STATEMENT OF AFFILIATION

Frassati Catholic High School is operated by a Board of Directors under the auspices of the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston. It is administered by the Dominican Sisters of St. Cecilia Congregation, Nashville, TN. The Dominican Sisters devote themselves to Christian education of youth in institutions of learning, exercising this apostolate under the authority of the local bishop.¹ As an independent Catholic school, Frassati Catholic High School is under the governance of the Board of Directors. Frassati Catholic is responsible to assume the unique charism of the Dominican Order and the school's patron, Saint Pier Giorgio Frassati, fostering the Gospel spirit of truth and charity while seeking to relate all human culture to the news of salvation.² Frassati Catholic High School is accredited by Texas Catholic Conference of Bishops - Education Department (TCCB-ED).

It is the responsibility of the faculty, staff, students, and parents to respect the unique character and mission of the school and to work together in order that Frassati Catholic may deepen and reflect more perfectly its ideals. Any contract entered into in the school's name is based on this understanding.

PHILOSOPHY

Catholic Education

"Go therefore and make disciples of all nations. Baptize them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Teach them to carry out everything I have commanded you. And know that I am with you always, until the end of the world!" (MT 28: 19-20)

With these words, Christ sent forth his apostles on a mission of evangelization. Catholic education promotes and fosters the teachings and values of the Catholic Church as professed by the Magisterium (teaching office) of the Catholic Church. Catholic education is an expression of the Church's mission of salvation and an instrument of evangelization: to make disciples of Christ and to teach them to observe all that He has commanded.³ Through Catholic education, students encounter God, who in Jesus Christ reveals His transforming love and truth.⁴ Christ is the foundation of Catholic education;⁵ He is the Master who journeys with students through school and life as genuine Teacher and perfect Man.⁶ As a faith community in communion with the Church, all its members give witness to Christ's teachings as set forth by the Magisterium and especially as articulated in the Catechism of the Catholic Church. With a Christian vision, Catholic education fulfills its purpose of the critical transmission of culture in the light of faith⁷ and integral formation of students in body, mind, and spirit.⁸

Evangelization. Our school assists in the salvific mission of the Catholic Church by preparing all students to seek and proclaim the Good News through education and formation in the Catholic faith.⁹

Encounter with Christ. Through daily interaction, prayer, liturgies, and participation in the sacraments,¹⁰ all members of the school community encounter Christ and His transforming love and truth and in so doing are drawn to proclaim and fulfill His calling for them and for the Christian community.¹¹ Through this encounter, students are moved toward the fullness of their humanity, becoming more aware of the gift of Faith given them at Baptism,¹² to mature into adults who will bear witness to the Mystical Body of Christ, respect the dignity of the human person, provide service, lead apostolic lives, and build the Kingdom of God.¹³

Community of faith. As members of a Catholic educational community, we are all called to model confident and joyful public witness in both word and deed and to live by the moral demands of the Gospel¹⁴ in order to model for students the integration of faith and life and to assist in the development of virtues characteristic of the Catholic Christian.¹⁵ We do this by living in communion with the Church and its teachings. Believing in the mercy and forgiveness of Christ, we acknowledge our sinful and fallen nature and look to Christ and to the Sacraments He has given us as sources of grace and strength, particularly when striving to live according to the Ten Commandments given to us in the Old Testament and the Beatitudes given to us by Christ in the New.

Authority for teaching. We profess that all authority for our moral and spiritual teaching is based on the Gospels of Jesus Christ¹⁶ and the traditions of the Catholic Church as taught by its ordinary and extraordinary Magisterium, and especially as contained within the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

Transmission of culture. Permeated by an evangelical spirit of authentic freedom and charity,¹⁷ our school provides a unique setting where everyone is aware of the living presence of Jesus Christ as evidenced through the daily rituals of prayer and Sacraments, harmonious and friendly relationships,¹⁸ and curricular selections where faith and culture are intertwined in all areas of school life.¹⁹ Cultivating within students their intellectual, creative, and aesthetic faculties in order to develop the right use of reason, promote a sense of values, and encouraging just attitudes and prudent behavior,²⁰ our school environment strives to hand down the cultural patrimony of previous generations, in particular a Christian anthropology which teaches that man was made in the image and likeness of God.

Dominican Education

St. Dominic embodies the Dominican philosophy of study, the spirit in which study should be done. “Study was always important to Dominic. At fourteen, he entered the prestigious school at Palencia where he studied liberal arts and theology.”²¹ Though his intellectual gifts set him apart, his studies did not render him unaware or insensitive to the suffering around him. In response to a terrible famine, Dominic sold all his books and gave the money to the poor. In this selfless act of Dominic, we see the effect that true study should have. In the person of St. Dominic, we see that Dominican study is not about selfish pursuit of excellence; rather, study should lead to a life of charity, of self-giving love.

This spirit of study is at the very heart of the Order of Preachers, which was founded for preaching and the salvation of souls. Dominic sent his friars to study so that they could then put their knowledge at the service of others, showing others the way to true happiness. In the words of St. Thomas Aquinas, the Dominican contemplates in order to give to others the fruit of contemplation. If the fruit of study is kept to oneself, it necessarily spoils; but if the fruit is shared with others, its delights multiply.

Through zealous study, students in our Dominican schools should acquire a certain excellence of mind which allows them to apply right reason to each academic discipline as well as to all aspects of the culture that surrounds them. Study, particularly of the liberal arts, should impart a deep sense of the inter-relatedness of things.

Dominican study is ordered not to the mere acquisition of information but to contemplation: that is, to gaze on the beauty, goodness, and truth of God’s creation, so as to glimpse the reflection of God’s own grandeur and to draw closer to our eternal destiny. Study should be life-giving, leading to the joy of being seized by the beauty of the truth, and ultimately, of an encounter with Truth Himself.

Saint Pier Giorgio Frassati, a Third Order Dominican, is a modern day example for our students of Dominican study. He devoted himself to the study of mining engineering so that he could place his knowledge at the service of miners; he studied the Church’s teaching, particularly Pope Leo XIII’s encyclical Rerum Novarum, so as to intelligently engage in the public square; he allowed himself to be captured by the beauty of Dante’s Divine Comedy, committing entire passages to memory; and most of all, he cultivated a love for the study of Sacred Scripture as well as the writings of St. Catherine of Siena and St. Paul, finding there the strength to go “to the heights” (Verso l’alto)!

VISION

Through a robust college-preparatory curriculum rooted in the Catholic faith, Frassati Catholic High School will prepare students to walk on the path of true happiness. Inspired by our patron Saint Pier Giorgio Frassati, Man of the Beatitudes, graduates of Frassati Catholic will be true moral, intellectual, and civic leaders who lead others on the path to beatitude. Frassati Catholic graduates will be agents of change in all sectors of society, building a culture that embodies the truth about the human person who is destined to share in God’s own divine life.

SCHOOL OF THE BEATITUDES

“The Beatitudes respond to the desire for happiness that God has placed in the human heart” (Catechism of the Catholic Church 1725). The word beatitude means happiness, and by giving us the beatitudes, Jesus was responding to the deepest desire of the human heart—the desire to attain everlasting happiness. Attaining the happiness that God intends for us can be very difficult in a fallen world, where many things can appear to be sources of happiness but actually are not. True happiness is found only when we act in accord with our God-given human nature; in other words, we are happy when we are doing what we were created to do. “The Beatitudes are the paradoxical promises that sustain hope,” helping us to navigate through the sufferings of this life and to entrust our happiness to God rather than try to create it ourselves on our own terms (Catechism of the Catholic Church 1717). The goal of Frassati Catholic High School is for every person involved with the high school—faculty, staff, parents, students, benefactors, and friends—to know the happiness for which God has created them.

Beatified by Pope John Paul II in 1990, who gave him the unique title Man of the Beatitudes, Pier Giorgio illumines for us the way of beatitude, that is, the way of true happiness. His life shows that happiness does not depend on the absence of trials, as he was able to be joyful even in the midst of tremendous suffering. His life eloquently teaches the wisdom of the beatitudes: that happiness does not depend upon wealth, fame, success, or even health but only in receiving God’s love and then pouring out that divine love in concrete ways.

Pure of heart and ardent in charity, Saint Pier Giorgio Frassati learned to see reality—to see the human person and the world as they truly are. That is to say, to see the world as God sees it. Such sight, such wisdom, is the ultimate purpose of Catholic education. It is attainable by prayer and study through the lens of the Beatitudes: both in the classroom through the intellectual pursuit of truth in all its dimensions as well as outside of the classroom through the service-learning program, athletics, and other extracurricular activities.

Christian Anthropology Statement

Frassati Catholic High School seeks to respond joyfully and confidently to the Church's call for the New Evangelization:²² that is, the Church's call to find new ways to transmit the perennial truth of faith in a culture with ever-changing preoccupations and focal points. We offer our students an excellent Catholic education and a strong Christian formation by "building a culture that embodies the truth about the human person who is destined to share in God's own divine life."²³

The Congregation for Catholic Education notes that, "the Catholic school sets out to be a school for the human person and of human persons. 'The person of each individual human being, in his or her material and spiritual needs, is at the heart of Christ's teaching: this is why the promotion of the human person is the goal of the Catholic school'."²⁴ Fundamentally flawed ideas about the human person are pervasive in our current global culture. These false ideas, derived from secular relativism, have led our young people to more questions than ever about identity and happiness. At Frassati Catholic, we strive to articulate a vision of the human person that is rooted in the teachings of the Catholic Church which come to us through Divine Revelation and Sacred Tradition. We know that these truths will respond to the deepest questions of personal and sexual identity as well as lead our students to true and lasting happiness.

Frassati Catholic's policies, procedures, and curriculum are grounded in a Christian anthropology founded on the following principles:

- that each human person is unique and unrepeatable, an integrated unity of body and soul
- that human nature is an integrated unity of body and soul received from the Creator
- that the human person is created male and female
- that biological sex is not accidental but inscribed into our very being

Acknowledging that each person is created in the image and likeness of God ensures that the dignity and respect owed to each person are safeguarded and that safe environments are fostered and upheld. Therefore, it follows that these expectations are in place at Frassati Catholic High School:

- Employees, students, family members, and visitors are addressed and referred to in a manner consistent with their genetic biological sex at birth, including the use of pronouns and personal names.
- Employees, students, and visitors use facilities (restrooms, locker rooms, etc.) consistent with their genetic biological sex at birth.
- Employees, students, and visitors wear the school uniform or follow the dress codes that are consistent with their genetic biological sex at birth.

²² Reading the signs of the times, Pope Saint John Paul II called for a "New Evangelization," and in 2010, Pope Benedict XVI continued this call by establishing the Pontifical Council for Promoting the New Evangelization.

See Ubicumque et Semper, the apostolic letter establishing the Pontifical Council for the New Evangelization.

²³ Frassati Catholic High School Vision

²⁴ The Catholic School on the Threshold of the Third Millennium, #9, Congregation for Catholic Education, 1997.

- Students and visitors participate in extracurricular activities (such as dances, athletics, clubs, etc.) that are distinguished by sex in a manner that accords with their genetic biological sex at birth.

In principle and in practice, Frassati Catholic High School is committed to building a culture that "embodies the truth about the human person."²⁵ This commitment to culture is understood not only as a future task, which awaits the "graduates [who] will be agents of change in all sectors of society"²⁶; rather, it is the present task and privilege of each member of the school community to create a culture on our campus that is consistent with all of the teachings of the Catholic Church, including those related to the dignity and identity of the human person and human sexuality, thus creating an environment where each member of our community can flourish as a beloved daughter or son of God.

Technology Statement

Frassati Catholic High School endeavors to cultivate a prudent and holistic approach to technology use. Throughout history technology has helped to form the human experience of work and leisure. In our time this same shaping force has been exerted with increasing speed and intensity.²⁷ Such rapid advancement and expansion presents “a great opportunity, but it also requires greater attention to and awareness of possible risks.”²⁸ In keeping with our Dominican charism, we seek to provide media and technology education that is an “education in the formation of freedom”: freedom to choose the authentic good.²⁹ Such formation allows us to navigate between two extreme views that portray technology as either a perfect opportunity or an unwarranted risk.

The opportunity is apparent: current technology can indeed benefit us in terms of information, communication, and connectedness. And yet emerging research gives ample reason for schools and families to continue to exercise caution about technology use. Studies show strong correlations between cellphone/technology use and the following:

- lower grades and test scores³⁰
- attention fragmentation³¹

In the Ward study, researchers randomly assigned college students to leave bags/phones outside the lab, keep their phones with them in bags/pockets, or put their phones on their desks. Tasks related to fluid intelligence and working memory were best executed by the students whose phones were not in the room. As Haidt comments, “the mere presence of a phone damages their ability to think”

- sleep deprivation³²
- increased internalizing disorders (anxiety and depression) amongst adolescent males and females³³
- increase in “failure to launch” amongst adolescent males³⁴
- increased relational aggression and sociogenic illness in adolescent females³⁵
- decreased quality and intimacy of social interactions³⁶

It is clear that the pervasive grip of “smart” technology and the increasing influence of artificial intelligence are forces to be reckoned with. But it is also clear that we cannot fail to engage with technology as a tool which can be wielded for good, and not just for ill.³⁷ We desire that our students become “agents of change in all sectors of society,” so we educate not only with a view to the end, but with a view to the intelligent and creative discernment of means for research, design, communication, and evangelization.

To this end, our formation and policies aim at the integration of the tools that are capable of supporting authentic formation: formation to know the truth, to love goodness, and to grow in the freedom necessary to pursue those goods together. Relevant and intentional use of technologies

Dear Brothers and Sisters, I ask you to introduce into the culture of this new environment of communications and information technology the values on which you have built your lives. In the early life of the Church, the great Apostles and their disciples brought the Good News of Jesus to the Greek and Roman world. Just as, at that time, a fruitful evangelization required that careful attention be given to understanding the culture and customs of those pagan peoples so that the truth of the gospel would touch their hearts and minds, so also today, the proclamation of Christ in the world of new technologies requires a profound knowledge of this world if the technologies are to serve our mission adequately.”

aid in the school's greater mission to develop young men and women within a vision of the full human person rooted in the Beatitudes and destined to share in the divine life of God.

Generative Artificial Intelligence (AI)

Generative Artificial Intelligence (AI) technologies create text, images, audio, videos, and other media based upon prompts or inputs. As an educational institution, there are times when students will engage in study and discussions about AI, its uses, and the implications of its use on the human person. However, Frassati Catholic is committed to the interpersonal intellectual and human formation of our students and to that end, students are expected to engage in the learning process and complete and submit original work.

