Breaking Bread Homeless Ministries News From The Streets...

Having A Bad Day?

By Mary Martha Primerano

"I wish more people would say hello to us." A homeless man said this to me while we waited for the walk light to change at a busy intersection. I turned, smiled, and responded, "I wish they would too!" As I made my way back to work he began to share with me what was on his heart - how he felt unwanted, and disheartened by the constant request to move on! I walked and listened to him and asked him if he had a relationship with the Lord Jesus to which he responded, "yes, and I read my bible every day." I then realized that I was looking into the face of a discouraged brother in Christ. We shared a little more, and as we parted ways, he didn't ask me for money, but just told me goodbye and have a great day.

When life gets hard remember to run to Him. King David tells his son Solomon (known as the wisest man on the earth) in I Chronicles 28:9 "Worship and serve him (God) with your whole heart and a willing mind. For the Lord sees every heart and knows every plan and thought. If you seek him, you will find him."

If we're honest with ourselves we've all had one of those days/weeks/or months when things weren't going right. Stay the course and determine to walk in love and forgiveness no matter how intense the battles can get at work, home, or even while doing ministry.

Corrie ten Boom (who was imprisoned during the Holocaust for hiding Jews in her home) was asked, what is your secret to staying focused and not getting discouraged?" She responded, "Remember this, and believe in the dark what God told you in the light."

So no matter how dark it may get, remember His promise in John 16:33 "These things I have spoken to you, that in me you may have peace. In the world you will have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world."

Cry Out with JOY TO THE LORD!

"TE DAMOS GRACIAS DE TODO CORAZÓN."

PEDIR Y SE OS DARÁ

Lucas 11,1-13. Cuánto Puede la Oración.- Como suele suceder los domingos, hay un tema común entre la primera lectura y el evangelio, mientras que la segunda lectura abre un tema distinto. En este caso, el tema común es la oración y cuánto puede lograrse a través de ella. Aunque, si miramos más detenidamente, la enseñanza de hoy alude a esa forma de oración que todos conocemos y seguramente hemos practicado muchísimas veces: la oración de petición. Además, tanto en el texto del Génesis como en la lectura de San Lucas aparece un hecho: lo que se pide resulta difícil o incómodo. Esto es interesante porque de seguro nosotros mismos hemos sentido más de una vez que lo que pedimos escapa la lógica fría de los hechos y por ello es incómodo o difícil pedirlo. Pero bueno, ¡precisamente por eso es una oración de súplica, por que no parece que las cosas vayan a darse como por sí solas!

Rogando a favor de los Inocentes.- En el Génesis vemos a Abraham intercediendo a favor de los que, siendo inocentes, se hallan en medio de un pueblo corrupto y vil. Las ciudades de Sodoma y Gomorra han amontonado su propia destrucción, pero Abraham no quiere que en la catástrofe que habrá de llegar perezcan juntos los culpables con los honrados. Por eso ruega, apelando a la justicia de Dios, de un modo humilde pero persistente. De su ejemplo aprendemos esas dos cualidades que son muy propias de la oración cristiana: humildad y perseverancia. También aprendemos que la oración es diálogo. Su esencia no es un estado de la mente o una sensación en el corazón. Es más que un sentimiento y mucho más que una cierta actividad neurológica en el cerebro. Esto lo digo porque hay quienes hoy quieren "estudiar" la oración mirando los fenómenos, sobre todo neuronales, que la acompañan. Entonces estudian el funcionamiento cerebral en monjes budistas o en cristianos absortos en alabanza. Ello puede tener algún valor pero nunca nos guiará al núcleo mismo del misterio maravilloso de la oración. Orar es dialogar: implica un encuentro real con Aquel que nos ama y por tanto una especie de actividad. No es pura pasividad, en sentido de "mente en blanco" o de "Nirvana" budista. Sobre esto nos ilustra muy bien el Evangelio. Rogando porque somos Hijos.- Si en el texto de la primera lectura Abraham ruega fundándose en la justicia, y desde ahí argumenta que Dios nunca destruirá al inocente con el culpable, en el evangelio encontramos otro aspecto, otra razón para nuestro ruego: le hablamos a Dios por que somos sus hijos. En la oración se devela y a la vez se hace efectivo el misterio de nuestra condición de hijos, que Cristo predicó y que también hizo posible con su sacrificio redentor, que hizo posible el don del Espíritu Santo para nosotros. El fundamento último de nuestra oración no es entonces que queremos un mundo mejor, por que eso lo puede querer cualquier ser dotado de razón; no es tampoco que merecemos una vida distinta o ser exentos de tales o cuales dolores o problemas. Ni es tampoco por que seamos buenos o libres de culpa. Oramos porque somos hijos. Oramos porque el Espíritu del Hijo ora en nosotros. Y por eso oramos con perseverancia, sencillez, confianza y sobretodo con inmenso amor, convencidos como estamos de que Dios sabe qué es lo mejor para nosotros y puede y quiere otorgárnoslo.

Fr. Nelson Medina F., O.P
