THE SCRUTINIES

What are The Scrutinies?

The Scrutinies are Rites celebrated on the Third, Fourth and Fifth Sundays of Lent, by those who are preparing to be baptized at Easter, known as 'The Elect'.

They are important and special rites of the Church.
Whenever they are celebrated the Scripture readings of Year A of the liturgical cycle are used.

The Scrutinies are described by the Church as “rites for self-searching and repentance, which are meant to uncover, then heal, all that is weak, defective, or sinful in the hearts of the elect; to bring out, then strengthen all that is upright, strong and good. The Scrutinies are celebrated in order to deliver the elect from the power of sin and Satan, to protect them against temptation, and to give them strength in Christ, who is the way, the truth and the life. These rites, therefore, should complete the conversion of the elect and deepen their resolve to hold fast to Christ and to carry out their decision to love God above all.”

The Gospels on the three Sundays on which the Scrutinies are celebrated teach the elect about the mystery of sin, and fill them with the Spirit of Christ.

- 1.The first Gospel (the Samaritan Woman at the well)
tells us that Christ is the Living Water,
2. the second (healing of the man born blind), that he is the Light of the World,
3. and the third, (the raising of Lazarus from the dead), that he is the Resurrection and the Life.

Jesus described the purpose of his mission as “To give life in abundance” (John 10:10) Each of the Gospels proclaimed in the three Scrutinies illustrates this.

Breaking Bread Homeless Ministries
News From The Streets...
The Poor Among Us

By Mary Martha Primerano

For over twenty-five years, Breaking Bread has taken out small groups to feed the homeless, and poor among us. On one particular Saturday, as we were talking and sharing with some homeless friends, a small, black, SUV slowly drove up to check us out. Out into the cold stepped a family with four small children, led by two women. The two adult females were mother and daughter with the daughter's children. They all looked very young.

As we took out clothing and they started looking through it, I noticed the mother grabbing women's clothing much smaller than her own size. I asked who it was for, and she responded that it was for her. I knew then that I needed to shut down my own thoughts and choose not to judge. My job was to walk in love.

Once the family was finished searching and collecting clothing, we offered to pray with them. The young adult daughter was eager and excited to pray. Both ladies then asked Jesus to forgive them of their sins, come into their hearts, and change their lives. The mother's heart began to melt as she asked us also to pray for her other daughter who was in the hospital. Then it all began to click. The small-sized women's clothing she was collecting was for her daughter, and the newborn they were carrying was hers! Our hearts were filled with compassion for this mother who was trying her best to keep her family together. When it was time for them to leave, our team made sure the family had enough grocery bags and offered them some Bibles and prepared barbecue. The family drove off excited, happy, and filled with hope. I could see the mother wiping tears from her eyes. "Blessed is he who has regard for the weak," Psalm 41:1 says. "The Lord delivers him in times of trouble."

FUE, SE LAVÓ, Y VOLVIÓ CON VISTA

Jn 9, 1-41. Rey para nuestro Bien.- Las lecturas de hoy nos presentan a Jesucristo como el ungido, el nuevo David, el rey colmado tanto de poder como de bondad. Su ministerio es arrancarnos de las tinieblas, sanar nuestra ceguera, regalarnos nueva luz. Las lecturas tienen su aplicación práctica en las consignas que nos da el Apóstol en la segunda lectura de hoy: "Caminen como hijos de la luz. Toda bondad, justicia y verdad son frutos de la luz. Busquen lo que agrada al Señor, sin tomar parte en las obras estériles de las tinieblas." Esto, que es la estrategia central de nuestra Cuaresma en este ciclo litúrgico, bien merece convertirse en propósito para la vida entera, porque si lo pensamos bien, la Cuaresma es a la Pascua como esta vida es a la eternidad junto a Dios.

El Señor mira los Corazones.- David fue elegido gracias a la mirada de Samuel que supo ir más allá de las apariencias. Podemos bien decir que Samuel tenía una "luz" de la que carecía el común de la gente y que con esa luz pudo ver las cosas un poco a la manera de Dios. Por eso rechazo lo que parecía evidente y se inclinó por el candidato que nadie hubiera pensado, el menor de los hijos, David, que ni siquiera era contado como hijo, porque recibía tratamiento de siervo y cuidador de rebaños. Es interesante que la Biblia haga un elogio de la belleza de David. No es cosa frecuente en la Escritura ensalzar el aspecto físico de nadie y no se ve al principio qué relación pueda tener esta gallardía con las tareas más bien guerreras y de gobierno que pronto tendrá que asumir este pastorcillo. Pero hay algo ahí: la hermosura, señal de armonía y de salud, habla también de un corazón que transmite algo interior, tanto más notable porque no lo esperaríamos en uno que ha llevado vida de peón y que además ha sido relegado por su propia familia. Mas David no está lleno de recelo o resentimiento: su corazón está en otras cosas; al parecer, él sabe remontarse por encima de lo exterior y también tiene algo de la luz del profeta que mira más allá de las apariencias. Esas dos miradas se encuentran y Samuel pronuncia el veredicto de parte de Dios: "¡éste es!"

"Yo soy la Luz del Mundo".- El evangelio de hoy puede leerse en versión abreviada o completa; proviene del capítulo 9 del evangelio según san Juan. Sinceramente creo que vale la pena mirar el texto largo que contiene la frase fundamental de Cristo, "Yo soy la Luz del Mundo," la cual no está en la versión breve. El proceso que vive este ciego "de nacimiento" es toda una parábola en sí mismo; es un camino que nos permite revisar nuestra propia historia porque "de nacimiento" no nos viene la luz que necesitamos para tener vida eterna. La analogía es mucho más estrecha si tomamos el elemento de la piscina en que el hombre se lava y que viene a ser como una imagen entonces del bautismo que nos ha concedido tener la luz de la fe. Es interesante revisar la actitud de los fariseos. Ellos ven con claridad que ha habido un milagro pero no dan el paso a reconocer que ese milagro significa algo. Esto es importante porque nos ayuda a diferenciar el milagro y su significado: bien se ve que lo segundo es lo fundamental. Ahora bien, ellos no quieren reconocer que Cristo revele nada porque están a gusto con lo que ven y conocen. Sienten que "ven" y por eso, como lo denuncia el mismo Cristo, permanecen en su ceguera. De donde comprendemos que la Cuaresma implica ver muchas cosas pero sobre todo ver que no lo vemos todo y que necesitamos de la Luz de Cristo para ver en realidad.

Fr. Nelson Medina F., O.P
