable como las arenas del mar.

Todos ellos murieron firmes en la fe. No alcanzaron los bienes prometidos, pero los vieron y los saludaron con gozo desde lejos. Ellos reconocieron que eran extraños y peregrinos en la tierra. Quienes hablan así, dan a entender claramente que van en busca de una patria; pues si hubieran añorado la patria de donde habían salido, habrían estado a tiempo de volver a ella todavía. Pero ellos ansiaban una patria mejor: la del cielo. Por eso Dios no se avergüenza de ser llamado su Dios, pues les tenía preparada una ciudad.

Por su fe, Abraham, cuando Dios le puso una prueba, se dispuso a sacrificar a Isaac, su hijo único, garantía de la promesa, porque Dios le había dicho: De Isaac nacerá la descendencia que ha de llevar tu nombre. Abraham pensaba, en efecto, que Dios tiene poder hasta para resucitar a los muertos; por eso le fue devuelto Isaac, que se convirtió así en un símbolo profético.

Aclamación antes del Evangelio- Mt 24, 42. 44

R. Aleluya, aleluya.

Estén preparados, porque no saben a qué hora va a venir el Hijo del hombre.

R. Aleluya.

Evangelio - Lc 12, 32-48

En aquel tiempo, Jesús dijo a sus discípulos: "No temas, rebañito mío, porque tu Padre ha tenido a bien darte el Reino. Vendan sus bienes y den limosnas. Consíganse unas bolsas que no se destruyan y acumulen en el cielo un tesoro que no se acaba, allá donde no llega el ladrón, ni carcome la polilla. Porque donde está su tesoro, ahí estará su corazón.

Estén listos, con la túnica puesta y las lámparas encendidas. Sean semejantes a los criados que están esperando a que su señor regrese de la boda, para abrirle en cuanto llegue y toque. Dichosos aquellos a quienes su señor, al llegar, encuentre en vela. Yo les aseguro que se recogerá la túnica, los hará sentar a la mesa y él mismo les servirá. Y si llega a medianoche o a la madrugada y los encuentra en vela, dichosos ellos.

Fíjense en esto: Si un padre de familia supiera a qué hora va a venir el ladrón, estaría vigilando y no dejaría que se le metiera por un boquete en su casa. Pues también ustedes estén preparados, porque a la hora en que menos lo piensen vendrá el Hijo del hombre".

Entonces Pedro le preguntó a Jesús: "¿Dices esta parábola sólo por nosotros o por todos?" El Señor le respondió: "Supongan que un administrador, puesto por su amo al frente de la servidumbre, con el encargo de repartirles a su tiempo los alimentos, se porta con fidelidad y prudencia. Dichoso este siervo, si el amo, a su llegada, lo encuentra cumpliendo con su deber. Yo les aseguro que lo pondrá al frente de todo lo que tiene. Pero si este siervo piensa: 'Mi amo tardará en llegar' y empieza a maltratar a los criados y a las criadas, a comer, a beber y a embriagarse, el día menos pensado y a la hora más inesperada, llegará su amo y lo castigará severamente y le hará correr la misma suerte que a los hombres desleales.

El servidor que, conociendo la voluntad de su amo, no haya preparado ni hecho lo que debía, recibirá muchos azotes; pero el que, sin conocerla, haya hecho algo digno de castigo, recibirá pocos.

Al que mucho se le da, se le exigirá mucho, y al que mucho se le confía, se le exigirá mucho más".
