SAINT JOHN FISHER (1469-1535)

SAINT THOMAS MORE (1477-1535) June 22

From Robert Bolt's classic A Man for All Seasons to Showtime's edgy The Tudors, Thomas More endears himself still: lawyer-statesman of impeccable integrity, remarried widower and affectionate father delighting in a lively household—four children, a pet monkey, even a paid jester! And challenges still: humanist-reformer, yet champion of Catholic faith and papal primacy. John Paul II named him Patron of Statesmen and Politicians, citing More's generous work, both as a lawyer and in government service, on behalf of the poorest and most marginalized people of his time, as well as his promotion of education for all sectors of society. More's decision for principle over politics, conscience over convenience prompted his final words: "I die the king's good servant, but God's first." Alone among England's bishops, John Fisher dared challenge Henry VIII's divorce and repudiation of the papacy. When the Pope named the imprisoned Fisher a cardinal, Henry thundered: "Don't bother sending Fisher's red hat here; I'll send Fisher's head to Rome!" Whose "good servants" are we first? Isn't a right conscience worth the pain of standing alone?

Breaking Bread Homeless Ministries

News From The Streets...

Lord, Do You Wash My Feet?

By Mary Martha Primerano

Have you ever seen a good old fashion foot washing? Like what Jesus did in John 13: 4-5. Jesus ...rose from the meal, took off his outer clothing, and wrapped a towel around himself. Then he poured water into a basin and began to wash his disciples' feet. Drying them with the towel that was wrapped around him. Jesus demonstrated love by washing his disciple's feet.

During a particular season our Breaking Bread Homeless Team included feet washing as part of ministry. It's a wonderful thing to witness. I've seen the homeless bawling like babies as they get their feet washed. I wonder, "What could be going on in the inside to cause these tears to flow freely?" Obviously some inner healing was taking place. Only God knows the hearts of men, but this I can tell you, God's presence is real and still works in and through us. Another question that could be asked is? What is taking place in the heart of the person washing these worn, cracked feet? Could it be a humbling and servant attitude with a desire to touch the heart of God?

In the early days of feeding the homeless the wife of an executive of a large corporation would ask to come out with us. She had no problem serving those who made their homes under bridges and open fields. I stood amazed to see her wash the feet of a homeless woman. And upon discovering this woman had no shoes, this wealthy woman promptly removed her own to offer them to her new friend. As the day ended I watched as she made her way to her luxury car with only socks on. As long as we have been at this business of feeding the homeless...I still get impressed with God and His work that occurs in the hearts of the men and women that come along side us to serve.

Many have come out with us to give, to serve, and to love others. That is what we were made for. In John 13: 34-35 Jesus tells us, "A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another, even as I have loved you, that you also love one another. By this all men will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another."

"QUE ME ESCUCHE TU GRAN BONDAD, SEÑOR"

