Breaking Bread Homeless Ministries News From The Streets...

You Brought Me Jesus!
By Mary Martha Primerano

Today, we found Debbie all alone, fast asleep, and curled up in an alcove outside of a bookstore in downtown Houston. As we approached her she woke up, and greeted us with a nasty cough, but was optimistic that her cold was in the later stages. We rolled out an assortment of foods from breakfast tacos, and berries to clothing and toiletries until her heart's content. Once we were done with the food, she was eager to hear God's word, so we all gathered in a circle to have our time of daily devotion. Towards the end, I leaned over her, put my arm around her, and told her that God would like you to know "fear not" ... she immediately began to weep. Deuteronomy 31:8 "The Lord is the one who goes ahead of you; He will be with you. He will not fail you or forsake you. Do not fear or be dismayed." Debbie always has a happy and pleasant disposition, but those words struck a chord deep inside. We continued to minister the love of God to Debbie, and she continued to weep right through it all. At one point she apologized for crying, but we told her tears are good, and that God was healing her emotions. As we concluded our time with Debbie her continence began to change, she thanked us for everything we had given her, and told us "the most important thing you brought me today was Jesus!"

"TÚ ERES, SEÑOR, NUESTRO REFUGIO"

EL QUE NO RENUNCIA A TODOS SUS BIENES NO PUEDE SER DISCÍPULO MÍO

Lucas 14,25-33. La Sabiduría como Regalo.- La primera lectura de hoy nos invita a apreciar la necesidad de la sabiduría, así como su valor incomparable. Es tan valiosa que finalmente llegamos a concluir que no la podemos alcanzar con nuestras solas fuerzas y que sólo podemos poseerla si llega a nosotros como regalo.

Con una influencia platónica reconocible, esta primera lectura, tomada del libro de la Sabiduría, expresa una realidad que todos conocemos: nuestro pensamiento no vuela libre; bien sentimos el peso de nuestro "cuerpo" y de las cosas "terrenales." Nuestras reflexiones son inseguras y de hecho, si leemos la historia de la filosofía, vemos que los grandes pensadores no terminan de ponerse de acuerdo ni siquiera en los elementos básicos de su reflexión.

Esto no significa que todo filosofar sea perder el tiempo, sino que ese no será el camino que nos lleve a las respuestas más hondas. Las respuestas más bien nos van llegando como un don: Dios se deja conocer, revela su plan, nos habla como amigo, nos deja sentir su amor. De este modo nuestro pensamiento se habitúa a su escala, a su estilo, a su manera de obrar. La sabiduría que él nos concede no es simplemente conocimiento sino camino de vida y fuente de gozo.

La sabiduría como Opción.- El evangelio de hoy prolonga el tema de la sabiduría desde una óptica diferente: lo mismo que el rey que evalúa si conviene o no entrar en combate, el discípulo de Cristo debe evaluar con gran sabiduría y ponderación si quiere entrar en la batalla. ¿Cuál batalla? No se trata tanto de un combate exterior cuanto de esa serie de opciones íntimas y de renunciaciones profundas que vamos encontrando a medida que todos nuestros afectos y valores se confrontan con Cristo.

Es fácil proclamar que Jesús es el Señor pero para que ello sea una realidad es preciso que cada cosa y cada persona, cada afecto y cada recuerdo, cada pensamiento y cada proyecto que tenemos, comparezca ante Jesucristo. A menudo esto implica renunciaciones y división interior. La victoria sin embargo es incomparable: la amistad con Cristo, la paz del corazón, la verdadera e imperecedera luz.

Fr. Nelson Medina F., O.P

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA (LIVE THE LITURGY)

Hoy, Jesús nos dice el costo del verdadero discipulado, y resulta que lo es todo. Debemos rechazar el mundo para amar a Dios. ¿Qué apegos nos están impidiendo la relación que podríamos tener, deberíamos tener, con nuestro Señor?