Reading, researching, brainstorming, writing, revision and reflection are essential components of educating the human person. Therefore, AI should not be used in assignments where critical thinking, original thought, composition or argumentation is being assessed. This includes but is not limited to drafts, outlines, essays, florilegium entries and reflections. In addition, original work should never be put into AI with the intent of augmenting the student's attempts.

SCHOOL/PARENT PARTNERSHIP

Frassati Catholic High School extends to students of all faiths the principles of Christian life in the Roman Catholic faith and pledges to teach the fullness of the Catholic faith as articulated by the Magisterium (teaching office) of the Roman Catholic Church. Frassati Catholic exists to provide an environment of academic excellence where students are invited into a lifelong friendship with Jesus Christ, to grow in holiness as stewards of God's creation, and to share the Good News of Christ's love with others.

As the primary educators of their children, parents/guardians freely make the choice of a Catholic education for their child(ren). Registration and acceptance at Frassati Catholic High School constitutes an agreement by the parent/guardian to accept and abide by the rules and regulations of the institution and to support its philosophy of education.

A cooperative relationship between the Frassati Catholic High School personnel and parent(s)/guardian is essential for the overall education of a student. It is critical that a cooperative relationship be maintained through constructive dialogue with the parent(s)/guardian.

If a parent(s)/guardian refuses to abide by the policies outlined in this Handbook or by word or action is unsupportive of the school's goals or otherwise fails to meet his/her obligations under Frassati Catholic High School policies, the Principal may require the parent/guardian to withdraw his/her daughter(s)/son(s) from Frassati Catholic High School. In all matters the members of the Frassati Catholic High School community will be held to a standard of respect in all communication and interaction.

HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS

The inspiration for Frassati Catholic High School was conceived over a decade ago in the hearts and minds of families in north Houston who desired a Catholic high school education for their children. With the nearest Catholic high school located on average more than 45 minutes away, the need for a Catholic high school to serve the growing Catholic population of the northern communities became increasingly evident.

August 2007	The North Houston Catholic High School (NHCHS) committee was revitalized with the mission to build a Catholic co-educational college preparatory school in north Houston. The Catholic segment of this population then supported 12 parishes, six parish-based primary schools and one private Catholic primary school. Together these area Catholic primary schools enrolled more than 2,000 students.
October 2008	Cardinal Daniel DiNardo formally approved of the NHCHS plan.
June 2009	The NHCHS Committee established the Land Rush Club in order to solicit contributions to purchase land.
December 2009	With contributions of more than $2.2 million, the committee purchased a 63-acre site on Spring Stuebner Road.
March 2010	The NHCHS committee, committed to a curriculum of academic excellence, began discussions with the Dominican Sisters of Saint Cecilia Congregation in Nashville, TN.
October 2010	The Dominican Sisters of the Saint Cecilia Congregation accepted the invitation of the Cardinal to administrate and teach in the high school.
July 6, 2011	Cardinal Daniel DiNardo announced that the name of NHCHS was to be Frassati Catholic High School, named after Saint Pier Giorgio Frassati.
October 1, 2011	Cardinal Daniel DiNardo officiated at the land blessing of Frassati Catholic High School.
August 25, 2012	Bishop George Sheltz officiated at the Groundbreaking celebration.

SHIELD

The shield of Frassati Catholic High School is a symbolic representation of our mission, our patron Saint Pier Giorgio Frassati, and our Dominican Heritage.

School Colors: Cobalt Blue symbolizes the heavenly goal of all Christians. Gray represents iron, which as the servant of metals, symbolizes the right use of this world's tools in a spirit of service.

Mountain: Symbol of Saint Pier Giorgio Frassati, who led his friends in scaling both the Italian Alps as well as the inner heights of virtue and valor. His motto in all things was Verso l'alto: "To the heights."

Compass: Represents the eight Beatitudes which rightly inform the intellect and guide the conscience. When Pope John Paul II beatified Pier Giorgio, he bestowed upon him the unique title, "Man of the Beatitudes."

Black and White Dominican Cross: Represents both the Dominican heritage of Pier Giorgio Frassati, a member of the Third Order Dominicans, and the heritage of the Dominican Sisters of St. Cecilia.

Saint Pier Giorgio Frassati, Patron Saint

Feast Day: July 4

Saint Pier Giorgio was known for his joy and jokes. A talented athlete, who dedicated himself to his studies and the care of the poor, Pier Giorgio inspired his friends to lives of virtue by the sheer strength of his own example. His life illustrates that happiness does not depend on the absence of trials and suffering, as this Man of the Beatitudes found happiness in the midst of tremendous suffering. His life illuminates the essence of holiness: that holiness is first about receiving God's love and then pouring out that divine love in concrete ways.

Born to a wealthy family, Frassati lived frugally and gave his money—and several times even the shoes or coat he was wearing—to the poor. His father was an agnostic, an Italian senator, and the founder of a liberal newspaper. Frassati's parents disapproved of his religious devotion, but this did not keep him from his daily Mass and rosary, and sometimes entire nights of Eucharistic adoration. He was often scolded for being late for meals, but he never revealed that his tardiness was due to feeding the poor, running errands to buy them medicine, or finding widows and their children a place to stay.

Always cheerful in spite of his difficult life at home, Frassati attracted a group of friends that jokingly called themselves “The Sinister Ones.” They often played practical jokes or enjoyed fun trips, and wrote coded letters to anyone who had been missing. They especially enjoyed trips into the mountains. Pier Giorgio was a leader in the group and made sure that no matter where they went, attending Mass was included. In spite of having many friends, Frassati found school tedious and difficult but pushed himself to do well out of a sense of family honor. He found greater joy in sports such as hiking, horseback riding, snow skiing, and mountain climbing. He took as a personal motto the phrase verso l’alto!—in English, “to the heights!” which for him meant not only the summit of a mountain, but heaven.

At age 21 Frassati became a Lay Dominican and took the name “Fra Girolamo” after Savonarola, a famous fiery Dominican preacher of social reform during the Renaissance. Many of the poor only knew Frassati by this religious name. When he died suddenly at age 24, his family was shocked. They had not noticed that he was seriously ill; he had contracted polio most likely from those he served. During his short illness, his family had been upset with him for not showing greater concern for his grandmother who was also dying. His last act could have been one of self-pity, but instead he took care in his final moments to write a note about a sick man. Pier Giorgio knew that this man had no one else to care for him and wanted to make sure someone brought him his medicine. His family was doubly shocked when at the news of his death, thousands of poor people surrounded their mansion for his funeral. His parents had no idea that their son had cared for so many people.

Saint John Paul II said of him: “Pier Giorgio shows us in real life what it really means for a young layman to give a concrete answer to the Lord’s invitation, Come follow me.” At the beatification of Frassati, Pope John Paul II proclaimed this young man a model for young and old alike: “He testifies that holiness is possible for everyone and that only the revolution of charity can enkindle the hope of a better future in the hearts of people.”

In his short life, Pier Giorgio Frassati accomplished much good by living a life rooted in the Beatitudes. Frassati Catholic High School will be a place where students will be challenged to live this same kind of life – rooted in virtue and the Beatitudes.

St. Dominic, Founder of the Dominican Order

Feast Day: August 8

St. Dominic de Guzman, founder of the Dominican Order, was born in 1170 to a noble family in Caleruega, Spain. During his adolescence, he studied in Palencia where he not only proved himself to be a talented student but also showed himself to be a man of deep compassion. On one occasion he sold his books, which were both rare and expensive in the 12th century, and gave the money to relieve the starving poor of the city. After completing his studies, Dominic became a priest at the cathedral of Osma. He would have quietly lived out his life there, but providence intervened in the person of the Bishop of Osma who asked Dominic to accompany him on a diplomatic trip. This trip took them through southern France where they were stunned by the spread of falsehood. People were adopting Albigensianism which considered all material things to be evil.

Dominic responded with compassion and a burning desire to teach them the true path to happiness. He took this desire and translated it into practical action by organizing a new religious order dedicated to preaching and the salvation of souls. Dominic understood the necessity of a deep and comprehensive education for his preachers, so he immediately sent his first followers to universities all over Europe.

The motto of the Dominican Order, to contemplate and to give to others the fruits of contemplation, reveals an essential aspect of Catholic education: teachers and students strive for academic excellence so as to put their knowledge and wisdom at the service of others. Dominic died on August 6, 1221, and he was canonized in 1234. He is the patron saint of astronomers.

PRAYERS

Angelus

For centuries the church has recited the Angelus, especially at noon, in honor of the Incarnation.

The angel of the Lord declared unto Mary;
And she conceived of the Holy Spirit.
Hail Mary...

Behold the handmaid of the Lord.
Be it done unto me according to your word.
Hail Mary...

And the Word was made flesh,
And dwelt among us.

Hail Mary...

Pray for us, O holy Mother of God,
That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray.

Pour forth, we beseech you, O Lord, your grace into our hearts, that we, to whom the incarnation of Christ, your Son, was made known by the message of an angel, may by His passion and cross be brought to the glory of his resurrection, through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

Regina Caeli (prayed at noon from Easter until Pentecost)

Queen of heaven, rejoice! Alleluia.

For He whom you did merit to bear. Alleluia.

Has risen as He said. Alleluia.

Pray for us to God. Alleluia.

Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary. Alleluia.

Because our Lord is truly risen. Alleluia.

Let us pray. O God, through the resurrection of your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, you were pleased to give joy to the world; grant, we beseech you, that through His mother, the Virgin Mary, we may obtain the joys of everlasting life. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

Our Father

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

Hail Mary

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee; blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

The Glory Be

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Morning Offering

O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer you my prayers, works, joys, and sufferings of this day for all the intentions of your Sacred Heart, in union with the holy sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world, in thanksgiving for your favors, in reparation for my sins, for the intention of all my relatives and friends, and in particular for the intentions of the Holy Father. Amen.

Prayer to Pier Giorgio

Dear Pier Giorgio, / Please pray for our school! / Give us the courage to strive for the highest goals and to flee every temptation to be mediocre. / Free us from the fear of failure. / Guide our planning for the future and help us obtain all our material needs / so that we can continue to build this high school in your honor. / May we aspire to greatness, as you did, and open our hearts with joy to God's call to holiness. / We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Come, Holy Spirit

Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and enkindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit, and they shall be created.

And you shall renew the face of the earth.

Let us pray. O God, who has taught the hearts of the faithful by the light of the Holy Spirit, grant that by the gift of the same Spirit we may be always truly wise and ever rejoice in his consolation. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

With regard to admissions, Frassati Catholic prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, or sex. Priority may be given, all other things being equal, in the following order: siblings, children of alumni, and Catholics. Records from previous schools, family interviews, entrance tests and visitations by prospective students are used to evaluate applicants' probability for success in the Frassati Catholic High School program.

Frassati Catholic High School reserves all rights and protections granted to it in the area of admissions by applicable laws and constitutional provisions in furtherance of its religious objectives.

Enrollment Renewal

Renewal enrollment will take place online with an electronic financial agreement in March requiring a non-refundable deposit. A student transferring to Frassati Catholic High School must be enrolled for at least one full year (two semesters) in order to receive a diploma from the school.

Transfers from local high schools are not admitted for the senior year. Only students transferring from Catholic schools outside the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston are admitted as seniors.

ACADEMICS

Academic Policies

The curriculum of Frassati Catholic High School reflects the Catholic philosophy of the school. It is a program designed to cultivate the intellect and to develop the moral, social, and physical potential of all its students. The course offerings within each discipline are intended to contribute, according to the character of each, to the school's overall academic objective – the formation of critical, creative, and ethical thinkers.

Academic Integrity

Frassati Catholic High School students are expected to submit work that is consistent with our Code of Conduct. Honesty, hard work, respectfulness, and responsibility for one's actions are ways in which we are called to imitate Christ. Academic dishonesty is inconsistent with Catholic moral values and is not tolerated.

Academic dishonesty is any action that permits a student to turn in unoriginal work. By placing his or her name on any assignment, project, presentation, or assessment, a student affirms that he or she has completed original work and/or cited all outside sources. Academic dishonesty includes cheating, collusion, and committing acts of plagiarism. Being complicit in any of these acts may result in academic consequences and disciplinary action.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is defined as the act of stealing and passing off the ideas or words of another as one's own; to use another's production (papers, music, videos, images, etc.) without crediting the source; to commit literary theft; and to present as new and original an idea or product derived from an existing source.³⁸ This includes both published and unpublished works, as well as assignments that have already been submitted to one or more other courses. Students who are found to have plagiarized may expect the following:

- A zero on the assignment or the opportunity to rewrite the plagiarized section(s) for half credit on the assignment
- After school detention for first offense; Saturday Detention for second offense; In-School Suspension for third offense
- Disciplinary conference

Collusion

Collusion (not to be confused with group work or collaboration) is defined as the act of one student contributing to an assignment that is submitted by another student without specific approval in advance by the teacher; working together on an assignment that is submitted for individual assessment; and working together on the initial preparation of individual assignments.³⁹ This includes multiple students turning in the same product as their own for one or more classes. Students who have engaged in collusion can expect the following:

- A zero on the assignment for all parties.
- After-school detention for first offense; Saturday Detention for second offense; In-School Suspension for third offense
- Disciplinary conference

Cheating

Cheating is defined as receiving outside, unauthorized aid on any assessment or assignment, including minor, daily grades or summative assessments such as tests, projects, and exams.

Examples of cheating include but are not limited to:

- Receiving or providing answers for a quiz, test, exam, or other assignment
- Programming a calculator with information that is not allowed during a quiz, test, or exam
- Having unauthorized materials during a quiz, test, or exam
- Copying another student's work or allowing another student to copy one's work
- Using electronic devices (such as cell phones, smart watches, the internet, etc.) to obtain answers
- Using Generative Artificial Intelligence (AI) to complete assignments

Students who have cheated may expect the following:

- A zero on the assignment (whether providing or receiving answers)
- After-school detention for first offense; Saturday Detention for second offense; In-School Suspension for third offense
- Disciplinary conference

Graduation Requirements

A minimum of 28 credits are required for graduation. Many of the courses are year long, but grades are finalized each semester, and there is the potential to earn 0.5 credit per semester for all year-long courses. Courses that only run for one semester will be awarded 0.5 credit for successful completion of the course. Although a student might earn 4.0 credits in ... "Although a student might earn 4.0 credits in English, religion, mathematics, science or history or 2.0 credits in Ethics & Culture before senior year by taking elective classes, all students are expected to take courses in these departments all four years. Additionally, no more than one study hall may be taken each semester. Required courses and the number of credit hours for graduation are as follows ³⁹ "Collusion," The University of Melbourne, accessed June 1, 2021, <https://academicintegrity.unimelb.edu.au/forms-of-plagiarism/collusion>.

