CHRIST IS RISEN AND IS REALLY
LIVING AMONG US

A few weeks ago, reports appeared in various media alleging that most Catholics don't believe what the church teaches about the real presence of Christ in the Holy Eucharist. This led to blog, internet, magazine articles and videos by various bishops and priests accepting the polling data at face value and offering explanations and solutions. FB articles also spurred great debates among Catholics of varying opinions.

So what are the facts? First of all, those conducting the poll demonstrated an inadequate understanding of Catholic teaching by the manner in which they posed the question. In essence it asked whether the person making the response believed that the Body & Blood of Christ was really present in the Eucharist or just present in a symbolic way. Practicing Catholics, by about a two thirds majority, responded really present. But when you aggregated all respondents who said they were Catholics, about two thirds responded symbolically. In Catholic theology the words sacramental and symbolic may be used interchangeably because the church teaches that the sacraments are sacred symbols instituted by Christ to give grace. In everyday American English, the word real is used to connote something physical. But the Church doesn't teach that Jesus Christ is present physically in the Sacrament of his Body & Blood but that he is really present in a sacramental manner. For those few Catholics who have even a slight grasp of the theology of St. Thomas Aquinas, the term transubstantiation means that the underlying substance of bread and wine are transformed into the Body & Blood, Soul & Divinity of the Risen Christ, while the appearance (shape, texture, color, taste) of bread and wine remain. The church has never claimed that if you put the consecrated sacrament under a microscope or subjected it to a chemical analysis, there would be a detectable change. As St. Thomas put it: What our senses fail to fathom, we must grasp with faith's consent.

Our focus, I submit, should not be on philosophical or theological arguments about how the Risen Christ is really present in the Eucharist, but on the effect of his living in and among us in our day to day lives. Christ is really present in his Saving Word, in the people gathered in his name, in the ministry of the church, and most especially in the Holy Eucharist. But the proof of his presence is to be found in the ways that we love one another, forgive one another, and reach out to come to Christ's help in those most in need.

Our Sincere Condolences

We extend our deepest sympathy to the children of Nadine Atkins on the occasion of her death this past Sunday. Our sympathies extend to the many parish family members who have been her friends for decades. She and her late husband, Bill, were charter members of St. Andrew's. May angels lead her into Paradise; and where Lazarus is poor no longer, may she have eternal rest.

Pray for Us

ACUTELY INFIRM

Discipleship & EvangelizationDISCIPLESHIP FORMATION
CLASSES FOR YOUTH
SUNDAYS 10:20 – 11:25

Some call this “Sunday School”, others say “RE” or “CCD”. What we are actually called to do, however, is to help parents make disciples of their children. This is THE mission of the church. It is a challenging endeavor but one which is well worth the effort. If your children are not yet enrolled, please call the office and ask for Tommie Tran or Ann Grover.

SNACKS FOR LIFE NIGHTS

Here's an easy and quick way to support our ministry to our youth in grades 6-12. You can drop off pre-packed/single serve items in the box provided in the commons. Some suggested items:

Cookies, Chips, Fruit Snacks

UPCOMING YOUTH ACTIVITIES*YOUTH/SCOUT RETREAT

Oct 11 -13

Youth in grades 6-12 are invited to join together at Our Lady of Guadalupe Youth Camp. Cost is $30 and is due now along with an offsite consent form. Please contact Mama Dee in the youth office or Ann Grover in the parish office to sign up or for more information.

SAFE ENVIRONMENT

Do you have a child who will be attending discipleship formation classes? Do you use the nursery? Do you want to mentor or work with any of the youth of our parish? We are always looking for parents or other volunteers who can help with classes, lead small groups with the youth, chaperone youth events or volunteer in the nursery.

A principal requirement for any of this is certification through the safe environment program. This certification involves attending a safe environment workshop, completing a volunteer application so a background check can be run and references can be checked, and reading & agreeing to a code of conduct. Even if you have been helping for years, the video and the code of conduct were revised in 2014 and if you haven't seen the new video or agreed to the updated code of conduct, you will lose your certification. Please plan on attending the next training session on

Sunday, Oct 6 at 10:30 am in the McConnell room.

Call Ann Grover at 799-3334 to register for this training.

The Fiscal Year is off to a very poor start in terms of contributions. We are $30,000 down from this time a year ago.

Is it possible that some members have lowered their support of the parish to pay off their pledges to the One Church, Many Disciples campaign?
