LETTER FROM OUR ASSOCIATE PASTOR

"Behold your mother"

Throughout the gospels, Mary's key role in salvation is proof of the saving role of all mothers. Mary was a main actor in the Annunciation, the Wedding at Cana, Jesus' Passion and Resurrection. Without Mary's insistent cooperation it's hard to imagine Jesus' saving mission on Earth. I believe the Gospel only confirms what humankind has always known: motherhood is one of noblest roles in human society.

This Mother's Day, we all need to take a step back to reflect on the sacrifices our mothers have made for us, and the sacrifices each of us have made for our sons and daughters. Being a mom means to put the needs of the kids first. St. John the Baptist said, "He must increase; I must decrease." – Jn 3:30 This is the experience of every mother. Often, we as parents put aside our own ambitions to dedicate our whole life to the good of our children.

"As one whom his mother comforts, so I will comfort you; you shall be comforted in Jerusalem." – Isaiah 66:13

In this beautiful prophecy, God uses the image of a comforting mother to describe the day of salvation of Israel. Motherhood is an essential part of God's salvific plan, without which we could not be fully human.

St. Pope John Paul II often spoke of the family as the cradle of solidarity. Solidarity is that virtue with which we recognize our neighbor as one of our own family in God and extend our hand to share in their burdens. I believe that mothers play a special role in cultivating this value in our families and, by extension, in our society.

Thanks so much all of you moms out there who have passed the Catholic faith on to the next generation and continue to build up our community in so many different ways. Receive my blessing in all that you do!

Fr. Jeff

CARTA DE NUESTRO ASOCIADO PASTOR

"Allí tienes a tu madre"

El rol salvífico de María en el Evangelio es una prueba del rol redentor de todas las mamás. María tuvo un papel esencial en la anunciación, la boda de Caná, y la Pasión y Resurrección de Jesús. Sin la cooperación constante de María, es difícil imaginar la misión salvadora de Cristo en la tierra. Creo que el Evangelio solo confirma lo que siempre sabíamos: la maternidad es uno de los papeles más nobles de toda la sociedad humana.

Este día de las madres, todos necesitamos reflexionar sobre los sacrificios que han hecho nuestras mamás para nosotros y los sacrificios que Uds han realizado para sus hijos. Ser mamá significa poner el hijo en primer lugar. San Juan Bautista dijo, "Es necesario que él crezca y que yo disminuya" – Jn 3, 30 Ésta es la experiencia de toda madre. A menudo los papás dejan de lado sus propias ambiciones y se dedican con la vida entera al bien de los hijos.

"Como un hombre es consolado por su madre, así yo los consolaré a ustedes" – Isaías 66, 13

En esta profecía hermosa, Dios utiliza la imagen de una mamá consolando a su hijo para ilustrar el día de la salvación de Israel. La maternidad es una parte esencial del plan salvífico de Dios, sin la que no seríamos plenamente humanos.

San Juan Pablo II habló mucho de la familia como cuna de la solidaridad. La solidaridad es aquella virtud de reconocer a nuestro prójimo como nuestra propia familia en Dios y extender la mano para compartir el peso de la vida. Creo que las madres juegan un rol especial en cultivar este valor en nuestras familias, y, por extensión, en nuestra sociedad.

Gracias a Uds mamás quienes han propagado la fe a la próxima generación y siguen construyendo nuestra comunidad de tantas maneras distintas. ¡Reciban mi bendición en todo lo que hacen!

P. Jeff

BISHOP'S LETTER TO THE FAITHFUL CARTA DEL OBISPO A LOS FIELES

In a letter to the faithful dated April 25th, Joe Vasquez, the Bishop of Austin, announced that the COVID-19 protocols will be rescinded and the temporary dispensation from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass will be lifted on May 23rd, Pentecost Sunday. As we move forward and the protocols are rescinded, he asks that we continue to support one another in Christian charity, knowing that, for good reason, some will continue to observe precautions for our health and the health of our families. We are called to be sensitive to and respectful of one another. You can read the letter on our website.

A medida que avanzamos y se anulan los protocolos, pide que sigamos apoyándonos unos a otros en la caridad cristiana, sabiendo que, por una buena razón, algunos seguirán observando precauciones para nuestra salud y la salud de nuestras familias. MONTH OF MARY/MES DE MARIA

In the Catholic Church, the month of May is Mary's month. It's the month we honor Blessed Mary as the Mother of Jesus and our Heavenly Mother. You probably remember taking part in the "May crowning" at the beginning of May—where a wreath of flowers was placed on the head of the statue of Mary as prayers were said. This ritual is a way to show our love for Mary.

En la Iglesia Católica, el mes de mayo es el mes de María. Es el mes en que honramos a la Santísima María como la Madre de Jesús y nuestra Madre celestial. Probablemente recuerda haber participado en la "coronación de mayo" a principios de mayo, donde se colocó una corona de flores en la cabeza de la estatua de María mientras se rezaban las oraciones. Este ritual es una forma de mostrar nuestro amor por María.

SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER SEXTO DOMINGO DE PASCUA

This Sunday all the readings remind us that we are caught up in the great mystery of love. The very life and essence of God is love; and God, who calls us and loves us first – before we are ready or able to respond – pours out his love on us with profound generosity. Since God has been so generous with us, how can we be stingy – especially since love comes from God and not from us? We are invited to receive, to treasure this great gift and then to live and spread it throughout the world, especially toward those who are hardest to love, our enemies.

Este domingo, todas las lecturas nos recuerdan que estamos atrapados en el gran misterio del amor. La misma vida y esencia de Dios es el amor; y Dios, quien nos llama y nos ama primero –y antes de que estemos listos para responderle o seamos capaces de responderle- derrama su amor sobre nosotros con generosidad indescriptible. Ya que Dios ha sido tan generoso con nosotros, ¿cómo podríamos ser tacaños –especialmente ya que el amor viene de Dios y no de nosotros? Estamos invitados a recibir, a atesorar este gran don y entonces a vivirlo y propagarlo en todo el mundo, especialmente hacia aquellos quienes son los más difíciles de amar, nuestros enemigos.

READ THE GOSPEL AND COMPLETE A PUZZLE!

SHARING THE GOSPEL

I would be really happy, if only I was ? rich ? popular ? better looking ? the boss. Those selfish wishes sound great, but they cannot give you true happiness inside. In today's Gospel, Jesus shares the three secrets to his complete happiness: (1) Jesus obeyed God; (2) Jesus knew God loved him; (3) Jesus loved other people enough to die for them. Wow, Jesus was completely happy, but he was not selfish at all. In fact, Jesus told his friends if they followed his loving example, they could be completely happy too. Follow Jesus to be filled with happiness from the inside out.

PRAYER

God, on my own I am selfish. Thank you for loving me. Help me to obey you. Help me to love other people as much as Jesus does.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

Read John 15:9-17 with your family. God loves you, and he wants you to be completely happy, but you need to let go of your selfishness. You can obey God and love others by sharing your time with them. You can show your love for God by sharing your money with others, too.