Required credits by department:

Religion	4 credits
Ethics and Culture	2 credits
English	4 credits
Mathematics	4 credits
Science	4 credits
History	4 credits
World Language	2 credits
Fine Arts	1.5 credits
Physical Education	1 credit
Electives	1.5 credits

Class Schedules

All students are required to take at least seven academic credits each semester. Students may earn a maximum of nine credits each academic year. Each class may be worth 0.5 or 1 credit toward the graduation requirements. Summer class credits are only accepted for credit recovery. Students may not take classes at other institutions for the purpose of advancing to a higher course or to complete Frassati Catholic requirements. Students who are interested in taking college-credit only classes should consult with the Dean of Academics to ensure there is no conflict with the Frassati Catholic curriculum.

Academic Support/Accommodations

Frassati Catholic may enroll students who have identified and documented learning differences. The school is able to provide reasonable accommodations in order for students to have equal access to the academic courses, without sacrificing the integrity of the education program. Frassati Catholic does not provide curriculum modification; students must be able to meet and fulfill the fundamental requirements of the school's educational program.

To qualify for accommodations, a comprehensive psychoeducational assessment conducted by a licensed psychologist, an educational diagnostician or a licensed specialist in school psychology must be on file and updated every 3 years.

Accommodations available to students with documented learning differences are extended time up to 50% for graded work and assessments, preferential seating, testing in a separate environment and copies of notes. The students must make use of the extended time on classroom tests the same day the test was given during afternoon library hours or with the classroom teacher. If the student has an early release for a school activity the day of a test, he or she must use the extended time the following day either in the Aquinas Library or with the classroom teacher.

Frassati Catholic accommodations will be provided on a case-by-case basis at the discretion of the school administration. A diagnosis alone does not automatically qualify a student for accommodations. The school's evaluation of the testing and existing classroom data is what determines eligibility, not just the diagnosis itself.

Academic Course Levels

Students are placed in the level within each subject area according to demonstrated aptitude and performance. While each level of the course has similar goals and objectives, the application of instruction varies by methodology, degree of difficulty, and amount of information presented.

Advanced Placement (AP) and Dual Credit Course Policy

The Frassati Catholic High School AP and Dual Credit Policy consists of the following conditions, on which the student must agree before registering for any AP or Dual Credit course:

1. AP and Dual Credit courses require considerably more homework and studying than an honors course. AP and Dual Credit courses are college level courses. Work will be assigned and will be graded accordingly.
2. No student will be registered for an AP or Dual Credit course unless he or she meets all prerequisites and has obtained both department faculty recommendation and AP or Dual Credit teacher approval. AP and Dual Credit course recommendations are final.
3. Each AP and Dual Credit class has a limited number of students. Actual AP and Dual Credit course offerings will depend on student interest and qualifications.
4. Once a student is enrolled in an AP or Dual Credit course, he or she may not drop the class.
5. Students requesting more than two AP and/or Dual Credit classes in the same year must submit a "Request for Exception to AP and Dual Credit Course Policy" form and must meet the stringent requirements outlined on the form.
6. Students enrolled in any AP class will take the AP exam in the spring as the final step in completing the AP course. The school does not cover the cost of AP exams, and payment to the school is due by October 1 of each school year. Students who are absent from the exam and meet the qualifications by the College Board to test late will have the following options:
 - Take an exam in your class during exam week and forego the AP exam.
 - Request to take the AP exam during late testing, if possible.
 - Request to take the AP exam during the exception testing window if there is a conflict on the late testing date.
 - Students who take a makeup AP exam will be required to pay the late testing fee, which is around $40.
 - Transcripts and report cards will be held until the makeup AP exam is taken if students request option 2 or 3 above.
7. Juniors may take a maximum of three (3) AP or Dual Credit classes and seniors can take a maximum of five (5) AP or Dual Credit classes. An AP or Dual Credit class counts as one whether it is a semester-long class or a year-long class.
8. AP students may exempt from the regular second semester exam if they have an 80 or better by May 10. Any student with a grade below 80 will take a regular exam for the AP course during exam week.

Honors Course Policy

Honors courses are designed to meet the needs of students who want an advanced college preparatory curriculum, have an innate interest in learning, and possess a high level of responsibility, aptitude and achievement. Course principles and concepts are explored in greater depth compared to regular college prep level courses, and more independent work is expected of the student. At Frassati Catholic High School, registration for honors courses involves several steps. The student must (1) meet the prerequisite requirements, (2) be recommended for the honors course by the department faculty, and (3) read and agree to the Honors Policy listed below.

It is important that students make careful decisions about course selection as it will impact the overall academic master schedule. Once a student is enrolled in an honors course, he or she may not drop the class after the usual two-week Course Change Policy.

The Frassati Catholic High School Honors Policy consists of the following conditions, on which the student must agree before registering for any honors course:

1. Honors courses require considerably more homework and studying than a regular level course. Work will be assigned and will be graded accordingly.
2. No student will be registered for an honors course unless he or she meets all prerequisites and has obtained both department faculty recommendation and teacher approval. Honors course recommendations are final.
3. Each honors class has a limited number of students. Actual honors course offerings will depend on student interest and qualifications.
4. Once a student is enrolled in an honors course, he or she may not drop the class after the usual two weeks Course Change Policy.

Course Placement

The Dean of Academics and faculty reserves the right to place students in a class which is consistent with the results of the student's prior academic records, standardized tests, teacher recommendations, and any admission testing.

Registration for Courses

The process for course registration is as follows:

1. Student access for course registration opens in FACTS (timeline corresponds to advising weeks as listed in the agenda).
2. Students discuss teacher-recommended courses and electives with their parents. The Curriculum Guide provides descriptions of each course offered, along with any prerequisites.
3. Students select their courses in FACTS under Class Registration. Students will print the Course Registration-Course Requested Form in FACTS under Student Reports.
4. Additional forms that may be required at the time of academic advising may include the AP and Dual Credit Policy Form and the Request for Exception Form. There is also an Appeal Form for students who are appealing their placement in a course.
5. All students will schedule advising meetings with their academic advisors in the spring.

6. All transfer students must have an academic advising meeting with the Dean of Academics.

Course Change Policy

Each student is expected to remain in the courses selected. Students are not permitted to change courses in order to change teachers or to raise grades. For justifiable reasons, add/drop requests may be made within the first two weeks of the course. Classes that continue all year may not be changed mid-year. Full year courses may not be changed mid-year.

There is a $60.00 fee for each course change. Changes in course level require an Add/Drop form and must be approved by the teacher, parents/guardians, and Dean of Academics.

Block Schedule

Frassati Catholic High School operates on an A/B block schedule that permits students to take up to eight classes with four classes meeting each day.

Textbooks

The annual student book fee covers the acquisition of books, either as rentals or purchases, from a third-party vendor, eCampus. Students will receive all required books on or before the first day of classes; at that time, each student is responsible for verifying all books were received, writing his/her name on every book, and keeping all books in good condition. At the end of the year, a list of rental books will be provided; students are required to return all indicated books as long as the book is not water damaged, missing the cover or pages, or covered by excessive annotation or other notetaking, to include more than 50% of the total pages. If a rental book is damaged, eCampus requires the student to pay to replace the book.

Human Sexuality

Frassati Catholic High School does not teach human sexuality as a designated course as this is the responsibility of parents as the primary educators of their children. Parents will be notified prior to issues related to human sexuality being raised outside of Religion (Theology of the Body), Ethics & Culture, and/or science courses.

Technology Acceptable Use Policy

Frassati Catholic High School offers students access to technology resources for educational purposes, which may include computer hardware and software licensed to the school. To gain access to the technology resources, each year all students must obtain parental permission as verified by the signatures on the Acceptable Use Agreement. Should a parent prefer that a student not have Internet access, use of the computer is still possible for other purposes such as word processing.

The use of technology resources is a privilege, not a right, and may be revoked if abused. The user is personally responsible for his/her actions in accessing and utilizing the school's technology resources.

Tests and Examinations

It is standard practice for teachers to give tests when a unit of work is complete, and toward the end of the quarter. In general, it is left to the individual teacher to plan when to administer a regular test. To avoid several tests being given on the same day, teachers post their test dates on a shared test calendar. Students should have a maximum of two major assessments on one day. Tests in core classes are not given within five days before semester exams begin. The week before exams are open for elective teachers to give exams in their classes. Tests should take no longer than 45-55 minutes.

Frassati Catholic requires semester examinations for all courses, and such will be given by all teachers on the day and at the time designated. Semester exams may not be taken early and may only be made up for absences due to illness. Students must submit a doctor's note upon their return, and the Academics staff will arrange for the makeup exams with the teacher(s). Please review the exam schedule on the school calendar at the beginning of the year to avoid conflicts with travel plans.

Homework

A reasonable amount of daily homework will ordinarily be assigned in each subject. Homework will be given to accomplish one or more of the following goals:

- Reinforcement for mastery of a skill
- Encourage independent study of texts or other learning materials
- Stimulate creative intellectual activity by means of problem solving, creative writing, and related activities
- Prepare academic material for future classes

Make-up Work

It is the student's responsibility to see teachers about missed assignments. When absent, students are responsible for checking assignment calendars. After an absence, students are responsible for talking to teachers in order to arrange the make-up of tests and quizzes, to get homework assignments, or to make other arrangements for missed classes.

Unless the administration advises otherwise, students with excused absences will have one day plus the number of days absent to complete missed work. For example, if a student misses two (2) days of school he/she has three (3) school days to make-up the missed work. This includes absences due to membership on a school athletic team, field trip or other approved school business. Tests may not be made-up during class time.

Normally, if a student returns to school on the day of a scheduled test or quiz, he or she is expected to take the test or quiz.

Students who have had an extended absence should be given special consideration in scheduling make-up work. An extension at the conclusion of a quarter must be approved by the Dean of Academics.

Students will have the opportunity to make-up tests before (time permitting) or after school in the Aquinas Library or with the classroom teacher. Students in a study hall may also make up tests in the Aquinas Library during a study hall if arrangements are made in advance with the classroom teacher and Librarian. The Aquinas Library hours before and after school are from 7:15-7:40 a.m. and 3:00-4:00 p.m. Flex time in the Aquinas Library will be solely devoted to a quiet study location for students. No make-up tests will be taken in the Aquinas Library during flex time, but teachers have the option to administer tests in their classrooms during flex time. Teachers do have the option to administer their makeup tests in their own classrooms before school, during flex time, or after school. All makeup quizzes will be given by the teachers themselves.

Additional information about make-up quizzes and tests:

- Students will have one day plus the number of days absent to make up work missed due to excused absences.
- Teachers will not seek out students to tell them to make up missed quizzes or tests.
- If a student chooses to take a make-up test in the Aquinas Library, time must be considered. If a student arrives at 7:15 to take a 45-minute test, the student will only be allowed the 30 minutes that the Aquinas Library is available to the student, and no additional time will be given because the student has seen the test. If a student does not come to the Aquinas Library after school until 3:20, he or she will only be given until 4:00 to complete the test.

Grading System

Numerical averages appear in FACTS and on transcripts.

Mark	Equivalency	GPA Points
90-100	A	4.0
80-89	B	3.0
70-79	C	2.0
65-69	D	1.0
64 and below	F	0.0

All courses have final grades at the end of each semester, even fall courses that continue into the spring. Grades are taken and cumulative GPAs are calculated based on the semester grade for each course. Cumulative GPA is calculated by the total number of earned GPA points divided by the total number of earned credits. Honors-level courses carry an additional 0.5 point earned to the class, and AP and Dual Credit courses carry an additional 1.0 point to the class. For example, a student who earns an A in English II Honors will earn 4.5 points rather than 4.0 points for that class. A student who earns a B in AP Calculus will earn 4.0 points for that class rather than 3.0 points. Students who fail a class at the end of the first semester will be required to attend summer school for credit recovery.

Report cards will be generated at the end of Q1, S1, Q3, and S2. Students have two weeks from the time report cards are available to appeal a grade with a teacher. Grades will be final after that two week period. Exceptions may be made for students who have Incomplete grades at the time report cards are ready for students.

Valedictorian and Salutatorian Determination

If the top two students have GPAs within 0.02 points, a special grade scale may be used to evaluate the quality of grades. For example, a 97 would carry more weight than a 91 in the same class, although in the Frassati Catholic grade scale, those two grades are of equal weight. Additionally, if one of the top two students is a transfer student, only the cumulative GPA will be considered for each student for the same number of years: 10-12 grades. These awards are only for students who have attended Frassati Catholic for three consecutive years.

Quarter & Semester Grades

The academic year is divided into four quarters. The first semester ends at the close of the second quarter and the second semester ends at the close of the fourth quarter. Both semesters include the cumulative exams taken in December and May. Scholastic marks ideally should be objective ratings of achievement.

The 1st semester average is determined by the following formula:

- 1st quarter = 40%
- 2nd quarter = 40%
- Exam grade = 20%

Therefore, the 1st semester examination grade counts as one-fifth of the semester grade.

The 2nd semester average is determined by the following formula:

- 3rd quarter = 40%
- 4th quarter = 40%
- Exam grade = 20%

Academic Probation

1. Students are placed on academic probation for a failure in one or more class.
2. Academic probation is identified at the end of each marking period, based on the following grades: Q1, S1, Q3.
3. Students are notified of academic probation status. Academic probation goes into effect two (2) school days after notification.
4. The requirements for students on academic probation are as follows:
 - i. A student who has failed ONE class:
 - i. Is required to attend five hours of tutorials in the class he/she is failing. Attendance at these sessions is documented by the teacher and submitted to the Dean of Academics for review by the designated due date.
 - ii. A student who has failed TWO OR MORE classes:
 - i. Is required to attend at least five hours of tutorials for each class failed. The exact number of sessions required per class will be determined by the Dean of Academics, with input from teachers, at the time that academic probation is determined. Attendance at these sessions is documented and submitted to the Dean of Academics for review at the end of the quarter.

- ii. Is not permitted to participate in school athletics, leadership roles in clubs or organizations, or theater productions until the end of the quarter.
5. Students remain on academic probation for the entire quarter. Academic probation is re-evaluated at the end of the quarter.
6. If a student has a leadership role in a school club or organization and is placed on academic probation, he/she cannot perform the duties of his/her leadership role until he/she is released from probation. If the student is placed on academic probation for two consecutive quarters, he/she is removed from the leadership role. If a student is placed on academic probation at the end of the third quarter, he/she will be ineligible to run for or be elected to a student leadership role.
7. The school reserves the right to request that students with consistent academic probation not return to the school.

