DEACON

Dn. Carl Joseph Gallagher ‘Deacon Carl’

4th Sunday in Ordinary Time
The Beatitudes

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Somewhere, there is a monk whose life is very quiet and who devotes long hours to prayer. And somewhere there is a nun, cloistered in a life of contemplation, who speaks very little except to God.

Somewhere, there is a father whose days are filled with noise, who hasn't finished a Rosary in years because he keeps falling asleep. Somewhere there is a mother whose voice is weak with giving direction and offering counsel.

Somewhere, there is a teenage girl with much to say, but few people to listen — fewer, at least, than she would like.

Somewhere there is a woman who holds a positive pregnancy test in one hand and a phone in the other, and somewhere there is a man on the other end of that phone who waits for her to speak.

In the Beatitudes, Jesus utilizes a literary device called anaphora. Both as a reader and a writer, I love anaphora. It's a clean, unfussy way to communicate a point.

By repeating the same word or phrase at the beginning of successive clauses, you're basically saying the same thing over and over again, just a little bit differently each time. Those small differences tease at your audience's brain, gently highlighting the consistencies.

Discipleship is a lot like anaphora. It's the differences — those little aberrations from person to person, life to life — that so beautifully illustrate what remains the same across the broad spectrum of what it means to live out the Beatitudes.

Me. You. The monk. The nun. The father. The mother. The lonely girl. The man and woman who decided their own future without realizing it. How similar we all are in sin. How similar we all are in potential. How different we look to the world. And yet, how wondrous it is that we are all offered the same hope: “Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in Heaven.”

Cluster 31 Church Spotlight

St. Joseph Church, Hamlin

St. Joseph Catholic Church in Hamlin began in 1879 as a small mission of 18 families led by Father Meinrad McCarthy. It grew into a strong parish, rebuilt after a 1970 fire, and became a lasting part of Catholic life in Aroostook County.

The surrounding land, once known as Hamlin Plantation, was named for Hannibal Hamlin and remained sparsely settled after the 1831 survey. The community changed slowly through boundary shifts before becoming a town in 1976.

Known as the closest point in the continental United States to Europe, Hamlin also carries the name of Vice President Hannibal Hamlin, who served with Abraham Lincoln. The parish now stands as a reminder of the community's resilience and proud heritage.

Attempts were made to gain additional information regarding the fire at St. Joseph in 1970 as well as any church history. Some information is available at: https://acim.umfk.edu/catholic\_church.html

Prepare for Lent STEWARDSHIP

Managing God's Gifts To Us

Lent invites us to look closely at our lives and clear away whatever keeps us from growing with Christ. When we choose a life of stewardship, we make room for Jesus by setting aside distractions and focusing on the gifts God has placed in our care. Time, talents, and treasure become ways to serve others and honor God. Through prayer, fasting, and giving, we step into the heart of Lent, drawing closer to Christ and learning how to live His love more fully.

- Prayer – A chance to slow down and truly speak with God. Try a short daily prayer or a few quiet minutes of stillness.
- Fasting – More than skipping food. It's letting go of something that pulls your attention away from God.
- Almsgiving – Giving from the heart, whether through service, kindness, or sharing what you have.

Lent isn't meant to feel like a temporary diet. If you give something up, fill that space with something that brings you closer to Jesus. That's where real change happens.
