THOUGHTS FROM SALESIAN SPIRITUALITY

"The just person is like a tree planted near running water, which bears fruit in its season. So too when charity waters one's soul, it produces virtuous works there, but each in its season."
- St. Francis de Sales

Interested in Receiving Only 2nd Collection Envelopes?

We're happy to offer the option to receive only the 2nd collection envelopes instead of the full envelope packet. However, in order to set up a separate mailing account for this option, we need at least 40 parishioners to participate.

If you're interested, please contact the parish office to be added to the list. Thank you for helping us be more efficient and environmentally conscious!

DISTRIBUTING DIGNITY ACROSS NC

As part of our parish's DeSales Service Works (DSW) ministry, a dedicated group of teens and chaperones recently volunteered at the Diaper Bank of North Carolina. With compassion and energy, they packed and prepared essential diaper kits to support families in need across our state.

This effort is more than just a day of service—it reflects the heart of our Catholic faith in action. The Diaper Bank works to ensure that every baby has access to basic hygiene needs, and our teens played a vital role in this mission by helping families maintain dignity, health, and stability.

Thank you to all the youth and adult volunteers who gave their time and spirit to this meaningful work. You are living examples of how love and service can bring hope to our communities.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY FOR FAMILIES

Join us at TABLE in Carrboro on July 23rd from 4-5 p.m. for a special volunteer opportunity perfect for families with children aged 4 and up. Help us make a difference by packing meals for those in need and spreading positivity throughout our community.

To sign up, email Michalene and let her know you're interested in volunteering. This is a wonderful chance to teach your children the value of helping others and making a positive impact in the world around them.

TABLE delivers healthy food and nutrition education to children in Orange County.

STREAM TEAM HELP NEEDED

Want to help your fellow parishioners to better enjoy the Mass? Maybe you want to exercise your "inner Geek?" We need people to help run the sound system during Mass and to help broadcast the Mass on livestream.

Proper attention to the sound system is important to all those who attend Mass, and we could use a few more people to help out, on a rotating basis. No experience needed. Training will be provided. Both adults and High School students are welcome.

HELP US STEWARD GOD'S GIFTS

Are you detail-oriented and looking for a meaningful way to serve your parish community? Holy Infant Catholic Church is seeking dedicated volunteers to join our Counters Ministry—a team that quietly supports the financial transparency and integrity of our parish.

On Mondays, a group of 3 volunteers gathers for a few hours to count tithes and donations, helping to ensure that all gifts are accurately recorded and properly handled. Each volunteer serves 1-2 Mondays per month, based on their availability. This behind-the-scenes ministry plays a vital role in sustaining the mission of Holy Infant. Use the QR to learn more.

HOSTS FOR EVERYONE

Low-gluten hosts are available at all Masses at Holy Infant. At weekend Masses, an Eucharistic Minister with the low-gluten hosts is positioned in front of the Ambo (Lectern). Alternatively, if you need a low-gluten host brought to your seat, please let a Greeter know, and they will inform the Eucharistic Minister.

Low-gluten hosts are also available at weekday Masses in the Chapel. The Eucharistic Minister with the low-gluten hosts is positioned to the right of the altar (in front of the tabernacle).

FOLLOWING THE GENTLE SAINT

Are you seeking a deeper connection to God through the quiet strength of gentle spirituality? Do you long to live your daily life more intentionally, grounded in the Gospel and open to the whisper of the Holy Spirit?

The Daughters are part of the Association of St. Francis de Sales, a global spiritual family rooted in the teachings of the "Gentle Saint," St. Francis de Sales. This international lay association includes members in 24 countries around the world. Here in North Carolina, a local group was approved in November 2018 and is actively welcoming new members.

Lay Catholic women—whether single, married, or widowed—are invited to journey together, supporting one another in living out Salesian spirituality in everyday life. As Daughters, members strive to infuse their lives with the humble wisdom of St. Francis de Sales, seeking holiness through gentleness, patience, and love.

If you feel a nudge to deepen your spiritual life in the company of other women committed to growing in faith, peace, and holy simplicity, we invite you to learn more. Come walk with us on the path of the Daughters of St. Francis de Sales.

For more information or to express interest, please contact Lynn Sale. Live Jesus!

FINDING ST. ANTHONY

Anthony is one of the great followers of St. Francis of Assisi and one of the most popular saints in the Church. He has been an inspiration for millions of Christians for hundreds of years and is one of the saints who has played a significant role in my life.

Many people – even those who are not Catholic – are familiar with the tradition of praying to St. Anthony for the return of a lost item. I recently learned that this practice originated with the story of Friar Anthony's book of Psalms being taken by a novice when he left the Franciscan community. When he realized that the prayer book was missing, Anthony prayed fervently for the return of his Psalter, as it also contained many notes he used for preaching and teaching. A few weeks later, the novice returned to the fold and gave the prayer book back to the future saint.

Fr. Jack Kolodziej, OSFS, and fellow Oblates celebrating St. Anthony of Padua Parish's 100th Anniversary Mass. Following a tradition in my father's family, I was baptized "John Anthony." My mother's Irish background turned "John" into "Jack," so I rarely used my "official" first or middle name. However, I still have family members who will call me "John Anthony" when they are stressing the seriousness of a situation.

Growing up, my grandmother and aunts taught me to ask St. Anthony to "please come around" when something was lost "and can't be found." I have continued to call upon the Franciscan friar into my adulthood, and the older I get, the more I find myself seeking his intercession.

Anthony cemented his role in my life when I entered the Oblate community and found out that the oldest Oblate parish in the U.S. is named after St. Anthony of Padua. In my own pursuit of religious life, my patron saint took on a new role as he influenced my Salesian Spirituality with some Franciscan virtues.

When my official formation program was complete, I was ordained a priest in that same church. Throughout my twenty-six years as a priest, I have been privileged to celebrate many masses, weddings, baptisms, and funerals at St. Anthony's. Last fall, I was honored to celebrate the opening Mass for the 100th anniversary of this great parish. Last week, I was back at St. Anthony's Church preaching the Baccalaureate Mass for Padua Academy, the high school sponsored by the parish.

Looking over my life, St. Anthony has always been a part of my story. Like many priests and religious sisters and brothers, he has often been in the background, offering encouragement and support. More important than helping me find lost toys or keys, St. Anthony has taught me to reach out to God's people.

His example helps me to teach, preach, and search for those who are lost. His life inspires me to continue my own pursuit of holiness. May his feast be an opportunity for all of us to learn about his life, study his teachings, seek his intercession, and find joy in following our own vocation.

-Fr. Jack Kolodziej, OSFS

YOU ARE NOT ALONE

MINISTRY.

We like to think of summer as being a relaxing, enjoyable time. But hurts, struggles, crises, and problems don't take a vacation. Many times, our difficulties seem even worse during the summer because everyone else seems to be enjoying life while you are feeling down. When you are experiencing a difficult time—emotionally, spiritually, or relationally—you don't have to suffer alone.

Our Stephen Ministers are trained caregivers, ready to listen, care for and encourage you, pray with and for you, and provide one-to-one Christian care to help you through whatever it is that you are facing. Men are matched with male Stephen Ministers, and women are matched with female Stephen Ministers. It's free. It's confidential. And it will make a difference in your life!

To find out more about Stephen Ministry for you or someone you know, talk with one of our Stephen Ministry Leaders: Ed Blocher, Karen Carr, Deacon Tom Hill, Barbara Ralston, Ann Sotolongo or contact Lynn Sale in the Parish Office.
