What is the "Sunday Obligation"?
When we talk about the "Sunday Obligation", we generally mean that Catholics have a duty to participate at Mass on Sundays and certain other Holy Days, except when prevented by a legitimate reason.

"The Sunday celebration of the Eucharist is at the heart of the Church's life. We Christians go to Sunday Mass to encounter the Risen Lord, or better still to allow ourselves to be encountered by him, to hear his Word, to nourish ourselves at his table, and thus to become the Church, that is, his mystical living Body in the world.... Without Christ we are condemned to be dominated by everyday weariness, with its worries, and by fear of the future. The Sunday encounter with the Lord gives us the strength to experience the present with confidence and courage, and to go forth with hope. For this reason we Christians go to encounter the Lord on Sunday, in the Eucharistic celebration."

- Pope Francis, Wednesday Audience of December 13, 2017

Stewardship Moments - July 10, 2022 - 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Jesus said to him, 'Go and do likewise.'" LUKE 10:37

This was Jesus' command at the end of the Good Samaritan story. Did you know that the Samaritans and Jews despised each other? The moral of the story is to love our neighbor. That means loving someone you may not know, or someone that looks different than you, or someone that has different beliefs than you, or someone that you don't like. All without expecting anything in return.

World Day for Grandparents and Elderly is July 24, 2022.

The theme for this year's celebration is "In Old Age They Will Still Bear Fruit" (Ps. 92:15). The theme is meant to emphasize how grandparents are a gift both to society and the Church. This new worldwide celebration in the Universal Church calendar is a momentous achievement for Grandparents and the Elderly and will hopefully reassure them that they are loved and that they are needed.

"The fruit of the spirit is love, joy, peace, patient endurance, kindness, generosity, faith, mildness and chastity. Since we live by the spirit, let us follow the spirit's lead." Galatians 5:22, 23a, 25

Lord, show me the path I must follow.

Let your Spirit guide me to my true home.
