A Prayer for God's Protective Care during Hurricane Season

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children.
The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order and returned to its former quietude.

You are still the Master of land and sea.
We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control; the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, and spread chaos and disaster.

During this hurricane season we turn to You,
O loving Father.

Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with passing of time.
O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our beloved Mother,
we ask you to plead with your Son on our behalf,
so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son

to reach the heavenly Jerusalem, where a stormless eternity awaits us. Amen.

Thank you!

Scripture Readings for Sunday, October 2nd

First Reading: 2 Kings 5:14-17 Psalms. 95:1-2, 6-7, 8-9 Second Reading: 2 Timothy 2:8-13

Gospel: Luke: 17:11-19

thanks to God?" Then he said to him, "Stand up and go; your faith has saved you."

As Jesus continued his journey to Jerusalem, he traveled through Samaria and Galilee. As he was entering a village, ten lepers met him. They stood at a distance from him and raised their voices, saying, "Jesus, Master! Have pity on us!" And when he saw them, he said, "Go show yourselves to the priests." As they were going they were cleansed. And one of them, realizing he had been healed, returned, glorifying God in a loud voice; and he fell at the feet of Jesus and thanked him. He was a Samaritan. Jesus said in reply, "Ten were cleansed, were they not? Where are the other nine? Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?" Then he said to him, "Stand up and go; your faith has saved you."

Reflection

A true disciple must live in an attitude of gratitude, not entitlement. We must not think of the blessings in our lives as things we deserve or have earned. When we live in gratitude, we understand that God has given us gifts to share with others. Jesus heals all ten lepers in the gospel. And he tells them that their faith was essential to this healing. In fact, he does not even touch them, as he often does when healing people. Instead he just tells them to go to the priests. They believe his word and are made clean. But nine of them do not seem to realize that this healing is a gift from God. Only the foreigner, who worships differently than the Jews, returns to give thanks. In a similar way, it can be easy for us to forget that we receive gifts from God every day. And we can take our faith for granted. This can be especially true for cradle Catholics. We go to Mass on Sunday without really thinking about what we are doing. We think that we are deserving of salvation because of the good things we do. But salvation is a free gift from God, it is not earned. So let us thank God for it every day.

Hurricane Ian

Our Diocese is preparing, through Catholic Charities, a response to the needs of the victims of hurricane Ian in Florida. Please, know that a collection to assist the recovery efforts of our brothers and sisters in Florida, will be carried out the week-end of October 15-16. There will be a second collection passed at all Masses. Please put any donations toward the hurricane recovery process in the "Second Collection" and not in the first. Together with your support and prayers, we will be able to help our neighbors respond, recover, and rebuild.

HOLY SAVIOR CHRISTMAS 2022

We will sponsor our annual Christmas Angel Program and Christmas help for our elderly parishioners. Gifts promoting creativity, education, and family participation will be provided for children 12 years or younger. The deadline for family interviews for gifts is Friday, October 21. Interviews are scheduled through the church office. Documentation requirements are proof of residency in Holy Savior parish, picture identification, utility bill, recent food stamp printout, and proof of income. Our elderly parishioners, who qualify, will receive a monetary donation to assist in personal needs. If you are interested in purchasing gifts for children, adopting a family, or making a financial donation for either group, please call the church office for more information.

PUBLIC SQUARE ROSARY RALLY

Please join us Saturday, October 15th for the 2022 Public Square Rosary Rally, at noon at the cross on Hwy. 1 in Lockport. We will be part of more than 20,000 rallies nationwide asking God to save America through the Rosary of His Most Holy Mother. For more information, please contact Monica or Vorace Loupe at 665-1752, 438-2532 or vmLoupe@bellsouth.net.