Senior Exemptions

At the discretion of the teacher, seniors may be exempt from a second semester examination if the following criteria are met:

- The student must have at least a grade of 90 for Q3 and Q4
- No more than two lunch detentions during second semester
- No after school or Saturday detentions during senior year
- Present for the entire school day on all four scheduled Senior Days
- Four or less absences second semester in that class (college visits and school-related trips do not count towards those four)
- Four or less excused tardies for second semester

Incomplete Grades

In unusual circumstances, an incomplete grade is permitted when recording quarter grades at report time. The student is given a maximum of two weeks to complete requirements for removal of an incomplete grade. After two weeks, incomplete work becomes a zero in the calculation of the final grade.

Failures

If a student fails a course at S1 or S2, he or she will be required to attend summer school for credit recovery; credit recovery may not take place during the spring semester. The Dean of Academics will notify parents of summer school options for making up the credit(s). Students may not repeat courses at Frassati Catholic. It is the responsibility of the family to make arrangements for credit recovery and to supply the Dean of Academics with a summer school transcript at the successful completion of the course, but no later than August 1. Credit recovery allows a student to earn the credit required for graduation, but the previous failing grade remains; the grade earned in summer school is not calculated into a student's cumulative GPA at Frassati Catholic. Numerous or repeated failures may result in a student's dismissal from Frassati Catholic. Seniors who fail a class during senior year will be required to attend summer school before receiving their diplomas. In the event this happens, seniors will not participate in the rehearsals or ceremonies for Baccalaureate Mass and Commencement.

Academic Recognition

At the conclusion of quarter 1, semester 1, quarter 3, and semester 2, students who have earned all A's and received no Saturday detentions, will be included on the Principal's List. For the same reporting periods, students who have earned all A's and B's and have a GPA of 3.5 or higher and received no Saturday detentions will be included on the Honor Roll.

Baccalaureate Mass and Commencement

Baccalaureate Mass and Commencement are formal, academic events with a rich history in Western culture. They are formal celebratory events which acknowledge the accomplishments of the graduating class. Because they are formal events and large gatherings, we do not permit the following items to be brought into the venue: food, beverages, balloons, air horns, lasers, large posters or banners, noise makers, weapons of any kind, and anything that would detract from the nature of the formal ceremony. In addition, nothing should be written or taped on caps, gowns, etc.

Seniors wear academic regalia for the Baccalaureate Mass (gowns) and Commencement (caps, gowns, and tassels) and may also wear honor society cords or stoles. In addition, cords or stoles that reflect the accomplishment of an academic and/or school-sponsored event/group may be worn for these ceremonies.

Seniors order graduation announcements, caps, gowns, and tassels from Jostens. Information about ordering these items from Jostens is given to the seniors during first semester, posted on the school website, and announced at Senior Days.

Classroom Practices, Policies and Procedures

Teachers provide specific classroom policies and procedures concerning homework, grading, and help sessions in a handout provided by each teacher to his or her students at the beginning of the course.

Pier Giorgio Service Program

Blessed are the pure of heart, for they shall see God. (Matthew 5:8)

The Frassati Catholic High School Pier Giorgio Service Program seeks to provide our students with opportunities to grow in love of God and neighbor by putting their Catholic faith into action. Saint Pier Giorgio Frassati's life illustrates that when young Catholics serve the poor, their faith blossoms and their hearts are purified.

Pure of heart and ardent in charity, Pier Giorgio Frassati lived the Beatitudes and so was able to see Christ in the Eucharist and in the poor. For Pier Giorgio, the Eucharist was the source of his devotion to the poor: "Jesus comes every day to visit me sacramentally in the Eucharist; I return the visit by going to find him among the poor." When his friend asked him how he could enter certain houses cheerfully where the first welcome was a nauseating smell, Pier Giorgio answered: "Don't ever forget that even though the house is sordid, you are approaching Christ. Remember what the Lord said: the good you do to the poor is good done to Me. Around the sick, the poor, the unfortunate, I see a particular light, a light that we do not have." Like Saint Teresa of Calcutta, Pier Giorgio's purity of heart allowed him to recognize the Lord in His distressing disguise in the poor.

In imitation of our patron, the Pier Giorgio Service Program of Frassati Catholic High School seeks to help our students learn to serve God in the poor, the homeless, and the vulnerable members of society. As Frassati Catholic students mature in their faith and life of service, they not only will become God's instruments of peace in the world, but they also will know the personal joy that comes from a life of self-giving.

Students receive specific requirements and expectations for service in their religion classes. Requirements are presented in May and revisited at the start of the school year. Service requirements can also be found on the Frassati Catholic website.

GENERAL SCHOOL POLICIES

Campus Animals

Animals are present on Frassati Catholic's campus as part of the Agricultural Science program. Animals are unpredictable and while it is not expected that harm would come from them, Faculty, staff, and students approach and touch the animals at their own risk.

Appeals Concerning Non-Disciplinary Issues

When, in the course of any part of the educational process at Frassati Catholic High School, parents or students have questions or concerns that they feel have not been addressed satisfactorily, they should communicate these concerns in writing within one week to the appropriate teacher, counselor, coach or administrator. If the parents/students are still not satisfied, they have an additional three (3) days to take the matter to the appropriate administrator, who will review the concern and render a written decision within three (3) school days after hearing of the complaint.

Assembly Hall – Food and Drinks

All food and drinks must be consumed in the Assembly Hall or in a place specified by the administration. In order to encourage face-to-face conversations, laptops, tablets or other electronics are not permitted in the assembly hall or senior eating areas during lunch. Any student with food allergies is encouraged to discuss his/her situation with the Dean of Students. Seniors have the privilege of eating lunch at the picnic tables and on the south patio. Students must remain in the eating areas for their entire lunch period. All underclassmen must remain in the Assembly Hall during their lunch period. Ordinarily food is only allowed in the Assembly Hall or outside. Parents or family members wishing to eat with students are welcome after signing in at the main office.

Students may carry a water bottle to class. Water bottles should be hard plastic or metal (not glass) and should only contain water (no soda, juice, sports drinks, tea, flavorings/additives, etc.).

School Hours

The Frassati Catholic High School campus is open 7:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m. on school days. Regular school hours are 7:45 a.m. – 3:00 p.m. The main office in the Academic Building is open from 7:30 a.m. – 3:30 p.m. The evening receptionist is available from 3:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m. in the Student Life Building and from 4:00 p.m. – 6:00 p.m. in the Aquinas Library.

Students are permitted to remain on-campus until 6:00 p.m. Unless the student is participating in a school-sponsored activity (such as athletics, theater, club meetings, academic help sessions), all students must remain in the Assembly Hall until picked up.

Access Cards

Students are issued access cards each school year. Access cards allow students to enter academic buildings from 7:30 a.m. – 3:30 p.m. and the Student Life Building from 7:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. This is a safety measure that ensures only our students and staff can enter our buildings and allows students immediate access to the buildings in the event of an emergency.

Access cards are personalized for each student and should not be shared between students. Students should always keep their access cards on their city lanyards (school-provided) and on their person while on campus.

Should an access card be damaged or lost, the student should notify the staff at the front desk, the Dean of Students, and/or the Director of Facilities immediately so that the card can be deactivated and, if necessary, replaced. The cost to replace a lost or damaged card is $20.

Attendance on Pier Giorgio Formation Days

Once each quarter, students participate in a formation program customized to their grade level. These curricula are part of the overall program at Frassati Catholic, therefore, attendance on these days is obligatory. A religion grade will be assessed on each of the four days for the sophomores and an English grade will be assessed for the freshmen, juniors and seniors. Students absent for reasons other than sickness (with doctor's note) will receive a zero for that particular day. Seniors absent (whether excused or unexcused) from these days will not be eligible for exemption from second semester exams.

Attendance

In order to achieve the goals and objectives of the curriculum, regular attendance by the student is necessary. Absence, for any reason, removes the student from the primary learning environment and negatively impacts student achievement. Students are expected to be in school and on time for class and school events (retreats, spirit days, formation days, etc.) held during the day.

TCCB ED requires students to be in attendance 90% of the school year to receive credit. The 90% rule applies to all absences, including excused absences. Attendance at Frassati Catholic is determined by presence or absence per class period. Therefore, students must be present for at least 90% of each class period in order to receive credit for a class.

However, a student who is in attendance for at least 75 percent of a class, but less than 90 percent, of the class, may be given credit or a final grade if the student completes a plan approved by the principal and/or Dean of Academics that provides for the student to meet the instructional requirements of the class.

If a student is absent for more than two full class periods in a day, with the exception of a school-related absence, he or she may neither attend nor participate in an athletic event or practice, attend an extra-curricular school activity or school event on the day of his or her absence. Exceptions are rare but may be made by the Dean of Students for extenuating circumstances.

If a student is absent three (3) or more consecutive days in any class, a doctor's note and/or a meeting with the students' parents may be required.

If a student reaches three (3) absences in one class in one semester, the Dean of Students will contact the parents and issue an attendance warning.

If a student reaches five (5) absences in one class in one semester, he or she will be placed on Attendance Probation. The student and parents will be required to meet with the Dean of Students to discuss the terms of the probation. Attendance Probation may include, but is not limited to: an attendance contract, no school-related absences, no college visits, and no excused absence other than illness or death in the family.

Students absent from class for school-related activities are not penalized for participation in school events that occur during the school day. Absences caused by an official school event, to be determined by the Dean of Students, will not be counted as accumulated absences.

Attendance Procedures

Parents should notify the school as early as possible on the day of a student's absence. Please call or e-mail (attendance@frassaticatholic.org) the main office between the hours of 7:30 a.m. and 8:30 a.m. The e-mail note should include the student's name, date(s) of the absence, and the reason for the absence. If parents do not call or e-mail by 8:30 a.m., the office staff will attempt to contact the parent to verify attendance.

It is necessary that a written excuse note from a parent is on file with the school for every student absence. An e-mail sent to attendance@frassaticatholic.org to notify the school of a student's absence suffices for the written note. Failure to provide a written excuse note within three school days will result in the absence(s) being marked as unexcused.

The only absences that Frassati Catholic High School will not ordinarily approve are those that occur before or after a scheduled break, on retreat days, or during semester exams. Students absent before or after a break, on a retreat day, on a Formation Day, or during semester exams are required to submit a doctor's note to excuse the absence.

Planned Absence

Parents anticipating a planned absence due to personal reasons must notify the attendance office (attendance@frassaticatholic.org) in writing at least one week in advance of the anticipated absence. To help the student plan for the work assigned during his or her absence, the student will need a Planned Absence Form at the front desk. The student will then review the form with all of his or her teachers. After the student has all of his or her teachers' signatures, the form is returned to the office.

Unexcused Absence

Students who have unexcused absences are not permitted to make up work missed. All assignments, quizzes or tests due the day of the unexcused absence will be recorded as a grade of zero.

Tardy

The school day officially begins at 7:45 a.m. The first bell rings at 7:40 a.m. All students should be in their first period class by 7:45 a.m. Students who arrive at school after 7:45 a.m. are considered tardy. Students arriving late must sign in at the main office and receive an admit slip before they may attend class. All tardies from students arriving late without a note or a call from a parent by 8:30 a.m. will be considered unexcused.

Students may accumulate four excused tardies per semester. Each additional tardy, excused or unexcused, will result in a lunch detention (except health treatments).

All unexcused tardies (before 8:30 a.m. on regular school days) will result in a lunch detention.

Students arriving after 8:30 a.m. are considered absent and must have a written excuse. If students arrive without a written excuse or a call from a parent/guardian, they are subject to an automatic after-school detention for skipping class.

Unexcused tardies to any class during the school day will result in a lunch detention.

Early Dismissal

Parents are asked not to make appointments that would require the student to miss class time. If there are conditions in which no other alternative is available, a note, signed by the parent, or an e-mail, giving the reason for the early dismissal, is presented to the main office before the school day begins at 7:45 a.m. The student is given an early dismissal slip, which will allow him or her to leave class at a specified time. At the specified time, the student presents the early dismissal slip at the main office and the parent comes to the main office to sign out. Student drivers may sign themselves out.

Student Custody and Guardianship / Buckley Amendment

Frassati Catholic High School adheres to the Buckley Amendment (Family Education Rights and Privacy Act) in regard to student records and the rights of non-custodial parents. It is the responsibility of the parents to share any official custodial information determined through the courts. Official custodial agreements will be kept in a confidential file in the office of the Principal. In the absence of any court document, the school will view each parent as having full legal custody of his/her child. In the absence of a court order to the contrary, non-custodial parents have the right to receive records about their child's academic progress. The school reserves the right to charge a shipping and processing fee for extra records sent to more than one home address.

Student Records and Files

Permanent student records are maintained digitally. The Registrar and Dean of Academics ensure the accuracy, security, and appropriate storage of these records. The Registrar, Dean of Academics, and Principal have access to these records.

Access to Records

Parents have a right (unless prohibited by the courts in a custody agreement) to the timely inspection of the educational records of their child during school hours. The school shall respond to reasonable requests for explanations and interpretations of the records.

Student records shall be open to authorized school personnel only (Principal, Deans, and those to whom they extend access within a given year.)

Transfer of Records

A “Release of Student Records Form” is required to release a student’s transcript to another school.

Only copies of student records may be released.

Parents may not hand-carry records to another school, except under extraordinary circumstances.

If this occurs, the records are to be placed in a sealed envelope and marked "void if seal is broken."

Frassati Catholic High School has the right not to certify a student's graduation or provide transcripts of a student's academic record to third parties such as other schools, colleges or employers, or not to issue a Certificate of Diploma to a student if there has been a breach of a material condition of the contract (e.g., failure to meet financial obligations, borrowed school equipment or uniforms, infractions against the school’s code of conduct).

Parents are obligated to share educational/psychological testing results and any resulting plan with the school. If a student has a documented disability, a copy of the Individualized Education Plan (IEP), Individualized Services Plan (ISP), 504 plan and/or Student Assistance Plan (SAP) should be maintained in the student's confidential file which is maintained by the guidance counselor. The refusal to provide such information is grounds for terminating enrollment in the school.

Ordering Transcripts

Transcripts should be requested through Naviance for those colleges and universities that accept transcripts digitally or on the Frassati Catholic website using the Transcript Request Form for those colleges and universities that accept transcripts only by mail. Students will need to check the requirements for each college and university to which they are applying. If students need transcripts for scholarships, they should also fill out the Transcript Request Form online and indicate for which scholarship they are applying. The Registrar will process all transcript requests within three days.

