MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parish Family,

We are blessed to experience a full four weeks of Advent this year since Christmas falls on a Sunday. This gives us added time to prepare our hearts to welcome Christ this Christmas. As we move into this last week of Advent, what exactly does it mean to 'prepare' our hearts for Christ? To approach this question, we might consider the checklists we make to prepare our homes for Christmas. Are all the decorations and lights up and running? Have we finished all the shopping and gift wrapping? Have we made ready our Christmas food and family traditions? See how we take care to ensure everything is in right order? So must it be with our hearts. I prepare my heart when everything is in order for Christ's coming.

A great way to determine how we need to prepare our hearts is to reflect on Isaiah's words to King Ahaz: "Ask for a sign from the Lord, your God." Think of God asking, "What do you want me to do for you? What are the deepest desires of your heart that you want Me to fulfill for you?" As Ahaz refused to ask for anything from God, thinking that this would demonstrate humility, he actually shows what it looks like to refuse to pray. Yet, God knows we are in need and wants us to ask Him for many things. The deepest desire of our hearts is to be brought into the communion of love, to have an intimate relationship with God and, through God, with others. We need to pray for a Savior. We need to prepare our hearts to welcome Christ our Savior so that He can put everything in right order in our hearts. Do not be afraid of asking Christ to come and put things back in order in your life. I promise we will all benefit when we let Him in.

A few thoughts on my mind…
Thank you for your prayers and cards for Fr. Spisak during his sick leave. Your thoughtfulness and prayers are a sign of Christ's self-giving love at work in your hearts.
I am most grateful to all who celebrated my pastor installation Mass last weekend. Special thanks to our musicians, ushers, reception crew, and clergy for pulling off an awesome celebration. I am proud to be your pastor!
Please remember that you can come to confession this week leading up to Christmas. See the special Advent confession times listed in today's bulletin.
I look forward to celebrating Christmas with our St. Mary and St. Patrick Parish families. Please see the Christmas Mass times in today's bulletin.

Angel Scholarship Fund

Remember you have less than two weeks left to make a 2022 end-of-the-year contribution to the Angel Scholarship Fund, which is a dollar-for-dollar reduction in your Ohio income tax liability. Think of it like the state of Ohio saying, "You have to pay your taxes anyway, but now we're giving you an opportunity to tell us where you want your tax dollars directed." Please pick up a flyer and contribution form in the back of church today and prioritize making this contribution. You can also donate online at https://stmarychardon.org/asf. These contributions will provide scholarships to make Catholic education at St. Mary School more affordable than ever for families. Donating is a no-brainer, and a win-win for you, our school families, and our parish. As of this week, we are at $63,000 contributed to St. Mary School with 113 donors. This is great! We still have a long runway ahead of us. Please set aside the time this week to make your contribution.

I am Yours in Christ,
Father Scott Goodfellow

YEAR-END GIVING

In this season of giving, consider making a year-end gift to our parish in gratitude for all the blessings you have received in life. As you plan to make the most of your charitable donations in 2022, know that we gratefully accept gifts of cash and appreciated assets such as stocks or bonds.

And, if you are 70 ½ or older, you may be able to make a gift of a Qualified Charitable Distribution from your IRA that will help us in our ministry and reduce your taxable income. Talk to your advisors and IRA administrator for more information and to be sure that your IRA Qualified Charitable Distribution gift is made directly from an IRA to a qualified charity such as our parish. Questions? Contact Linda Ropchock in our parish office at 440-285-7051, ext. 112 or via email at lropchock@stmarychardon.org.

PRINCIPAL'S CORNER

We have entered into the final week of Advent and the students of St. Mary are ready for Christmas. This past week Mr. Gorski led students in grades Kindergarten through Fifth in our annual Christmas Concert. With songs that remind us of the true meaning of the season, and a few silly songs as well, smiles were wide on all of the faces in the audience. Mrs. Karpuszka and the teachers and aids of the preschool performed a concert this week as well. Our littlest Vikings filled our souls with the sounds of Christmas. The eighth-grade students traveled downtown Cleveland to see A Christmas Carol at Playhouse Square. They were able to compare and contrast the stage and the written versions. We ended the week with Christmas Parties in each homeroom. St. Mary School wishes you a Christmas full of blessings.

A reminder that our Little Scholars Academy will be registering preschool students soon. January 3rd registration opens for families that have current students at St. Mary. Registration for all preschool students begins January 9th.

CHRISTMAS ECARD FROM H.E.L.P. (THE GEAUGA COUNTY CATHOLIC PRO-LIFE COALITION)

The Geauga County Catholic Pro-Life Coalition came across a song that reflects their Christmas wish for you. The song is sung by Amy Grant called "Breath of Heaven." The journey that our Mother traveled is also our pro-life journey today. May we find hope and encouragement in the words of this song as we continue our daily quest together to save God's most precious gift, the innocent and defenseless children in the womb. May the "Breath of Heaven" be poured upon us and our country this Christmas season as we work as one to save the Holy Innocents of our day.
