Dear Parishioners,

Unfortunately, I've just come down with the flu, so I will keep this letter short. I will be resting and taking it easy so that I can hopefully recover quickly and not get anyone else sick. Fr. Rijo (or another Newport priest) will offer Mass on Saturday and Fr. Bernie Gaudreau on Sunday. Our showing of The Chosen will be postponed until next weekend. Also, I was going to have a Lenten Penance Service, but I will also postpone that, too. (I hadn't done a good job of announcing it, so I guess that's for the best). I look forward to being back for next weekend.

Have a blessed week,
Fr. Curtis

Diocesan Eucharistic Revival: Request for Eucharistic Testimonies

During the "Year of the Eucharist", the Diocese of Burlington will be collecting testimonies of people's faith in the Eucharist. Any Catholic can contribute a reflection. Throughout 2023, brief snippets will be published in the Inland See and on social media. Then at the end of the year, we will compile approved reflections into a book: A Snapshot of Eucharistic Faith in Vermont.

If you would like to contribute to this effort, please prepare a reflection (maximum one page type-written or two pages hand-written – please print legibly) using one or more of the prompts below. Please include your name, email/phone number (in case we need to contact you for clarification), and parish name and town. If you do not want your name included in the publication please indicate so; otherwise first name and last initial will be published.

Submissions can be emailed to revival@vermontcatholic.org or mailed to:

- How does going to Mass effect the rest of my week?
- How has Christ's presence in the Eucharist changed your life?
