Reflection ~ Leonia Downie, Lay Ecclesial Minister

Summer reflection:

How many of you love taking a leisurely walk along the river, through a park or taking a drive along a quiet country road just taking in God's creation, the masterpiece of nature. Those are the things that I love to do and just being one with the beautiful gifts of nature that God continually gives us. There is one gift which gives me great joy, peace, and a time of reflection. To have a most deep intimate conversation with our Lord, where I too practice my gift of creativity, that is, in the garden. Where I can tend to and add to God's masterpiece of nature, by cultivating, planting, and pruning flowers, shrubs, and trees; seeing that the fruit of my garden gives nourishment to all of God's creatures including myself and those around me. You see we are God's masterpiece, where God continuously cultivates us, to transform our selves in becoming better versions of ourselves. We, as God's growing masterpiece, have been gifted with charisms and out of those charisms many fruits of the Spirit. These fruits not only nourish us but give nourishment to all of God's creation. Look into the mirror at God's great masterpiece and open yourselves to God's transformation. You will be amazed of the Master at work!

Réflexion ~ Leonia Downie, ministre ecclésiastique laïc

Reflet d'été :

Combien d'entre vous aiment se promener tranquillement le long de la rivière, dans un parc ou se promener le long d'une route de campagne tranquille tout en admirant la création de Dieu, le chef-d'œuvre de la nature. Ce sont les choses que j'aime faire avec les beaux cadeaux de la nature que Dieu nous donne continuellement. Il y a un cadeau qui me donne beaucoup de joie, de paix et un temps de réflexion. Avoir une conversation intime très profonde avec notre Seigneur, où moi aussi je pratique mon don de créativité, c'est-à-dire dans le jardin. Où je peux m'occuper et ajouter au chef-d'œuvre de la nature de Dieu, en cultivant, plantant et taillant des fleurs, des arbustes et des arbres ; voyant que le fruit de mon jardin nourrit toutes les créatures de Dieu, y compris moi-même et ceux qui m'entourent. Vous voyez, nous sommes le chef-d'œuvre de Dieu, où Dieu nous cultive continuellement, pour transformer notre « moi » en de meilleures versions de nous-mêmes. Nous, en tant que chef-d'œuvre croissant de Dieu, avons été dotés de charismes et de ces charismes de nombreux fruits de l'Esprit. Non seulement ces fruits nous nourrissent, mais ils nourrissent toute la création de Dieu. Regardez dans le miroir le grand chef-d'œuvre de Dieu et ouvrez-vous à la transformation de Dieu. Vous serez étonné du maître au travail !

FIVE COMMON MYTHS ABOUT PRIESTHOOD: A GUIDE FOR PARENTS

Year after year, in surveys of newly ordained priests, over half report that their families opposed the idea of priesthood when they first expressed interest. Undoubtedly, parents want the best for their children.

So, what about priesthood does not fit parents' vision of "the good life"?

Each week we will explore one of the five common myths about the seminary and priesthood.

MYTH #3 "I'LL LOSE MY SON"

Some parents think that if their son becomes a priest, they'll never see him. One young priest laughed at this idea. "When Thanksgiving rolls around and my brothers and sisters are busy with their children and in-laws, guess what? As a priest, I don't have any of those ties. It's me carving the turkey with mom and dad!"

His point is that diocesan priests are able to spend a healthy amount of time with family. If the priest's assignment is far from home, in the Internet age, social media makes it easy to keep in touch.