Transferring to Another School

The school must be notified in writing by the parents of a student regarding the decision to transfer a student to another school, including the last day the student will attend classes. All school-owned materials must be returned to the school and all fees paid before leaving. Transcripts will be sent to the new school upon receipt of a “Release of Student Records Form” from the new school. The Registrar will fulfill this request for records within three business days.

All unpaid tuition and fees must be paid before transcripts can be sent. Transcripts are not given directly to students or parents until all tuition and fees are paid.

Students may be contacted for an exit interview after all financial obligations have been met.

School Communications

All materials prepared by parents for release to the school community must be approved by the Principal or her designee.

Telephones

A telephone is available in the main office for student use. This telephone should be reserved for parent/guardian contact and emergencies only. Students should limit use of this phone to lunch period.

Cell Phones and Other Communication Devices

Cell phones, smart watches, and other communication devices are not needed by students during the school day. In addition, the improper use of cell phones, smart watches and other communication devices disrupt the learning environment on campus. Students may not use cell phones, smart watches or any other communication devices on campus during the academic day except after 3:00 p.m. in non-academic settings, i.e., outside and in the Student Life Building. Cell phones, smart watches and other communication devices are not permitted in the Aquinas Library at any time. Cell phones are not permitted in any other locations specified for before and after school academic activities.

During the school day, cell phones, smart watches and other communication devices must be turned off and kept in a locker or in a vehicle. Students are not permitted to carry cell phones or smart watches on their person or in their backpack. Cell phones, smart watches, and other communication devices will be confiscated and an automatic after-school detention issued when they are seen or heard during school hours. Violating the policy a second time will result in an automatic Saturday detention and parents will be notified. A third violation of the policy will result in the student serving one day of in-school suspension. The school reserves the right to review the contents of these devices (including the call, photo, and texting history) when collected.

Students are never permitted to take pictures or video of themselves, other students, faculty and staff on any device without explicit permission. Phones are available in the main office, every classroom and every office for emergency use.

Laptop Computers/Tablets

Students may, for medical purposes, be granted the use of a school-provided Chromebook. The parents must present a physician's request, which must be approved by the Dean of Students and Dean of Academics. The student will then pick up and return the Chromebook each day from the library.

Aquinas Library

The Aquinas Library is a resource center for research and reference. The collection, which reflects the curriculum needs of the school in all subject areas, is both current and varied. Payment is required for lost or damaged books and there is a fine for overdue books. All library materials must be returned and fines paid by the end of each semester before a student's grades or an academic transcript will be released. There is to be no food or drink in the library at any time.

The Aquinas Library is open before school, during flex time, and until 4:00 p.m. on days with a regular class schedule. On early dismissal days, the Aquinas Library is not always open after school. The Aquinas Library is not open for student use during lunch periods or when the Librarian is not present. Students may use the printer in the Aquinas Library before school (7:15 a.m. -7:40 a.m.), during flex time, and after school (3:00-4:00). Students should not be sent to the Aquinas Library to print during an academic class.

Facilities Use

Chaste behavior and modesty in dress and deportment is expected at all times on school property and at school events. All students, faculty, staff, and visitors are to observe modesty when using changing facilities, locker rooms, showers, and restrooms and may only use facilities that conform to the individual's biological sex at birth.

Field Trips

Teachers often plan engaging and educational field trips to support the curricular objectives of their classes. Curricular field trips are required, and all students are expected to participate in curricular-based field trips. Parents or guardians of students are required to sign a permission form for the field trip, fill in the necessary information, and sign their names on the permission form. Nothing can substitute for a permission form, e.g., a phone call, e-mail or note.

Students participating in a school-sponsored field trip will travel to and from the field trip on transportation provided by Frassati Catholic High School. Students may not be dropped off or picked up at the location of the field trip.

International Travel / Overnight Trips

As a leader in Catholic education near one of the most cosmopolitan cities in the country, Frassati Catholic strives to offer unique international travel opportunities to its diverse student body. International travel builds independence, strengthens virtue, opens the mind and soul to new experiences, and simply changes lives. While these benefits are largely true of any international travel, Frassati Catholic's approach is unique because of the curriculum, centered around the study of the human person and culture, and our familial, faith-filled school culture. Through offerings ranging from soul-inspiring pilgrimages to history and art-themed European adventures, Frassati Catholic students follow in the footsteps of Pier Giorgio, our school patron, as zealous student-explorers and virtuous citizens of this world and of the heavenly kingdom that is to come. By taking our formation beyond our nation's borders, students can grow ever more into "agents of change in all sectors of society," using the knowledge, empathy, and virtue they've gained here to "make disciples of all nations" (Matthew 28:19).

Fundraising

All fundraisers at the school must have the approval of the administration. Fundraisers will typically be sponsored by the Family Association or Advancement Office. All fundraisers must have a fundraising form completed and submitted to the Advancement Office at least fourteen days prior to the requested start date of the fundraiser. Fundraising activities cannot commence without written approval of the administration through the Advancement Office. Fundraising activities should be organized and executed so that the school program is not interrupted.

Media / Press

From time to time, various athletic and other events held at Frassati Catholic High School attract the attention of the press. All students and parents must understand that, due to the very nature of these types of events, Frassati Catholic High School cannot insure the anonymity of its students or parents at any school sponsored function or event.

Student Publications

It is the responsibility of the sponsor to ensure that all publications adhere to the moral and substantive teachings of the Catholic Church. All Frassati Catholic High School publications must be approved by the administration.

Vehicles: Parking and Driving

Students must complete and sign the Campus Driving Agreement in order to park in the school parking lot. Students pay a fee of $40.00 for a parking sticker which must be placed at the bottom of the passenger side of the front windshield. Students who fail to display the parking permit, park illegally, or drive in an unsafe manner will receive a detention commensurate with the offense. Multiple offenses may result in the student forfeiting his or her driving privileges.

Visitors

As a general rule, students may not have visitors in the school building or on the school grounds during the school day. All visitors report directly to the main office to state their business and receive authorization from the receptionist to remain on campus. Parents and family members are welcome at any time. Guests desiring to attend classes must seek prior approval from the Dean of Academics. Persons lacking authorization are not permitted on campus and are considered to be trespassing.

Weather / Closing of School

Frassati Catholic High School uses Klein Independent School District as a primary resource in determining the closing, early dismissal or delayed starting of school. Klein Independent School District is our closest neighboring district, and they employ a team of experts to track the impacts of inclement weather. Parents and families will receive the final decision on inclement weather resulting in closing, early dismissal, or delayed starting of school as well as emergency changes in the school schedule directly from the Frassati Catholic Administrative Team. The administration reserves the ability to differ from Klein Independent School District on a case by case basis taking into consideration conditions on-the-ground, and/or impacts to the broader geographical makeup of the Frassati Catholic community. The Frassati Catholic Administrative Team will communicate emergency changes to the school schedule affecting arrival to school (including closings or delayed starts) no later than 5:30 a.m. on the day the schedule is to be impacted.

Asynchronous Learning on Inclement Weather Days

When inclement weather days are anticipated, students will receive assignments to be completed on the day(s) school is canceled. Exceptions will be made for power outages and other significant issues related to the inclement weather that would prevent students from completing the assigned work.

CO-CURRICULAR AND EXTRA CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

Student Activities

At Frassati Catholic High School, we are committed to the integral formation of our students. Some of the best learning opportunities can happen outside the classroom through participation in extracurricular activities. Often it is through these activities that students solidify friendships, discover skills and interests they did not even know they had, and build confidence and a sense of responsibility.

Our students will have unique leadership opportunities to play a role in developing the student clubs and activities. New activities may be suggested by members of the student body. All such requests are forwarded to the administration for discussion and approval.

Pier Giorgio Formation Days

Once each quarter, students participate in a formation program customized to their grade level. The curriculum for each program is designed to assist the students in their formation as "human persons who are destined to share in God's own divine life."

Honor Societies

The purpose of the National Honor Society is to create enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to serve the community, to promote individual leadership and to develop character in students of secondary schools. At Frassati Catholic High School, students will be required to meet standards of excellence related to GPA, discipline, attendance, leadership, character, and service in order to be considered for membership. More specific information about National Honor Society, French National Honor Society, and Spanish National Honor Society, is available from the faculty sponsors. Candidates who are selected will become members at an induction ceremony.

Dances and School Events

Dances and other school events throughout the year provide excellent opportunities for Frassati Catholic students to grow in the virtues of true friendship. Learning how to spend leisure time in ways that are fun, creative, and life-affirming is an essential part of education. To maintain a Christian atmosphere, the following regulations guide behavior at school social functions:

- Admission to the dance/event requires a valid and current high school ID card
- All school policies must be observed by the student and his/her guests.

- Students and guests are expected to behave and dress modestly for all school events. The school reserves the right to determine if attire is appropriate for admittance.
- Students are to refrain from any sexually suggestive behavior both on and off the dance floor.
- Only Frassati Catholic students and their approved guests are permitted to attend dances. Guests must be in high school and must be approved by the administration in advance of the dance.
- Start and end times for a dance/event are communicated to students via flyers and announcements
 - o Students may not enter a dance/event one hour after the start time of the dance/event.
 - o Students should make arrangements to be picked up at the designated end time for the dance/event.
- Students and/or their dates will not be permitted to re-enter a dance/event once they have exited.
- Frassati Catholic High School accepts no responsibility for any student who leaves the dance/event.

For some school social functions, Frassati Catholic students may invite a guest from another high school. Frassati Catholic students will give the Guest Form to their guest in a timely manner so that the guest can ask his or her school administrator to complete the form. The guest then gives this form back to the Frassati Catholic student who hands it in to the school by the specified deadline. Guests at Frassati Catholic High School's dances and social functions must be high school students and must present a photo ID at the door. All guests must have a Principal or Assistant Principal's signature from the school in which they are enrolled and a parent/guardian's signature in order to participate and enter the event; they must follow all Frassati Catholic policies while attending the event. Frassati Catholic High School reserves the right to exclude anyone from attending any school function based on information of a guest's past history or disruptive/illegal behavior.

Athletics

The eligibility requirements for athletics at Frassati Catholic High School are in accord with the Texas Association of Private and Parochial Schools (TAPPS).

Frassati Catholic High School recognizes the importance of athletics in the development of the total person through interscholastic sports. This includes the promotion of physical wellness, moral strength, good sportsmanship, and Christian values in all of its students. Students are only eligible to participate on school sports teams consistent with their biological sex at birth.

Prior to the start of each season there will be a meeting with coaches and parents to discuss expectations, guidelines, procedures, and schedules. Details and policies regarding the athletics program as a whole will be outlined in the Athletics Handbook, which will be distributed prior to the start of each school year. Students and parents will be required to sign an Athletics Handbook Acknowledgement Form before participating in athletics at Frassati Catholic High School. Athletic fees are $250 per student, per sport. Fees are due at the beginning of each season. The athletics program is under the direction of the Director of Athletics and the school administration.

Athletics Lockers

Lockers in the athletics locker rooms will be regularly inspected to ensure that they remain locked at all times and are kept clean and neat. Food, piles of dirty clothes, etc. should not be visible. Students will receive a warning for the first offense, a lunch detention for the second offense, and the loss of the use of the locker after three offenses.

Transportation of Athletes

Students participating in a school-sponsored sport who wish to drive to and from practice and games in a privately owned vehicle must have written permission from their parents/guardians. This approval does not permit a student to transport other passengers, under any circumstances, unless that passenger is a member of the carpool as permitted by the parents and administration.

Athletes will travel to and from athletic events on transportation provided by Frassati Catholic High School. Coaches may decide to allow athletes to return from events with their own parents, and only their own parents, but this is entirely at the discretion of the coach. Coaches who prefer to have teams travel together at all times are completely justified in doing so. Coaches will announce their travel policy at the start of their seasons. Athletes who are allowed to leave an event with their parent can only be signed out by their parent. If students need to go home directly from another venue with someone other than their parents (e.g., another team parent, neighbor, sibling, etc.) then a signed note from the parent (not an e-mail) must be given to the Director of Athletics in enough advance time so the Director of Athletics can approve the arrangements and give it to the coach.

After School Supervision

Frassati Catholic does not offer an after school care program. All students who are on campus after 3:00 p.m. need to be in a supervised activity (e.g., theater rehearsal, club meeting, help session), with a sports team, in the Aquinas Library, or in the Assembly Hall. Students still on campus after 4:00 p.m. (and not in a supervised activity) will move to the Aquinas Library with the evening receptionist to wait for pick up. Students should be picked up by 6:00 p.m.

Students are not permitted on school grounds after 6:00 p.m. (12:30 p.m. on early dismissal days) unless they are involved in a supervised activity or sport. Failure to pick up a student before 6:00 p.m. (12:30 p.m. on early dismissal days) will result in a late pick up fee of $10 per minute. Frassati Catholic is not responsible for the safety of unsupervised students after 6:00 p.m.

After-school behavior expectations:

- Students are expected to follow the school code of conduct
- Students will be in uniform.
- Students will be seated on chairs – not on tables, counters, or furniture. Students may not lie on the floor.

- Students may not wander around the campus.
- Students will not be permitted to be spectators at team practices.
- Students may attend athletic competitions that are held in the gym or on athletic fields. These students are expected to be in the stands and to exhibit proper spectator behavior. Students who attend events must have rides at the end of the event. All students must be picked up within 30 minutes after a sporting event.
- Students will not be permitted to wait outside for their rides.
- Students who are leaving help sessions or the library should go directly to their vehicles or supervised activity. All other students should go directly to Assembly Hall.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES AND BEHAVIOR

Students must remember that they represent Frassati Catholic High School at all times, including when off campus outside of school hours. As students at a Catholic school they are expected to be virtuous and morally responsible and at all times to uphold the values of Frassati Catholic High School in both word and action.

Code of Conduct

Created in the image and likeness of God, the students of Frassati Catholic are called to imitate Christ in all things. Through daily formation in all areas of school life, students are encouraged to develop habits of honesty, hard work, respectfulness, and responsibility for one's actions that are the marks of mature Christian integrity. They are expected to reflect modesty and self-respect in their language, appearance, and behavior. Although growth in virtue and self-discipline takes time and hard work, it is a joyful endeavor that results in great self-knowledge as well as a sense of humility and gratitude. The purpose of the discipline policy is to help each student grow in his/her ability to exercise a wise freedom in all areas of life.

