Worship Notes Et Cetera

While watching the communion procession from my seat in the sanctuary on New Year's Eve, I was surprised to notice how many people do not partake of the Blood of Christ from the chalice. While it is true that we receive the whole Christ—Body & Blood, Soul & Divinity—whether we partake of one species or both, it is clearly a fuller sign to accept Christ's invitation to Take & Eat, Take & Drink. Of course, it is prudent to refrain from partaking of the Cup of Christ's Blood if we are suffering from a cold or flu or have cold sores that we don't wish to spread to others. Fear of contracting a contagious illness during cold and flu season is an understandable reason for passing by The Cup. I just want to encourage people to give prayerful thought, all other things being equal, to both Take & Eat, Take & Drink.

Since Fr. Gabriel has come to assist us during my recovery, many people have no doubt observed some minor differences in that way that each of us leads the people in worship. Fr. Gabriel likes to sing certain parts of the Mass and does so because he believes it adds a greater degree of solemnity. As you know, I love to sing, but I am more satisfied by the fact that all of us together sing nearly all the parts of the Mass. This is largely a matter of personal preference and in no way alters the substance of the way in which the Eucharist is offered.

Speaking of Fr. Gabriel, he gave an absolutely inspiring homily about the importance of the Blessed Virgin on the Feast of Mary, The Mother of God. I've long since discovered that I don't have to understand every word he says in order to get the message. But I do have to listen with greater attention since understanding involves both speaking and listening.

Some in the media made a big deal about an incident involving Pope Francis and a woman standing near the front of the rope line in St. Peter's Square. As he approached her, he had begun to move in a different direction when she reached out, grabbed his hand, and pulled her toward him. I noticed on the video that this pulling occasioned a visible measure of pain which led him to react by slapping her on the hand when she wouldn't let go. One journal headlined: Pope Slaps Pilgrim. Give me a break. The pope is only human, and he reacted as many of us would. But the next day, he apologized during his homily and admitted he had given a bad example by appearing to be so impatient. It takes a humble man to make such an apology.

ALTAR SERVERS

If you are presently an altar server who does not know how to be the book and cross bearer, there will be a short training session following the 11:45 Mass on Sunday, Jan. 5th.

St. Gregory's Abbey Day of Reflection

Saturday, Jan. 11th
8:30—3:00

Fr. Simeon Spitz, OSB will present the next Day of Reflection at St. Gregory's Abbey in Shawnee entitled: Enter the Gallery – A Parable of Jesus as Curated

The parables of Jesus contain some of His most challenging teaching. They challenge our self-secured comfort, and sometimes, they're just challenging to understand! Each parable is a distinct unit, a unique work of art within the gallery of its Gospel. Come and learn how the evangelists have shaped these mini portraits like curators in a museum in order to give us clues to their meaning. In this hands-on encounter with one of the most difficult parables in the Bible, enter the gallery and practice with some of the tools Biblical scholars use to engage with these challenging texts.

To register, e-mail retreats@monksok.org or call (405) 878-5656. Early bird registration cost is $30, or $35 at the door. Lunch is included.

If you believe you may have lost a personal item in the church, please stop by the Gift Shop to see if it may be among the things turned in. Unclaimed items will be donated to charity.

Jesus said, "Ask and you shall receive." So, I'm asking for Six sopranos (women who can sing the melody line) to join the choir as soon as possible. This will involve a commitment to sing at the 9 am Mass and take part in Tuesday night rehearsals.

I can hardly express sufficient gratitude for all the cards, notes, and gifts that I received this Christmas. I am grateful as well for the many people who are continuing to pray that I experience a full recovery from the injuries I experienced last June. As you can see for yourself, they are working in the progress I have been making in getting around the church. My goal was to be able to walk with a cane and to begin a little walking on my own by Christmas. Thanks for helping me attain that goal. My next goal is full recovery by Pentecost or before.

Stewardship & AdministrationSacrificial Giving Annual Renewal

This year our Stewardship & Administration Commission has strongly recommended placing renewed emphasis on giving online or through automatic bank drafts. These methods allow everyone the opportunity to get the full benefits that come from tithing whether or not they are actually able to be in our church every Sunday. Think about it.

	Most Recent	FYTD	PFYTD

PREPARING FOR BAPTISM*SUNDAY
JAN 19TH*10:15 AM
IN ROOM 7

There was a time when all Catholics believed that the primary reason to baptize an infant was to make it possible for them to make it to Heaven. It has taken 50 years so far to convince them that the primary reason for doing so is to make them adopted children of God, siblings of Jesus Christ, and dwelling places of the Holy Spirit. Baptism also makes us a holy and priestly people, making us eligible to offer God true worship.

We conduct this mandatory one session program for parents who are members of our parish planning to baptize a child for the very first time. First time godparents are also welcome, but participation is optional. There are other expectations of parents who are going to promise to raise their child in the faith of the Church. Following this class, parents must contact Father Jack at least 30 days before the date you are requesting to see if there may be any special circumstances in scheduling the actual baptism. Baptisms are normally not scheduled during Lent which begins February 26th, so this is the time to attend if you are planning a baptism before Easter. Child care is available upon request during the session. Call Ann Grover at 405-754-5303 for more information or to register for the class.