TEMOR O CONFIANZA

Mateo 10,26-33.- Tres veces Jesús exhorta, en este Evangelio, a sus discípulos: "no temáis". Y no queda duda, de que dirige esta exhortación hoy también a todos nosotros: "no temáis". El Señor lo sabe y nosotros lo experimentamos siempre de nuevo que el temor es un sentimiento primario del hombre. A la existencia humana están apegados el desamparo y la inseguridad y, por consiguiente, la angustia y el miedo, ya sea escondido o manifiesto, ya sea consciente o no. Y hoy en día los sentimientos de temor o impotencia contra los oscuros riesgos y amenazas de la vida son más grandes que nunca y nos acompañan a cada paso. Nos angustiamos por la situación económico social de nuestra patria. Por el futuro político de nuestro pueblo. Los padres se inquietan por el porvenir de sus hijos y de su familia. Los ancianos y jubilados se preocupan de su pan de cada día. Muchos tienen miedo de los demás, no sólo de asaltantes y malhechores, sino también de vecinos o parientes, e incluso tienen miedo de Dios. Y, por último, todos tenemos temor a la muerte. ¿Por qué tanta desconfianza y miedo? ¿Cuál es el sentido de la inseguridad y de la angustia que sufrimos en el mundo actual? Una verdad conocida, que olvidamos en el trajín de nuestra vida, nos revela que la seguridad y el cobijamiento no podemos encontrarlos en este mundo, debemos buscarlos en el otro mundo, debemos buscarlos en Dios. El temor extraordinario de hoy – en su valor positivo – nos lleva a buscar la ayuda de Dios. Esto es lo que el Padre del cielo quiere decirnos por medio de nuestra situación difícil: Buscad tranquilidad, amparo y cobijamiento en mí, en mis manos bondadosas, en mi corazón paternal. Porque Dios no se preocupa solamente del mundo en general, ni de un pueblo determinado, sino que también – impulsado por una profunda paternidad – vela por cada individuo. Frecuentemente recalca Jesús que el Padre se preocupa de cada uno personalmente, incluso hasta de sus pequeñeces más insignificantes. "¿Acaso no se vende un par de gorriones por unas monedas? Y sin embargo, ni uno solo cae al suelo sin que lo disponga vuestro Padre. Pues vosotros hasta los cabellos de la cabeza tenéis contados. Por eso, no tengáis miedo, no hay comparación entre vosotros y los gorriones". Aquel que cuida de las aves del cielo, cuánto más se preocupará por cada ser humano, cuánto más amará, con su cariño paternal, a todos sus hijos. Por eso, si Dios está conmigo, no puedo tener miedo. Al contrario, mi preocupación más grande debería ser: estar despreocupado en cada momento, no por negligencia, sino porque confío en Dios. Es más fuerte siempre aquel que tiene a Dios por aliado.

Todos debemos llegar a ser héroes de la confianza. Sin esa confianza filial, hoy es imposible permanecer firme y victorioso en medio de las tormentas de este mundo. No se puede dominar la vida actual, ninguno de nosotros podrá hacerlo, si Dios no está a nuestro lado. Pensemos en la tormenta sobre el lago. Es algo extraño: los apóstoles en la barca son maestros en el dominio del mar. Además, Jesús está con ellos. Y si embargo se angustian y se desesperan y tienen que despertar al Señor, para que los salve. Entonces, si tenemos esa confianza profunda en Dios, venceremos el temor y la inseguridad de este mundo. Si aceptamos filialmente la voluntad del Padre, en horas agradables y en horas difíciles, dando así testimonio valiente de Cristo, entonces Él nos recibirá un día en la casa del Padre. "Si uno se pone de mi parte ante los hombres, yo también me pondré de su parte ante mi Padre del cielo. Y si uno me niega ante los hombres, yo también lo negaré ante mi Padre del cielo." ¡Qué así sea! En el nombre del Padre, del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo. Amén.

Arquidiócesis de Galveston-Houston

Oración Durante el Tiempo del Coronavirus

Consuélanos, Señor, pues somos como tus discípulos en la tormenta que sacudió los mares, inquietos por lo que se avecina.

Nos dirigimos a Ti, nuestro Guía y Salvador, para que calmes nuestros corazones en nuestros momentos de necesidad y escuches nuestra oración:

Sana a todos quienes están enfermos con el coronavirus y protege a las personas mayores y a los más vulnerables.

Dale fuerza a todos quienes cuidan de nuestra salud y sabiduría a quienes buscan y luchan por encontrar una cura.

Abre nuestros ojos y nuestros corazones, como lo hiciste durante el Huracán Harvey, para que podamos ver más allá de nuestras necesidades inmediatas y ayudar a aquellos que necesiten ayuda.

Por medio del Espíritu Santo, guía a los líderes a tomar decisiones sabias por el bienestar de todas las personas a las que sirven.

Concede el descanso eterno a todos quienes han muerto por el virus.

Que María, nuestra Madre, que ha escuchado nuestras suplicas en las tormentas de nuestras vidas, interceda ante su Hijo, para que encontremos la sanación y un pronto final para esta enfermedad.

María, Estrella del Mar, ruega por nosotros.

Jesucristo, nuestro Señor y Salvador, sananos.
