MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parish Family,

We can receive great consolation from the readings this Second Sunday of Advent. The Lord gives comfort to His people, speaking tenderly to them, being patient with them as they prepare the way of the Lord. The gentle peace and comfort suggested here is not one of complacency or satisfaction with our fallen world, but rather are geared towards our repentance, enabling us to become people who will enact the merciful justice and righteousness of God in our lives, and to prepare ourselves for the day of redemption which is at hand. St. Peter says it well: "What sort of persons ought you to be, conducting yourselves in holiness and devotion...Be eager to be found without spot or blemish before Him, at peace."

This sense of redemption in becoming the person God wants me to be can be hard work, which is why many avoid a deeper conversion to the Lord! We who come to Church week after week (as we ought!) can forget just how difficult it can be for someone not in that rhythm of weekly worship to put God into first place in their lives. We know intuitively that if we put God first, we will change - not because God forces us to change, but because being close to Him will prompt us to seek Him first in all aspects of our lives.

The Lord challenges us to take the invitation and risk to put Him first. Lead the way of witness to what a life fully surrendered to God looks like. When we take this risk, invitation, and challenge, we will go through trial and tribulation, but we will be pure and at peace knowing that we have returned everything to God who has given us all we have and are.

Advent Communal Penance – Monday, December 11 at 7:00 p.m. – We are partnering with St. Gabriel Parish in Concord to host a Communal Penance Service at St. Mary's in Chardon this Monday, December 11 at 7:00 p.m. A Communal Penance Service is a Liturgy of the Word service with an examination of conscience and opportunity for individual Confession with a priest. A number of priests from our area will be available to hear Confessions. I encourage you to come pray with and for one another at this service as we open our hearts together to the Lord's merciful love for us.

Christmas Masses – Remember that our Christmas Mass schedule looks a bit different this year since Christmas Eve falls on a Sunday, and we need to be mindful of the energies and availability of our ministers who serve at our Masses. We will celebrate the Fourth Sunday of Advent on the morning of Sunday, December 24 with the 8:00 a.m. and 10:00 a.m. Masses (there is NO 12:00 p.m. Mass for the Fourth Sunday of Advent). We will celebrate Christmas Eve with a 4:00 p.m. and 8:00 p.m. Mass (the normal 6:30 p.m. and 10:00 p.m. Masses are replaced by the 8:00 p.m. this year only). As we have done the past few years, we will only have the 8:00 a.m. and 10:00 a.m. Masses on Christmas Day (there is NO 12:00 p.m. Mass on Christmas Day). Thank you for your understanding as we adjust times for this year.

Mass Obligations for Fourth Sunday of Advent and Christmas – Since the Fourth Sunday of Advent (December 23-24) and Christmas (December 24-25) fall side-by-side this year, remember that we are obligated to celebrate BOTH the Fourth Sunday of Advent (December 23 Vigil Mass or December 24 morning Mass) AND Christmas Mass (December 24 Christmas Eve Mass or December 25 Christmas Day Mass). Please know that if you attend different celebrations on the same day (like attending both the Fourth Sunday of Advent and Christmas Eve on December 24), you can receive Communion at both of those liturgies. Remember also that the word “obligated” means that God has extended to you a gracious invitation for your salvation and a wonderful opportunity to draw close to Him through the Word and Sacrament of the Eucharist!

I am yours in Christ,
Fr. Scott Goodfellow

SMS PRINCIPAL'S CORNER

This week, the school was able to get into the Christmas Spirit with a Christmas Band Concert on Monday. The 4th through 8th grade band students shared their talents with the school community.

We celebrated St. Nicholas' Day with a Prayer service that included a visit from St. Nicholas himself. He even left a candy cane for the students when they left their shoe in the hallway for him.

Our week ended with celebrating the Feast of the Immaculate Conception on Friday. The students led the Mass for the school and parish family. After honoring Mary, the NJHS inducted 16 new members. This is the group that organized the school food drive for Thanksgiving. St. Mary prays that your Advent is going well as you prepare for Jesus' Coming.

Angel Scholarship Fund Ambassadors & CPA's will be present in the Banquet Room throughout breakfast to answer questions and guide you through the donation process before the end of 2023.

BUILDING THE DOMESTIC CHURCH

What is the Domestic Church?

The phrase "domestic church" has been used to describe families since the beginning of Christianity. In his Letter to Families, Pope St. John Paul II explained, "The Fathers of the Church, in the Christian tradition, have spoken of the family as a 'domestic church,' a 'little church.'"

The Knights of Columbus are pleased to be able to make a series of booklets by the Catholic Information Service available to the Parish at no cost. These booklets are in a kiosk to the right of the West doors to the parking lot from the Gathering space.

If you would like to donate toward replenishing the booklets in this Kiosk, please use one of the envelopes provided here and place it into the Envelope Collection Box near the Sacristy or the locked box under the ledge in the Parish Office.
