Letter From Fr. Curtis

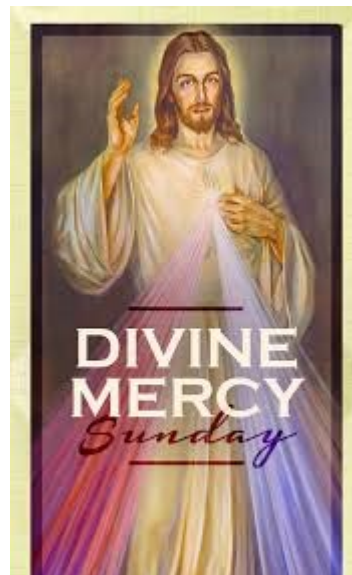

Dear Parishioners,

Thank you, again, to all our parish volunteers who made this celebration of Holy Week and Easter so special. Thank you, also, to everyone who gave me such thoughtful cards. I am grateful for your kindness and prayers.

I'll admit that I'm still pretty tired from all the liturgies, but I'm getting caught up on my rest. In a couple weeks I'll be making my five-day retreat. That will be a good chance for me to recharge, spiritually and physically.

This weekend we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday. This day is inspired by the visions of St. Faustina, a Polish nun, and promoted by Pope St. John Paul II. On this day, we reflect upon the great love of Jesus, Who offered for us His Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity, and we ask for God's mercy on us and the whole world.

Happy Easter!
Fr. Curtis

1628 The consent must be an act of the will of each of the contracting parties, free of coercion or grave external fear. No human power can substitute for this consent. If this freedom is lacking the marriage is invalid.

1629 For this reason (or for other reasons that render the marriage null and void) the Church, after an examination of the situation by the competent ecclesiastical tribunal, can declare the nullity of a marriage, i.e., that the marriage never existed. In this case the contracting parties are free to marry, provided the natural obligations of a previous union are discharged.

1630 The priest (or deacon) who assists at the celebration of a marriage receives the consent of the spouses in the name of the Church and gives the blessing of the Church. The presence of the Church's minister (and also of the witnesses) visibly expresses the fact that marriage is an ecclesial reality.

Registration is now open for current students. The early bird registration is open until April 1. At that time, we will open seats to new students. Remember that for every new family recruited, 10% off one tuition will be deducted from your balance, as a thank you. According to Covid, we will continue to do our best to limit classrooms to 12 or less. Our PreSchool program is a 4 STARS program and has openings for 3 and 4 year olds and will be limited to 10.