A Frassati Catholic student is called to conduct him/herself according to the Catholic teachings and mission of Frassati Catholic at all times and places, including outside of school hours and when off campus. Failing to do so may have consequences at school.

Frassati Catholic High School reserves the right to discipline students for conduct, whether inside or outside school, that is detrimental to the reputation of the school.

Students traveling on any Frassati Catholic sponsored trip are expected to abide by all of the student expectations of the Parent and Student Handbook, including all aspects of the Code of Conduct and the uniform policies.

Parents, faculty and students work together to create a Catholic school environment. These basic components include:

- Teachers have a right to teach. No student will stop the teacher from teaching.
- Students have a right to learn. No student will stop another student from learning.

The following criteria for the Code of Conduct is based upon the Catholic moral values and respect for others taught by Jesus. Students will:

- be honest and committed to integrity.
- not give or receive unauthorized assistance on tests, quizzes or assignments.
- be respectful and courteous toward all teachers and adults.
- refrain from harassment of any kind.
- use appropriate language.
- speak respectfully to and about others.
- respect all school and personal property.
- refrain from any deliberate disruption in the school.
- adhere to the school's cell phone and electronic device policy.
- comply with the Technology Acceptable Use Policy.
- demonstrate good sportsmanship when engaged in all school-sponsored co- and extra-curricular activities.
- be present for all required activities unless officially excused by the administration.
- adhere to all dress codes.
- not leave school grounds during the school day for any reason without permission from the administration.
- not bring to school nor possess at school any real or toy knives, guns (or any facsimile thereof), sharp objects that may be used as a weapon, matches, lighters, sparklers, laser devices or any facsimile thereof. It is understood if this term is violated, suspension or expulsion may result.
- maintain and support others who maintain a safe and drug-free environment at or near school and at all school sponsored functions/activities. Students understand that possession or distribution of alcohol, drugs, tobacco, vaping paraphernalia, drug paraphernalia, or any other substance that may be harmful, dangerous, or forbidden will result in suspension or expulsion from school.
- not engage in any physical or verbal contact with another student which could be interpreted to be an inappropriate display of affection. Such conduct is prohibited on school grounds or at school-sponsored activities.
- at all times, whether at school or in the community, conduct themselves in a manner which reflects the Catholic values and principles of the school.

All of the conduct expectations include student use of the internet and Internet enabled devices.

The school observes this Code of Conduct because it is built on fundamental Catholic social teachings. The role of the administration, staff and faculty is to work with the students and parents to assist the students in developing a strong Christian attitude toward life.

Discipline

Because it is impossible to foresee all problems which arise, this Handbook empowers the faculty and administration to take disciplinary action for any behavior (within or outside of the school community) which violates the spirit, philosophy and code of conduct of the school, even though not specified.

In justice to the other students, circumstances may dictate that a student be removed temporarily or permanently from the particular school setting.

In cases where a student is continually disruptive of others or in the case of a single serious disciplinary infraction, the Dean of Students is informed of the situation and he or she will assist in the development of a course of action to be taken to correct the situation.

Students who lack self-discipline or who violate the rights of others can expect disciplinary action. Each offense will be dealt with on an individual basis according to the age of the student, the nature of the infraction and the severity of the case. Repeated infractions can result in more serious consequences, but there is no requirement for progressive discipline.

Specific Disciplinary Policies

Frassati Catholic High School's discipline system is based on a gradation of minor offenses, major offenses, suspension, dismissal, and expulsion which pertain to different levels of responsibility, as follows:

Lunch Detention

Any noteworthy failure on the part of the student to observe the general rules and regulations will result in a lunch detention. Students will receive an e-mail notification of the lunch detention. The student will be required to serve the detention on the day designated by the Dean of Students. Students report to lunch detention within 10 minutes of the start of lunch. Any student who is late or who fails to serve the detention on the assigned day will serve two successive lunch detentions. Any student who is absent and misses the detention will serve the detention on the next available day determined by the Dean of Students.

Minor infractions that result in a lunch detention include, but are not limited to:

- Failure to obey directions
- Public display of affection
- Failure to have access card on your person
- Minor classroom behavior problems
- Excessive noise in the halls
- Misuse of passes
- Unexcused tardy
- Accumulation of three (3) Dress Code/Grooming code violations
- Writing or passing of notes
- Littering
- Gum chewing/candy/food

After-School Detention

Accumulation of three lunch detentions or a major infraction will result in an after-school detention. Students and Parents will receive an e-mail notification. After-school detention is held on Thursdays from 3:15 to 5:15 p.m. Transportation, jobs, activities, etc. are not acceptable excuses for missing detention. Any student who is late or fails to serve the detention on the assigned day will serve the next two successive after-school detentions. Students must report to after-school detention prepared to do academic work for two hours. Students may also be required to do clean-up work around the school building and grounds. Proper attire for after-school detention is the casual school uniform, unless indicated by the Dean of Students.

Major infractions that result in an after-school detention include, but are not limited to:

- Violation of the cell phone/electronic device policy
- Use of profanity/obscenity
- Disruptive behavior at assemblies/Mass
- Being disrespectful to a teacher, staff member, or guest
- Lying to faculty or staff
- Misconduct on bus
- Gambling
- Unexcused absence from class
- Plagiarism/Cheating/Collusion
- Presence in an "off limits" area
- Uncooperative behavior or language
- Unauthorized accessing of computer programs, data, or message capabilities

Saturday Detention

If a student accumulates three after-school detentions or has one serious infraction, the student will receive a Saturday detention. Students will receive an e-mail notification. Saturday detention will be held on Saturdays from 8:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. Transportation, jobs, activities, etc. are not acceptable excuses for missing detention. Any student who is late or fails to serve the detention on the assigned day will serve the next two successive Saturday detentions. Students must report to Saturday detention prepared to do academic work for three hours. Students may also be required to do clean-up work around the school building and grounds. Proper attire for Saturday detention is the casual school uniform, unless indicated by the Dean of Students.

Suspension

Suspension may be imposed as determined by the administration. Students who receive suspension do not get credit for schoolwork due or completed on the day(s) of suspension. Once a student is suspended, parents may be required to sign a behavioral contract in which they signify their understanding of the problem and agree to work with the school in correcting the situation.

The failure of the parents to execute the above referenced agreement shall preclude the student from returning to the regular instructional program. This policy applies to in-school and out-of-school suspensions.

A student may arrive at a suspension in three different ways:

- Upon receiving a third Saturday detention
- When a student's behavior becomes detrimental to the physical, academic, or spiritual welfare and progress of other students
- Violation of the cell phone/electronic device policy

A student may serve a suspension either in-school or out-of-school based on the nature of the incident and the welfare of the school community. The Dean of Students will notify the parents by telephone. The Dean of Students may require a disciplinary conference with the student and parent/guardian.

Offenses that may lead to suspension include, but are not limited to:

- Plagiarism/Cheating/Collusion
- Damaging another student's property (student is responsible for paying for the cost of repairs)
- Damaging/defacing school property (student is responsible for paying for the cost of repairs)
- Disrespect to a teacher or staff member
- Fighting (when reasonable doubt exists as to the aggressor, all of those involved may receive the same consequence)
- Forgery
- Hazing/Harassment
- Theft
- Truancy - leaving school or skipping school without authorization
- Unauthorized modification and/or deletion of computer programs or data
- Use/possession of tobacco products, vapes, vaping paraphernalia at school
- Use/possession of alcohol at school
- Possession/Use of inappropriate materials, such as weapons, pornography, etc.

Dismissal

Conduct which is disruptive to the learning atmosphere and/or contrary to the school's Code of Conduct is justification for the administration to dismiss a student at the close of the school year.

Students who are dismissed may apply for readmission after one full year.

Students who withdraw or are asked to leave Frassati Catholic High School are not permitted to be guests at dances or other social events that are sponsored by the school.

Expulsion

Expulsion may be resorted to when one or all of the following are present:

- a serious infraction of school rules occurs;
- the student has demonstrated continuing disregard of school rules for which other means of discipline have proven ineffectual;
- the student's continued presence in the school is considered by school officials to be a serious hindrance to the safety or welfare of the school community;
- a parent repeatedly or seriously violates proper school protocol, displays inappropriate or disruptive conduct toward students or displays disrespectful, disruptive or harassing behavior toward teachers or staff.

If the administration believes it necessary to expel a student, the administration will notify the student and the student's parents about the student's action and provide them with an opportunity to respond in accordance with the school's disciplinary appeals process.

Investigative Process

- When allegations about student violations of the Code of Conduct are made known to the administration, the following process will be followed to ensure that each student is treated fairly and his or her reputation is safeguarded. Certain allegations of illegal activity require the administration to contact law enforcement to conduct the investigation.
- The individual(s) making the allegation is interviewed and any evidence of Code of Conduct violations is collected.
- The student(s) accused of violating the Code of Conduct, with his or her parents, will be told of the accusation and interviewed about the accusations.

Student Regulations and Procedures

Privacy of individual students must be balanced against the need to protect the health, welfare and safety of other members of the school community.

Searches

The Principal and/or her designee has the right to protect the health, welfare and safety of school community members against drugs, weapons, unauthorized publications and other contraband materials. Search of a student's person and/or personal property on school property (e.g. automobiles, etc.) or at school activities may be conducted by the school Principal or other designated officials if they have reasonable cause to do so. Searches shall be conducted in the presence of at least two school employees. The failure of a student to voluntarily submit to a search shall be presumptive evidence of the existence of contraband and grounds for appropriate disciplinary action.

Disciplinary Appeals Process

When parents or students have questions or concerns regarding the disciplinary process at Frassati Catholic High School, they should communicate these concerns in writing to the Dean of Students Principal within one week of the particular incident.

Interrogation of Students

Unless provided with a court-issued warrant, the Principal must first be consulted before law enforcement authorities are allowed to speak to any student for interrogation purposes of alleged illegal activities. This policy does not apply to Child Protective Services (CPS) officers, who are by law entitled to interview children.

The questioning by police officers of students in school or on school grounds about alleged illegal activities shall meet the following conditions:

- The Principal, the Dean of Students or the Principal's designee shall be alerted.

- The police officers shall report to the Principal's office.
- Permission from the student's parent/guardian, either by phone or in person, prior to questioning must be acquired.
- The Principal or a school representative shall be present.
- The questioning shall be conducted in a private room where participants cannot be seen or heard by students and/or other school personnel.

The police officers, under unusual circumstances, may take legal actions that they deem necessary.

Lockers

- Each student is assigned a locker for the storage of books and equipment.
- Locks for the lockers are assigned by the school.
- Students who have problems with their lockers should report them to the Dean of Students.
- All student lockers are to be neat and clean.
- Lockers are school property and are not to be written on, either inside or outside.
- Students are not permitted to use wallpaper, inside or out, or to make modifications which will damage or permanently alter the lockers.
- Following second semester exams all lockers are to be cleaned inside and out and all trash disposed of properly.
- Unauthorized entry into another student's locker is considered a major offense against respect for another person's property.
- Frassati Catholic High School reserves the right to search student lockers at any time.

Backpacks

Students are permitted to carry backpacks to class. Cell phones and electronic devices should be turned off and stored in the students' lockers and not in backpacks. Access to backpacks and doing homework are not permitted during lunch.

Lost and Found

All found items will be taken to the lost and found closet. Unclaimed items will be sold at the quarterly Lost and Found sale and all unsold items will be disposed of or donated to a charitable organization. Personal items should not be left in the hallways or other common areas. Students are reminded to keep purses and valuables with them at all times or locked in their locker. In the case of missing or lost items students should report the incident to the main office immediately and complete an incident report to assist in locating the missing items.

Hall Passes

A student must have a signed agenda book, which serves as a hall pass, if he/she wishes to go from one location in the school to another, such as from one classroom to another, to his/her locker, to the restroom, to the office, etc. A student may never be in the halls during class time without the agenda book signed by a teacher. If an agenda is lost, it must be replaced. The replacement cost is $20.

False Documents

Frassati Catholic High School's ability to serve the needs of each student depends upon the authenticity and reliability of the information available. Any effort to submit false documents or otherwise deceive parents or personnel of Frassati Catholic High School is detrimental to the school's need for accurate information and is a very serious matter. In the case where a student submits false documents concerning his or her attendance or grades, the penalty may be suspension or dismissal.

Uniform Philosophy

The primary purpose of Frassati Catholic High School's uniform is 1) to help our students grow intellectually in habits of ordered, logical thinking and 2) to ensure a look of unity and equality within our school community as well as to promote the search for deeper qualities on which to build self-confidence and Christian identity.

The uniform of Frassati Catholic High School is traditional and classic. Students must present a neat, clean and modest appearance at all times. Anything that takes away from the overall classic appearance of our uniform (including, but not limited to, visible tattoos, body piercing, excessive or heavy jewelry and unnatural coloring or styling of hair) is not allowed and considered "out of uniform." Students out of uniform without prior permission of the administration will be issued a Uniform Notification. Three Uniform Notifications will result in a lunch detention.

Frassati Catholic High School's philosophy that underlies our school dress code is based on the nature of the human person, a mysterious and wonderful union of body and soul. This union is such that our body influences our soul and vice versa. How we dress our bodies can influence the powers of our soul, particularly the intellectual power to a certain degree. When we dress more formally, for example, our manners tend also to follow suit, and we use a heightened diction in our speech and are more refined in our actions. It is interesting to note that recent studies⁴⁰ show that students whose dress is orderly, neat, and sharp tend to be more orderly and sharp in their thinking, also.

Our school uniform reflects the spirit of Frassati Catholic and the seriousness with which we pursue intellectual excellence. Our approach to academic excellence is not sloppy or haphazard; neither is our dress code. Our students strive for order and precision in their thinking. Their clean, crisp, and sharp school uniform should reflect and support this goal.

HEALTH, SAFETY AND WELFARE

Accidents and First Aid

The parents of an injured student will be notified of the accident/injury by the administration or the administration's designee as soon as reasonably possible, taking into consideration such factors as the apparent severity of the accident/injury and the priority of providing assistance to the student.

If an incident results in a medical condition or injury which can be reasonably known to the appropriate supervisory faculty/staff member and/or the Principal, the school and/or its staff are authorized to render reasonable basic first aid if such direct medical assistance would, in the opinion of the school, serve to minimize the severity of the injured person's condition. As an example, staff should initially resort to using only ice, band aids, soap and water when treating cuts and/or scrapes to avoid any possible known or unknown allergic reactions to salves or creams. In addition, staff may secure professional diagnosis and/or treatment if such action, in the opinion of the school, appears to be reasonably warranted. The school and school officials shall be expressly held harmless from any liability costs or expenses associated with the professional diagnosis and/or any treatment or first aid provided (including but not limited to the cost of transportation), such costs or expenses being the responsibility of the injured party or, if a student, the student's parents.

