MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parish Family,

This Fifth Sunday of Easter we open our hearts to know Jesus as “the way and the truth and the life.” Jesus is not a way to God, or a truth to be believed, or a path of life to follow. He is the way, truth, and life - not merely one among many other options. Our relationship with Christ is necessary for salvation. He is the Good Shepherd who leads us back to life. Because of this, we accept our relationship with Christ on His terms, not on our own.

I remember reading a testimonial from a non-denominational Christian that gets the relationship with Christ backwards: “I’ve tried many different churches, and I finally found the one that matches my understanding of God.” Our relationship with God is not about finding a church or a Christ that fits into our personal worldview, but rather accepting that our own worldview needs to be redeemed by God’s grace so we can live in the truth and live on the path to everlasting life.

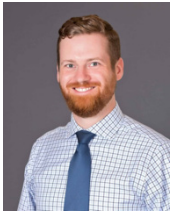

It is possible to misuse our God-given freedom to choose paths that seem preferable or comfortable to us but do not actually lead to life or happiness. Thanks be to God for the gift of our freedom to choose to live according to the truth of Christ! Our Catholic faith and teachings offer us precisely this integral and universal perspective to guide us to live our lives on God’s terms as we obediently and faithfully follow Christ the way, the truth, and the life.

Mental Health Perspective: I invite you to read the introduction in today’s bulletin from Luke Brown from Sacred Heart Counseling, LLC, a Catholic counseling center based in Northeast Ohio offering holistic services to integrate faith and healing. I’ve known Luke for a number of years as a man of deep faith with great concern and compassionate care for others. We will be including his weekly mental health perspective in our bulletin on a regular basis as space permits. At times, other colleagues of his may contribute their perspective in this weekly column. I pray that reading this mental health perspective will help put us in touch with the healing resources available to us. If you find yourself in need of counseling services, I would encourage you to connect with Sacred Heart Counseling. Learn more at <https://www.sacredheartcleveland.com>.

Our Lady of Kilimanjaro Missionary Co-Op: The Diocese of Cleveland has invited the Sisters of Our Lady of Kilimanjaro to be with us to give an appeal to support the work of their mission. The sisters help children and families by providing educational, medical, and vocational services to different dioceses in and out of the country. One of the sisters will be speaking at Mass this weekend to share the good news of their mission and ministry, and to invite us to prayerfully and financially support the work of Jesus they are offering to those entrusted to their care. Thank you for your welcome of the sisters and your generosity in your giving.

Finally, please remember our late pastor, Fr. Dan Redmond, in your prayers this week. This Tuesday, May 9 marks the second anniversary of his passing.

I am Yours in Christ,
 Father Scott Goodfellow

MENTAL HEALTH PERSPECTIVE: INTRODUCING LUKE BROWN FROM SACRED HEART COUNSELING, LLC

Hello! My name is Luke Brown and I am a mental health counselor. I pursued a degree in mental health after a few years in seminary formation studying philosophy and theology.

While I discerned that God was not calling me to love others as a priest, I learned that he was calling me to another important path of helping others find healing and peace as a counselor. In 2021, I started my own practice, Sacred Heart Counseling, where people can find mental health counseling that is able to incorporate their faith as part of the healing journey. As part of my ministry, I write a weekly reflection column in the hopes of bringing our faith and mental health together to provide practical steps and insights towards healing and peace. I regularly discuss topics such as anxiety, depression, parenting, relationship conflicts, communication, and boundaries, to name a few. One of my biggest goals is to destigmatize the mental health world within our Catholic faith. Too often I hear people say that counseling is for "crazy" people or that it is essentially "rent-a-buddy." Neither of these things are true. Counseling is for anyone who finds themselves or their relationships in a difficult place and needs some help to find a path forward. Frankly, I thought these same things about counseling until a priest told me that I should pursue counseling and, when I did, a whole new world opened up before me. And now I am a counselor. Life is funny that way. I hope these reflections are helpful for you and give you food for thought! If you ever have any questions about my reflections or concerns, please feel free to reach out to me at 440-305-6192 or at lukebrown@sacredheartcleveland.com. You will be in my prayers!

PRINCIPAL'S CORNER

This week, I would like to celebrate all of the wonderful teachers we have at St. Mary School. These dedicated people put the needs of their students first in order to prepare them for a bright future filled with faith. Some of our teachers hit special milestones this year. Ms. VonLindern, fondly known as Coach, is celebrating 35 years of working for the Cleveland Diocese and Mrs. Graham, our Pre-K Flex teacher, celebrates 15 years. Both women use each day at St. Mary to let their students know that we are part of God's family. Mrs. Passow received a special award this week from the Sisters of Notre Dame. As the Director of Faith Formation this year, and all that she does just being herself, Mrs. Passow was 1 of 4 people nationally recognized for the Gospel Witness Award. This award is presented to those who reflect and nurture the Notre Dame charism, spirit and mission within their professional communities and among all they minister to. Sister Sandy was able to come to our School Mass on Tuesday to present this remarkable award to Mrs. Passow.

SUMMER LUNCH PROGRAM

Did you know that 1 out of every 3 children in the Cardinal School District qualify for free or reduced lunch during the school year? The number is 1 in 5 in the Berkshire and Chardon School District and 1 in 10 in the West Geauga School District. In 2019, Claridon Community Helps began the "Now That's What I'm Talking About!" Summer Lunch program to feed children during the summer months. Since that time, we have provided 36,737 lunches to children in 12 townships within 4 school districts. On Thursday, May 4th, multiple schools in the area including St. Mary's School, participated in a county-wide Food Drive. These items will be used in preparing and serving lunches to children this summer.

Volunteers are needed to prepare and serve lunch to children this summer. Volunteers of all ages are welcome! You can join us for a day, a week or the whole summer. We prepare lunches at Claridon Congregational Church every Monday, Wednesday and Friday beginning Friday, May 26th and continue through Monday, August 14th (We do not serve meals on Memorial Day.)

GEAUGA COUNTY H.E.L.P

The Geauga County Catholic Pro-Life Coalition (H.E.L.P.) will be having a quarterly meeting on Saturday, May 20th, at St. Helen Church in Newbury after the 8:00 a.m. Mass in the conference room downstairs. Besides covering many critical human life issues facing us today, Mary Van Carlowitz, Director of the Office of Human Life for the Diocese of Cleveland, will be updating us on the diocesan campaign called "Protect Them Both." This plan is designed to raise the awareness of every Catholic parishioner to VOTE NO on the proposed November Ohio constitutional amendment. The proposed amendment would enshrine, as a protected right in Ohio, the right to abort a child up to the moment of birth and remove the rights of parents to be involved in their minor child's decision to abort her baby or undergo gender transitioning procedures. To find out more about the "Protect Them Both" campaign, visit <https://helpprolife.org/protect-them-both/> where you can download bulletin inserts, prayer cards, a May letter from all of the Ohio Bishops, and much more. See you at the meeting!
