THE WORD OF LIFE

"The purpose of freedom is that we might be servants of one another. Life in the Spirit is always oriented toward love and service for others."

United States Conference of Catholic Bishops
 Religious Freedom Week 2019

PARENTS OF YOUNG CHILDREN

Please remember all youth under the age of High School MUST be accompanied by an adult should they need to leave the Sanctuary. We ask this in an effort to maintain their safety.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Have you ever heard that the Gospel is radical? In our times, we hear that word and think of fundamentalists, radical activists, or extremists - people who go beyond limits to achieve their goals and may not consider themselves bound by normal propriety or morality. Their ethos might not be so different from James and John in today's Gospel. "Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven to consume them?" This isn't so foreign to some of the stories of the Old Testament. Yet Jesus rebukes them. He won't be exacting in the way his contemporaries expected. There will be no radical rain down of fire and brimstone. Jesus is radical in another way: the call to discipleship.

"The Son of Man has nowhere to rest his head." "Let the dead bury their dead. But you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God." "No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks back to what was left behind is fit for the kingdom of God." These can be difficult passages to read. These are not normal things to hear! It can be easy for many of us to avoid the exacting nature of the Gospel, which might not be what we think it is. James and John wanted to set the bar high for others on the outside and to punish those who didn't meet that standard. Jesus sets the bar high for his disciples, those who say they want to follow him. He may be using some hyperbole, but it's only to send a clear message. This is a radical call, one that has a cost. To truly put God and others first, before ourselves, will involve sacrifice. How is Jesus asking you to be radical today?

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY

Help needed in the Nursery. As you know a nursery is provided during the 11:00am Mass on Sundays. If you love children this might be the ministry for you. Volunteers must be at least 18 years old, pass a Diocesan background check, and take the Safe Haven course (provided online by the Diocese.) Please call the office 843-332 7773 or email stmary2@gmail.com

SAINT'S CORNER

July 3. We don't know a lot about Saint Thomas the Apostle, but tradition has it that he traveled to and preached the gospel in India, where he was eventually martyred. His name means "twin," and due to his skepticism, he is also known as "Doubting Thomas."

GIFT SHOP TRIVIA

What other gifts do we receive from sanctifying grace besides the virtues of faith, hope and charity?

Look for the answer in next week's bulletin

Last week's question and answer

What is Sanctifying Grace?

Sanctifying Grace is a free gift of God which allows us to become children of God, to share in the divine nature, and to inherit eternal life.

Sanctifying grace is the very life of God given to us through Christ in the sacraments. It is the gift of God's life to us. Through it, we put on Christ and live Christ's life. The gift of sanctifying grace might be compared on a human level to the gift of life. Since we have human life, we eat, hear, sense, smell etc.

So to, there are certain powers or capabilities that come with sanctifying grace. These powers are called virtues. A virtue is the habit of doing good, so a virtuous person easily does what is good. Sanctifying grace gives us the virtues of faith, hope and charity. Faith helps us surrender ourselves to God. Hope gives us the desire for eternal happiness. Charity enables us to love God above all things. These virtues give us the grace to have a supernatural relationship with the Blessed Trinity. There are so many more blessings from sanctifying grace and we will cover those next week.

FLOWERS FOR THE ALTAR

Placing flowers on the altar in memory of a love one or in honor of a special occasion is a beautiful way to remember that special person or event. At the same time we are helping our church. You may order your own arrangements from your florist or we will order them for you. If you would like to choose a special weekend please contact Ann Soforic at 843-858-3193.

OFFICE CLOSED

The Parish Office will be closed Thursday July 4th in observance of Independence Day. A Happy and Safe 4th of July to all our parishioners!

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

Please return your child's registration form by June 30th to avoid a late fee of $5.00 per child. If you are new to the parish or have a child in Sunday School for the first time, you may pick up the form in the parish office or in the gift shop after Mass. The information is needed so we are able to properly prepare for each class. Sunday school will begin August 18th.

Enjoy your summer,

The Religious Education Team