Alcohol, Tobacco and Drugs

The use and/or possession of alcohol, drugs, cigarettes, tobacco products, vaping paraphernalia or drug paraphernalia by a Frassati Catholic High School student on or off school property, at any function or event, whether or not it is school-sponsored, is forbidden. The presence of any student in any state of intoxication at any function or event, school activity, on or off campus, is forbidden. Failure to observe either of these regulations may result in dismissal. The administration of Frassati Catholic High School reserves the right to search the person, locker or vehicle as well as require a drug/alcohol assessment of any student about whom there is a reasonable suspicion of the possession or use of either drugs or alcohol. Students are required to follow the recommendations of the assessment.

Substance Abuse

The school makes every effort to make students aware of the dangers and consequences of the unlawful use of substances.

- It is unlawful for any person to manufacture, sell, or distribute or possess with intent to sell, give or distribute any controlled substance, imitation controlled substance or marijuana while upon the property of the school; on any school bus; upon any public property or any property open to the public use within 1000 feet of the school (or any school bus stop when students are waiting to be picked up and transported to or are being dropped off from school or a school-sponsored activity.) If a student knows or suspects that any of the foregoing activities are occurring, he/she must immediately report the matter to the school administration/faculty so the appropriate law enforcement agency may be contacted.

- If a student is suspected or is discovered to have (a) violated the foregoing policy with respect to any controlled substance, imitation controlled substance or marijuana or (b) used, possessed or distributed alcohol, tobacco, and/or vape paraphernalia while upon the property of the school; on any school bus; upon public property or any property open to the public use within 1000 feet of the school (or any school bus stop when students are waiting to be picked up and transported to or are being dropped off from school or a school-sponsored activity), the student will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including expulsion. In the event school staff believe that a student is under the influence of an illegal substance, the parents will be notified. School administration reserves the right to require that the student be taken for drug testing within 24 hours and that the results of the testing be shared with the appropriate school administrators. If, however, a violation of the law has occurred, the proper law enforcement agency will be contacted.
- A student shall not possess or use drug or vaping paraphernalia, including, but not limited to, water pipes, cigarette paper rolling machines, miniature scales, Juul pods/cartridges, or vape juice, on the property of the school, on any school bus and/or any school sponsored activity, whether discovered in an authorized search of his or her private property or on school property. Any student who violates this provision will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including expulsion.
- Parents and adults within the Frassati Catholic community are likewise prohibited from providing alcohol or drugs to any student.

Weapons

- A student shall not possess, use or threaten to use on the property of the school, on any school bus; and/or at any school-sponsored activity, any weapons (including but not limited to any pistols, revolvers, rifles or other firearms, stun weapons, tasers, knives, flailing instruments (which may sometimes be known as nunchucks or fighting chains), sling shots, metal knuckles, any type of pointed metal throwing disk or dart, mace, pepper spray or other similar propellant or any type of explosive, incendiary or poison gas, bomb, grenade or rocket) or any facsimiles thereof, or any object that can be used with the intent of threatening or harming an individual, except when expressly authorized by a member of the school administration/faculty for authorized school purposes (such as knives for use only in food preparation activities in family life/home economics class; chemicals solely for use in instructional lessons as part of the school's academic curriculum; etc.). Any student who violates this provision will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including expulsion. If there is reason to believe a violation of law has occurred, parents as well as the proper law enforcement agency will be immediately contacted.

Inappropriate Materials

Some materials are not in keeping with the school's mission and are not permitted on school property or at school functions. Possession of these items can result in the expulsion of the student.

Students are not permitted to possess the following items on school property or at school functions.

Items include but are not limited to:

- Pornographic or sexually explicit material
- Weapons, weapon facsimiles, including lasers or shock producing instruments
- Tobacco (including smokeless tobacco products)
- Vaping paraphernalia
- Illegal drugs
- Prescription medications not prescribed for the student and dispensed, or registered with the clinic
- Over-the-counter medication not registered with the clinic
- Alcoholic or intoxicating beverages or food items
- Valuable personal property, foodstuffs, or items not intended for support of academic endeavors to be stored in lockers, cabinets or other school spaces.
- Explosive materials/fireworks

Identification Cards

All students are issued a student ID card. All students should carry their ID cards with them at all times. Students are required to have their student ID cards for social functions and for free admittance to all home athletic events.

Off-Limits Areas

Areas of the school that are off-limits to the students during school hours (unless accompanied by a faculty or staff member) are the parking lots, athletic fields, faculty workrooms, kitchen, concession stand (Café 21), stage, and backstage.

Illness During the School Day

Students who are ill may report to the school clinic but may not remain in the clinic for more than 15 minutes per day. Students must report to the clinic with their agenda hall pass signed by the teacher whose class they are missing.

Students with fevers or communicable illnesses will be sent home to reduce the risk of infection to the student body.

If it is necessary for a student to go home, a parent will be contacted from the clinic. Calls to parents by students regarding in-school illnesses must be made at the clinic or main office. Students are not permitted to use cell phones or other school phones for this purpose. If the student drives to school, verbal permission from the parent to allow the student to drive home must be obtained.

While attendance is important, students with contagious illnesses should remain at home. No student should be sent to school that has a fever of 100 degrees or higher in the previous 24 hours, has been vomiting, has had diarrhea in the previous 24 hours, or who has an undiagnosed skin rash. A student who comes to the clinic with a temperature of 100 degrees or higher, is vomiting, has diarrhea, or who has a skin rash will be sent home.

Students may choose to wear a mask while recovering from a contagious illness, but not for longer than 5-7 days at a time.

Consent for Medication

Over-the-counter (OTC) medications must be accompanied by a consent form (dosage included) signed by the parent/guardian. The clinic stocks certain OTC medications and can be administered to a student if a consent form signed by the parent/guardian is on file. OTC medications provided by the family must be in the original container with the student's name on the container.

Prescription medication must be prescribed by a Physician or Nurse Practitioner and authorized by the parent/guardian. All medication must be properly labeled and consistent with the medication order. Pharmacy containers and labeling are required; a second labeled container can be obtained by asking the pharmacist. Physician samples must be appropriately labeled by the physician or parent/guardian. The following information must be on the Pharmacy label: name of student, name of medication, dosage and strength of medication, date of medication order, route, time and frequency of medication, authorized health care provider name, special instructions.

All medications, over-the-counter and prescription, must be kept in the clinic and not with the student except for inhalers or emergency medications authorized by the healthcare provider. All medications authorized for administration in school should be given at home at least once before being administered at school.

Medications must be delivered to the school by the parent/guardian or, as an exception, an adult designated by the parent. Students may not transport medication to or from school. Expired medication will not be given. The effective expiration date of a medication is the earlier of either the pharmacy labeled expiration date or the manufacturer expiration date.

Consent for over-the-counter or prescription medications must be updated each year. All medication kept in the school will be stored in a locked area accessible only to authorized personnel.

Within one week after the expiration of the medication order, the parent/guardian/adult designee must personally collect any unused portion of the medication. Medication not claimed within the period will be destroyed.

Immunizations

Every student enrolled in a Catholic school in the state of Texas shall be immunized against vaccine preventable diseases caused by infectious agents in accordance with the immunization schedule adopted by the Texas Department of State Health Services. A student who fails to present the required evidence shall not be accepted for enrollment. Pharmacy vaccination records may be accepted from any US pharmacy so long as the records are sent directly to the school from the pharmacy.

Immunization Exemption

The only exemption to the foregoing requirement is a medical exemption signed by a licensed physician (M.D. or D.O.) authorized to practice in the state of Texas.

Health Required Documentation

A health assessment update should be completed by the parent or guardian each year. All information is confidential.

A physical exam, to be completed by a Physician/Nurse Practitioner, should be done after March 1 and is required of all students entering grade 9 and any students new to Frassati Catholic. In subsequent years, a yearly physical exam is required to participate in athletics.

Allergen Awareness

Frassati Catholic aligns our health and safety measures with those suggested by the Texas Catholic Conference of Bishops Education Department (TCCB-ED). With all food allergies, including peanut/tree nut sensitivity, we depend on our students to use prudent judgment and remain vigilant in regard to their own unique allergies. While we are not able to be a fully peanut-free facility, families should know that our school aims to create a safe and supportive environment for all students we will make every effort to not knowingly distribute food that contains peanut/tree nut products. However, the primary responsibility for preventing anaphylactic reactions remains with the individual.

While the risk of accidental exposure to a food allergen can be significantly diminished, it can never be completely removed. Given that anaphylaxis can be triggered by even a minute amount of the specific allergen, at risk students are encouraged to follow these guidelines:

- Eat only food which they have brought from home unless it is pre-packaged, clearly labeled, and would be approved by their parents.
- Wash hands before eating.
- Do not share food, utensils, or containers.
- Place food on a napkin, wax paper, or other container rather than in direct contact with a table.

Harassment / Hazing / Bullying

Harassment or hazing in any form is contrary to the Catholic philosophy of Frassati Catholic High School. Any personal harassment or hazing is considered extremely serious.

The common good and Christian justice demand a school environment that is safe and affirming of the dignity of all persons. Harassment, bullying, or hazing in any form is contrary to the Christian environment of Frassati Catholic High School. Any personal harassment, bullying, or hazing, whether of a physical, sexual, or emotional nature is considered extremely serious and should be reported immediately to the administration. The penalty, as determined by the administration, is in-school suspension, suspension, or dismissal.

Bullying is defined as any aggressive and unwanted behavior that is intended to harm, intimidate, or humiliate the victim; involves real or perceived power imbalance between aggressor or aggressors and victim; and is repeated over time or causes severe emotional trauma. Bullying does not include ordinary teasing, horseplay, argument or peer conflict. Examples include, but are not limited to:

- Physical intimidation or assault
- Extortion
- Oral or written threats, including text messaging and social media
- Teasing
- Putdowns
- Name calling
- Threatening looks
- Gestures or acts of aggression (Overt and Covert)
- Cruel rumors and false accusations
- Social Isolation
- Cyberbullying

Cyberbullying is defined as bullying through digital technology and social media—when a student is tormented, threatened, harassed, humiliated, embarrassed, or otherwise targeted by another student using the Internet, interactive and digital technologies, or mobile phones.

Pregnancy

Any student who becomes pregnant during the time she is enrolled in school will be given every opportunity to continue and/or complete her education in a Catholic school. If a pregnant student chooses to leave and/or the doctor recommends she leave, she will be considered as homebound for the duration of her pregnancy. The student, her parents and the school share jointly in the decision for her to attend classes or to pursue a specially formulated homebound program.

Upon learning of a student pregnancy, the school should demonstrate its support for the student(s):

- a. Inform the school chaplain or parish priest, so he can provide additional support to the student(s);
- b. Meet with the student(s) and parent(s) to discuss the need for counseling (i.e. services available through programs such as Gabriel Project).
- c. Inform the school nurse to ensure adequate prenatal safety and guidance.

Abortion

A fundamental tenet of our Catholic faith is that human life must be respected and protected absolutely from the moment of conception. Formal cooperation in an abortion constitutes a grave offense.

1. If the school has reason to believe that a student underwent or helped to procure an abortion, the school will use reasonable means to determine whether there is any basis for such information.
2. If there is sufficient credible evidence to support the school's suspicion(s) that the student did have or procured an abortion, the school will schedule a conference with the student and the parent(s). If the individual remains a student, the family must agree to set up a counseling program which must include spiritual direction. Counseling is also required for the aborted child's father and/or any student who has helped procure the abortion, if a student at the school.
3. If this plan is rejected by the student(s) and parent(s), then this lack of cooperation by the student(s) would indicate that the presence of the student in the school would no longer be beneficial to either party.

AWARDS

Awards are conferred at special events during the year including the Summit Awards Ceremony and the seasonal athletics recognition evenings.

The mission and vision of Frassati Catholic is embodied in our patron, Saint Pier Giorgio Frassati. The characteristics of his life serve as a model for the entire school community. Therefore, these awards seek to recognize those students who have embraced these characteristics and made them their own.

ZEALOUS STUDENT

Although he sometimes found school tedious and difficult, Saint Pier Giorgio Frassati persevered in his studies out of a sense of family honor and a desire to place his education at the service of others. He was drawn to the beauty of truth as depicted in opera and literature, often reciting from memory large sections of Dante in his booming voice. Guided by the Catholic Church's teachings on social justice, he became a leader in political movements to seek just laws for the human person. In college he pursued a degree in mining engineering so that he could design safer working conditions for miners.

These students have maintained all A's and B's with a GPA of 3.5 or higher and received no Saturday detentions for the Q1, S1, Q3, and Q4 reporting periods.

TRUE FRIEND

Always cheerful in spite of his difficult life at home, Saint Pier Giorgio Frassati attracted a group of friends that jokingly called themselves Tipi Loschi (Italian for “The Sinister Ones”). They often played innocent practical jokes or enjoyed fun trips, writing letters with code names to any missing group members. Pier Giorgio was a leader in the group and made sure that no matter where they went, attending Mass was included. With such a magnetic personality, it would have been easy for Pier Giorgio to draw others selfishly to himself, but he focused instead on what was best for others. He wanted to lead all his friends to the greatest good—friendship with Christ. Pier Giorgio was a true friend to others because this friendship with the Lord Jesus was the center of his life.

SERVANT OF THE POOR

Pier Giorgio became a member of the St. Vincent de Paul Society in high school, visiting poor families at least twice a week. Bringing food, medicine, and just his good cheer, Pier Giorgio saved all his money to do everything he could for them. At the age of 24, just months away from completing his college degree, Pier Giorgio contracted a fatal case of polio, most likely from serving the poor. On the day of his funeral, hundreds of the poor and needy he had served poured into the streets of Turin to join his funeral procession. His family was shocked to discover that he had quietly cared for so many people.

APPENDIX B

ACCEPTABLE USE POLICY

Frassati Catholic High School offers a college-preparatory education in a Christ-centered atmosphere where students have the opportunity to grow to their fullest potential through a well-rounded academic and moral formation. In support of that mission, Frassati Catholic is committed to the use of technology as a tool to expand opportunities and conduct academic research consistent with educational goals. The goal is to form students to be ethical digital citizens who can access information and utilize technology in a safe, legal way. With these opportunities come responsibilities.

The Acceptable Use Policy is designed to give students and families clear, concise guidelines regarding the use of technology on the Frassati Catholic campus. The underlying premise of this policy is that all the members of the Frassati Catholic High School community must uphold the values of honesty and integrity, consistent with the mission of the high school while conforming to the laws of the United States and the State of Texas. While providing students with access to extensive resources, safeguards are also in place to protect students from pernicious or harmful materials on the Internet. However, on a global network, it is impossible to control all inappropriate materials. That is where building habits of virtue are necessary. Students are expected to use good judgment and to utilize technology with integrity. Signing this document indicates that the parties who signed have read the terms and conditions carefully and agree to abide by them. Failure to comply with the terms of this agreement can result in loss of privileges and disciplinary action.

Note: This Acceptable Use Policy and all rules and regulations contained herein applies to all students using the Frassati Catholic Campus technology and network resources (wired and/or wireless), including e-mail accounts, hard-drives, software and applications on any computer, laptop, electronic tablet, iPad (school-owned, school-issued, or personally owned) or mobile device on the Frassati Catholic campus. Agreement is implicit with the use of the device, even without a signature. By using this network, users have agreed to this policy.

USAGE GUIDELINES

Frassati Catholic provides students access to various digital resources, including a wide range of educational materials through computers and online services. Content-filtering technology is used on all school computers with Internet access to protect against unacceptable web content. However, no web-filtering technology is 100% effective. Frassati Catholic makes every effort to monitor online activity. Listed below are guidelines and expected behaviors that each student is to follow while using technology at Frassati Catholic High School.

Safety and Privacy

- Students are not to give any personal identifying information regarding themselves or other students through e-mail or the Internet, including full name, phone number, address, passwords, etc., except regarding themselves in the college-application process.

- Students are not to provide e-mail addresses or other personal identifying information regarding faculty, staff, or administration to anyone outside of the school without permission.
- Student pictures and/or work may not be included on a school/classroom webpage with identifying captions, unless the site is password protected, or with parental permission for use as approved by the administration in official Frassati Catholic communications.

Password Protection

Internet passwords are provided for each user's personal use only and are, therefore, confidential. Students are NOT to share any passwords and must secure and maintain private passwords for network, e-mail use, the web portal, Naviance, and FACTS, as well as laptop/Chromebook access. If a student password has been discovered, the student will change it immediately and notify a teacher or administrator who in turn will notify the Technology Department.

Network Access

- Students are not to knowingly degrade or disrupt the network, online services, or equipment. This includes tampering with computer hardware or software, vandalizing data, invoking computer viruses, or attempting to gain access to restricted or unauthorized network services (i.e. guest Wi-Fi), including servers or network information that is not open to the public.
- The utilization of proxy-avoidance IP numbers, websites, or programs is prohibited.
- Any commercial use is prohibited. Students may not use the school network for commercial or private business reasons.
- Frassati Catholic High School is not responsible for damaged or lost personal data transferred through the campus network or stored on school-owned laptops, computers, or servers.

Accessing Inappropriate Material

- The Internet is a valuable source of information for education. Network and Internet access is provided as a tool for educational purposes only. Inappropriate materials available on the Internet (i.e. and materials that would be filtered) are strictly prohibited. These materials include, but are not limited to, items of sexual or pornographic nature, extremist or militant materials, gambling, depictions of violence, images that are intended to be abusive or harassing, etc. Students must not access, display, or store these types of material. Frassati Catholic's network and systems, including any and all computers and devices connected to them, will be monitored using network monitoring systems and other tools available, including but not limited to content-filtering devices and firewalls. Information monitored and reported includes username and sites/URLs accessed, applications accessed, and network resources accessed. Certain activities or sites may simply be blocked, where others may generate a notification to IT and Administrative staff. If a student accidentally accesses a website that contains obscene, derogatory, pornographic, or otherwise offensive material, the student is to notify a teacher, an administrator, or a member of the Information Technology Department immediately so that the sites can be blocked from further access.

- Frassati Catholic High School has the right to monitor, inspect, copy, review, and store at any time and without prior notice any and all usage of the computer network and Internet access, including transmitted and received information.

Online Etiquette

- Students are to use appropriate language and graphics in all digital communication. Swearing, vulgarities, suggestive, obscene, belligerent, harassing, threatening, demeaning or abusive language of any kind are not acceptable.
- Use of the school's online access to make, distribute, or redistribute jokes, stories, obscene material, material based on slurs, or to engage in cyber-bullying is strictly prohibited. Violations will be subject to disciplinary measures.
- No public blogs, forums, social media or other online posts damaging to the school, or its students, faculty, or staff are to be posted using school computers and/or networks.
- No use of the Frassati Catholic High School name, school logo, or crest is to be used without express permission of the Principal.

E-Mail, Online Services and Social Media

Frassati Catholic e-mail accounts enable students to access components of their Google accounts in order to manage school-related business.

- E-mail addresses provided by the school are to be used only to access Google accounts and/or to communicate regarding school-related business.
- E-mail (personal or otherwise) during class is prohibited unless authorized by faculty or administration.
- Instant messaging, blogging, participation in chat rooms, Skype, Twitter, and other social media (such as Facebook, Instagram, or Pinterest) are all prohibited (and subject to disciplinary action) on the Frassati Catholic Campus network during the academic day, except as part of an assigned class activity that is approved and supervised by faculty or administration.

Students must recognize limits to privacy in electronic communications through e-mail. While Frassati Catholic High School will make every effort to keep electronic data secure, there are limits to privacy in electronic communications. Privacy is not guaranteed and users should have no expectation of privacy in messages sent through or files saved to the campus system. The administration of Frassati Catholic High School reserves the right to access electronic data to maintain the system, investigate security or abuse incidents or violations of this or other Frassati Catholic policies. Frassati Catholic owns all e-mail accounts.

Cell Phones/Mobile Devices

- Students are not permitted to use cell phones, smart watches, or other communication devices on campus during the academic day except before 7:45 a.m. or after 3:00 p.m. in non-academic settings. Cell phones are not permitted in the Library at any time. Cell phones are not permitted in any other locations specified for before and after school academic activities. When school is in session, cell phones are to be turned off and put away in a locker or vehicle. Silent is not off.

- If a violation occurs, cell phones, smart watches and communication devices will be confiscated and an automatic after-school detention will be issued. Violating the policy a second time will result in an automatic Saturday detention and parents will be notified by the administration. A third violation of the policy will result in the student serving one day of in-school suspension. The school reserves the right to check the contents of a student's cell phone or other electronic device.

Audio and Video

- Listening to music, either aloud or with ear buds (as with a tablet or laptop), is not permitted during class or study hall without teacher permission.
- Listening to Internet music websites during the academic day is strictly prohibited, as it has a negative impact on the availability of school resources (bandwidth) for academic purposes.
- Audio on computers and mobile should be turned off unless required for the activity being conducted.
- The use of computers or mobile devices to watch movies/videos (i.e., on YouTube) is not permitted during the school day unless required for a class activity and approved and supervised by the teacher.
- Audio or video recording (including taking pictures) of others is not allowed unless prior written permission of all parties being recorded is received.
- Sharing of music (including iTunes music sharing) over the school network is strictly prohibited and is subject to appropriate consequences.
- Video streaming of any kind is only allowed with the permission and supervision of a faculty member in conjunction with a class project. Video streaming has a negative impact on the availability of school resources for academic purposes.
- Violation of any of these policies will result in a minor infraction or detention and these items being turned in to the administration.

Games

Games are not permitted during school hours except as part of an assigned, in-class activity. Games that are “played” using the school network are not allowed.

Generative Artificial Intelligence

Generative Artificial Intelligence (AI) technologies create text, images, audio, videos, and other media based upon prompts or inputs. These Generative AI tools include, but are not limited to, DALL-E, ChatGPT, Gemini, and Scribe. Students may not create with or use output from generative AI for assignments unless explicitly approved by faculty or staff.

Unless previously approved by a teacher, submitting work containing any content created by Generative AI is cheating. Use of Generative AI will result in an after school detention, a zero for the assignment, or other consequences as decided by the teacher and/or administration.

Teachers and administrators reserve the right to employ AI detection tools to determine if Generative AI was most likely used.

Students must not give an AI model any personal or professional information about themselves, the school, other students or their families, or school employees.

With respect to Cyberbullying, creating, using, or distributing Generative AI output that depicts the school, the students, the faculty, the staff, other students, parents, or others in a discourteous or defamatory way will result in disciplinary action including suspension or expulsion. Any output of a sexual nature will be referred to law enforcement and will require suspension of the creator, user, or distributor until the incident is fully resolved and the victim has received required restitution.

Any student or parent found bullying or harassing a victim will face disciplinary action even up to expulsion.

School-owned computers

- Students will not change any operating-system configuration or settings; these have been set by the Information Technology Department. Any change of the operating configuration or settings is subject to disciplinary measures by the administration.
- Students are not allowed to create any BIOS or Open Firmware passwords on any school computer/laptop/tablet/iPad. BIOS or Open Firmware passwords are set through the computer's hardware and are not the same as regular passwords.
- Students are prohibited from accessing faculty, administration, and staff computers, as well as school servers, for any reason without explicit permission from the user or administrator of the computer/server.

Laptops/Tablets/iPads/Chromebooks

- Each teacher creates parameters for student use of laptops/tablets/iPads/Chromebooks in the classroom. Students are permitted to use these devices in study hall and before or after school so long as they abide by the terms of this agreement.
- Texting during school hours on any personal device is not permitted and will result in disciplinary action.
- Student laptops/tablets/iPads/Chromebooks must not be left unattended at any time. They must be in a student's possession or secured in a locked classroom or locker at all times. If a laptop/tablet/iPad/Chromebook is found to be unattended, it will be turned in to the Information Technology Department and the student will receive a lunch detention.
- Students are entirely responsible for backing up their own data. Lost or damaged data is not the responsibility of the school.

- Laptops/tablets/iPads/Chromebooks may not be used in the Assembly Hall during lunch.
- In the case of theft of a device, a police report may be filed by the parent of the student and a copy of the police report (including the serial number) submitted to the administration.
- The school reserves the right to remove any software that has been installed that impedes the educational purpose of the laptop/tablet/iPad/Chromebook program.
- The school will monitor all technology use on campus during the school day, including logging website access, newsgroup access, bandwidth, and network use. Students found in violation of the guidelines will have privileges revoked.

Copyright Law

Copyright Law protects the ownership of another's creative works. In an educational setting, students are permitted to use others' works under the Fair Use Clause, if they meet the restrictions and cite the work.

Downloading and Installing Software

- All installed software must be a legally licensed copy and approved by Frassati Catholic High School and the Information Technology Department.
- The downloading of music files, video files, games, etc., through the school's network is prohibited unless it is part of an assigned, in-class activity.
- Applications, software, movies, songs, and other materials protected by copyright law may not be transmitted or duplicated. This includes copyrighted movies, which may not be "ripped" from DVDs or from the Internet and copied on laptops/tablets/iPads/Chromebooks. Only commercial videos legally purchased from the iTunes store or a similar entity may be downloaded.
- Unauthorized duplication, installation, alteration, or destruction of data programs, hardware, or software is prohibited.

File Sharing

- File sharing with the intent to obtain copyrighted materials such as software, movies, music, games, etc., is prohibited.
- Any program that creates a point-to-point connection between two or more computing devices for the purpose of sharing data (i.e. copyrighted music, videos, movies) is considered file sharing.
- No file-sharing software is to be installed on any device using the school network.

Plagiarism/Cheating/Collusion

- Information and Guidelines are found on pages 15-16.

Shareware and Freeware

Shareware and freeware may only be installed on school computers/laptops with prior approval from the Information Technology Department. Shareware and freeware programs such as animated cursors (i.e., Comet Cursor), screensavers, etc., automatically open connections from outside of our network. These spyware connections not only monitor the computer's activities, but they also slow down the operation of the computer and the network connection.

Consequences

The school reserves the right to enforce appropriate consequences for the violation of any section of the Acceptable Use Policy. Such consequences could include detentions, suspensions, dismissal or the loss of technology privileges for a specific amount of time determined by the administration or even possible legal action. These consequences apply to all students using computers, laptops, iPads/tablets, Chromebooks, smart watches or cell phones/mobile devices on the school's campus, whether these devices are personally owned or school-issued.

- Any laptop/tablet/iPad/Chromebook or mobile device used on the school network, even if privately owned, is subject to all policies and consequences of the Acceptable Use Policy, including the right to search and remove content from the device, and the right to retain the device in the school's possession, in the event of an infraction.
- In the case of repeated abuse and/or damages to a device, the school has the right to revoke a student's privileges of using a device on campus.
- Any change of the operating configuration or settings is subject to disciplinary measures by school administrators.
- Any iPad/tablet/Chromebook/computer/laptop damage that is the result of intentional damage or negligence is not covered by insurance. Consequences for these actions will include the student paying for the repair or replacement of the device, as well as other disciplinary actions as determined by the school administration.
- If a student uses a cell phone, smart watch, or other electronic device during the academic day without permission from a faculty or staff member, the device will be collected and sent to the appropriate administrator's office. The school reserves the right to check a student's calling/texting and photo/video history.
- A student who accumulates several of these violations may lose the privilege to carry the device on campus.
- The Code of Conduct applies also to the use of electronic devices, and students are to report any known violations of the Acceptable Use Policy to appropriate administrative staff members. Random checks of student laptops/tablets/iPads/Chromebooks/other devices (both personally owned and school-issued) may be conducted throughout the year to ensure that these policies are followed.
- Frassati Catholic High School network administrators and their authorized employees monitor the use of information technology resources to help ensure user's security and conformity with policy. Frassati Catholic Technology network administrators reserve the right to examine, use and disclose any data found on the network to further the health, safety, discipline or security of any student or other person or to protect property. They may also use this information in disciplinary actions and will furnish evidence of crime to law enforcement.
- Students must recognize limits to privacy in electronic communications through e-mail, Cloud computing, or network or hard drive files (electronic data). While Frassati Catholic will make every effort to keep electronic data secure, there are limits to privacy. Electronic data privacy is not guaranteed and users should have no expectation of privacy in messages sent or files saved to the campus system. In certain circumstances, it may be necessary for the Information Technology staff to access electronic data to maintain the system, investigate security or abuse incidents or violations of this or other Frassati Catholic policies. Frassati Catholic High School owns all e-mail accounts, network or hard drive files run or saved to its system.

Students are required to adhere to all provisions and conditions set forth in this Acceptable Use Policy. Frassati Catholic High School takes no responsibility for activities conducted or materials stored on computers, laptops/tablets/iPads/Chromebooks, or other technological devices, whether personally owned or issued by the school for student use.
